Nine-year-old Donn McIntyre of Grants Pass, the youngest registered participant in the Grants Pass steelhead derby, was awarded an autographed $25 Victory bond by Jack Dempsey after he brought in his catch. Donn's fish is a beauty, but not the biggest pulled out of Rogue river in the first two weeks of the eight-week fishing derby. A six-pound 12-ounce steelhead caught by Steve Martin is tops so far for the $500 grand prize.

Coach Seeks Able Quint For Weed 5

Tomorrow Night's Show Will Have Two Games, Starting At 7 O'clock

With his squad whittled to 13 men now, Coach Dutch French is casting about for a clicking five-man combination to start against Weed tomorrow night in the opening game of the high school season.

Of the 13-man roster, French says he has ten men of about the same caliber and they will all probably get a try in the Weed game.

He has two lettermen starters, Jim Palmer and Jerry Thorne, back from last year's Pelican cagers, but most of his squad is without varsity experience.

In two weeks of practice the Pels have been drilling on the fundamentals almost entirely, a fast break and man-to-man defense that occasionally lapses into a zone.

The Pels have 11 home games scheduled for this season. Their second tilt is with Weed down there this coming Saturday.

There is a rumor current at the high school that to put added zip into his squad, French is feeding the boys vitamin pills. However, that hasn't been confirmed.

Admission to the games tomorrow night will be 60 cents for adults, 30 cents for students. Before the varsity game the KUHS second string will play the Weed aggregation's second stringers in a full-length tilt starting at 7 o'clock.

LONG TIME BETWEEN ANN ARBOR—Michigan State has beaten Michigan in football only six times since 1898.

More Than 400 Anglers Enter Steelhead Derby

GRANTS PASS, Dec. 5 (P)—With the close of the first two weeks of the eight-week steelhead derby, Steve Martin's six pound 12 ounce steelhead is in the lead for the $500 grand prize, derby officials report.

The steelhead derby register at the derby headquarters in the lobby of the Del Rogue hotel is fast taking on the appearance of a "who's who." Of the more than 400 registrants to date, 147 are from out of town, representing nine different states.

Fliers Cancel Game; Two More Slated

The all-marine basketball game between the local leathernecks and the Miramar, Calif., marine fliers which was scheduled for tonight at the KUHS gym has been cancelled by the Californians. It was announced by barracks officials today.

The Miramar cagers wired from Sacramento that they were grounded there by bad weather and would have to call off both the Klamath Falls game and one against the Webfoots at Eugene, which was slated for last night at Eugene.

However, the Klamath Falls leathernecks are still expecting to meet another marine outfit, an El Centro, Calif., quintet, on the barracks court Thursday and Friday nights.

El Centro has won national recognition in basketball through the war years and word received here indicates another classy cage squad down there this season.

The local marines, despite being a speedy, scrappy ball club, are still dangling at the lower end of the basketball ladder with three losses against one win this season. They were soundly trounced by the Oregon Ducks Monday night, 70-44.

Both the Thursday and Friday games are slated to start at 8 o'clock and civilian cage fans are invited to attend.

Buckeye Beauty Chosen To Conquer Viking

George Davis New Reames President

George P. Davis was elected president of Reames country club for next year during a meeting held at the clubhouse last night. He succeeds Harry Panning.

The new vice president is Ernest Mullis and Gene Hooker was elected secretary.

These officials, along with Dick Miller and Earl Weimar, constitute the board of directors for next year.

Panning automatically goes on the club's board of trustees.

Amateur Net Champs After Dollars Now

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5 (P)—Four former world's amateur champions will be going after the $5000 purse today as the world's professional hardcourt tennis championships open at the Los Angeles Tennis club.

Don Budge, Bobby Riggs, Fred Perry and Bill Tilden each has won both the national at Forest Hills and the Wimbledon title in England in the past. But Budge and Riggs, younger and stronger, are expected to meet Sunday in the finals.

Doubles seedings find Budge and Perry at the top, with Riggs and John Faunce of Beverly Hills, Calif., No. 2; Tilden and Lester Stofen No. 3 and Gene Mako and Ben Gorchakoff of Los Angeles No. 4.

South's Loop Vetoes PCL Move To Majors

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 5 (P)—The Pacific Coast League and the Southern association provided the fireworks today as the 44th annual convention of the national professional baseball leagues settled down to actual business.

The Pacific coast loop wanted to become a major league and the Southern association was ready to say "no" and lead the fight against creation of a class AAA group for the current three class A leagues—the American association, the International and Pacific Coast leagues.

43 Top Bowlers Survive Tourney

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (P)—Forty-three of the nation's front-ranking bowlers, survivors in a field of 139 in four days of competition, will roll 12 games each today to determine the finalists in the fifth annual all-star bowling tournament for the match-game championship of 1948.

Walter Ward, the Cleveland sharpshooting veteran, leads the 43 qualifiers for today's semifinals with 4975 in 24 games. The 207-average of the 48-year-old kegling star, put him 45 pins

Tough, durable Gust Johnson will need all his toughness and durability to head off speedy Angelo Martinelli in their four-round curtain raiser at the armory Friday night.

The Viking hasn't appeared here for a year, but as best remembered he was a fine journeyman grappler but not nearly so lively on his pins as the Buckeye Beauty, who is as nimble as a toe dancer with a bun-ion.

Slaughter isn't normally a part of Martinelli's makeup, though recent bouts with unclean grapplers has taught him to fight fire with fire. Angelo will always let the other fellow start the rough stuff, which might be a good thing for Johnson to know.

Slaughter, however, will probably be very much a part of the makeup of the other two bouts on Friday's card, wherein the Grey Mask and Pete Belcastro meet for a return scuffle and Rough Rube Jones and Joe Lyman exchange courtesies for a split main event.

A meeting with the Mask holds no fear for the Weed Assassin. He's done it before and generally received an assortment of cuts and bruises for his trouble. However, Pete still thinks he can lick the old fellow, particularly after going three rounds to no-fall with him last week.

Joe Lyman, the Redmond, Ore., classic youth, will have a tough time maintaining his good looks against the savage onslaughts of the Detroit Negro. Jones just doesn't like people, particularly people who get into the ring with him, so probably won't be very impressed by the ex-serviceman's physical beauty unless Joe beats an appreciation into the colored boy's thick skull.
