Wedding Rites At Waggoner Home

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls was that of Norma Elaine Abrams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Abrams of Gallup, New Mexico, who became the bride of Harry Robertson Waggoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Waggoner, at the family home, 920 Grant street, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 25.

The Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach of St. Paul's Episcopal church, read the ceremony in the presence of the groom's family.

The bride wore a powder blue sheer wool frock with bracelet length sleeves and long waistline. Her corsage was fashioned of pink rosebuds and gardenias and in her hair she wore a band of rosebuds. Her only attendant was the groom's cousin, Margaret Gatchell of Albany, Oregon. The best man was the groom's brother, Walter B. Waggoner.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple cut their wedding cake which centered a wreath of fern and stephanotis. Later a wedding dinner was served at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner are now in Eugene where the groom is in business. Both he and his bride plan to return to Oregon State college for the spring term, as does Walter B. Waggoner.

The groom attended Oregon State before going into the service and was a member of Theta Xi fraternity and president of the house. He was recently discharged with the rank of lieutenant in the United States army air corps and served in that branch as a B-29 pilot.

Toys For Holidays

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club are requested to bring to the December 10 meeting a toy for the children of the Doernbecher hospital in Portland. Dolls, doll clothes and soft cuddly toys are particularly recommended as these children are all bed patients and they can more readily handle that sort of toy. Also, it is requested that pins and other sharp objects be eliminated as the children are generally very young and are apt to injure themselves.

The Doernbecher hospital is a part of the medical school and is supported by the state. However, any extras must be supplied by the citizens of the state of Oregon and in the past the people of Klamath Falls have always contributed a larger portion than any other community—so let's keep up our good record and give these children a very Merry Christmas!

Doernbecher hospital is not an institution local to Portland. Applications for aid to Klamath county children can be made through Dr. P. H. Rozendal at the county health office.

December Enters Shopping Picture

Today is the first day of December and plans for the holidays are already in the air. Christmas shopping is under way and the slogan is "get there quick" as shelves are rapidly being depleted by folks who are heeding the warning of mailing early.

Toys and suchlike seem to be very much as they were last year and a few tree ornaments are available. The only nyrons we've seen were those at Rotary and aren't they pretty!

The University of Oregon-Oregon State game at Eugene this weekend will see quite a few Klamath folks on hand. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serruys left the latter part of the week for the valley town, having had their tickets for quite some time.

If you have anything to make a pie . . . apples, some mince meat, pumpkins or squash, will you please leave the makings at the USO? With the Christmas holidays coming up they need pies and more pies. If the materials are donated, the pies are served without charge to military personnel. There are plenty of women to do the baking if you will produce the inside dope.
