Eventful Trip—J. B. Lemire of Klamath Falls and his son, Charles, who was just recently discharged from the service, and George Lemire of Medford took an eventful trip to the coast last week. Between Roseburg and Coos Bay a huge rock blocked the highway so they had to drive out of the way about 150 miles to reach Coos Bay by another highway, and when they got there the Coos Bay water supply had been declared unfit for drinking. Lemire said the weather on the other side of the mountains was warm but rainy and that roses were still blooming in Coos Bay, but his party only stayed a couple of hours because of the drinking water situation.

VFW Auxiliary—The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday, December 6, in the library rooms for initiations and discussions of plans for the annual Christmas party. All officers of the auxiliary are asked to wear their uniforms to this meeting. Refreshments prepared by a committee headed by Mrs. Robert Canoy will be served.
