Shops and Shops

Nuts Arriving At Pine Street

BY the first of the week the PINE STREET MARKET will have its complete supply of nuts for the holidays . . . and since, of course, you wouldn't think of not having nuts in the pantry for Christmas . . . you might as well order yours early.

At present, the assortment includes filberts, walnuts, almonds and peanuts . . . and, coming up, are Brazil nuts . . . (which most of us haven't tasted for three years on account of restricted shipping) . . . and pecans. The Market has all of these either shelled . . . or unshelled.

You'll be interested to know also that a shipment has just come in of fancy packed Muscat CLUSTER raisins and packaged California dried figs . . . put out by S & W. Raisins of the cluster type are especially suitable for using in fruit centerpieces . . . besides being good eating.

PINE STREET MARKET . . . at Seventh and Pine . . . will send your orders out twice daily . . . at 10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m.

Shaw's Juvenile Books Plentiful

THE pleasure derived from books is certainly to be considered when it comes to choosing children's gifts . . . and having juvenile books jotted down on the list . . . Martha naturally went to SHAW'S.

Two new ones especially desirable for Christmas are "Tell Me About God" and "Tell Me About Jesus" . . . both by Mary Alice Jones . . . beautifully illustrated.

From serious to humorous . . . I was entranced by a wonderful animated book . . . "Uncle Ben Jay's Jumble Jungle" . . . containing over 300,000 composite animals and jumbled jingles. The poems of James Whitcomb Riley are beloved by children, teen-agers and adults alike . . . so I took particular note of Riley's "Complete Poetical Works" that would be a gift to be cherished . . . as also would be "The Best Loved Poems of the American People" . . . containing poems of love and life, home and mother, childhood and youth . . . the sort you paste in your scrap-book.

SHAW STATIONERY CO. . . 729 Main . . . also has a plentiful supply of the Milne books . . . and other volumes of childhood favorites.

Garcelon's Holds Pre-Holiday Sale

SHOPPING around on Wednesday . . . Martha discovered that GARCELON'S has placed many of its linens on sale . . . preliminary to closing out this line of merchandise . . . but the unusual part is it's a pre-holiday sale!

Here are some of the opportunities I noted that you'll want to take advantage of:

Decorated tea towels, of lint-proof crash, linen and sateen . . . the regular 95c size marked down to 70c . . . the 85c ones selling for 60c . . . and the 75c towels at 59c.

Linen guest towels, appliqued and embroidered . . . formerly $1.50 for $1.19 . . . the $2.25 for $1.79. Hand woven guest towels were marked down from $2.85 to $2.00.

Lovely luncheon cloths regularly priced at $1.25 are selling for $1.00 . . . and table cloths in colorful designs are reduced from $2.75 to $1.75 . . . and from $3.95 to $2.75.

The 85c table runners are priced at 55c. Place mats to match that usually sell for 65c are marked 40c. Children's bibs of a very good quality . . . are cut from 40c to 20c.

All these are on sale at GARCELON'S . . . 407 Main.

Moe's Recettes Baby Fluffees

WHEN it comes to dolls Martha never grew up and certainly the new ones at MOE'S are worth going out of your way to see. But, if you don't intend to get another doll for little Mary this Christmas . . . you'd better not take her with you.

These are Baby Fluffees . . . made by Halco . . . and are FEATHERWEIGHT. There are baby dolls . . . both large and medium sized . . . and several beautifully dressed types with hair . . . including one little love with long braids in a trig play suit. The dolls in this collection are priced from $5.50 to $9.95.

Besides, there's the Hollywood series character dolls . . . small, but so cleverly costumed that little girls have a frightful time deciding which to have for their very own. Prices in this group range from $1.30 to $5.95.

Moe's also has for Christmas an excellent selection of stuffed toys . . . some with real fur and washable . . . and several kinds of rag dolls . . . including one I saw that's as large as a baby . . . for $5.50.

You'll find these dolls on display in the downstairs store at MOE'S . . . The Woman's Store . . . 512 Main.

To provide bravely and easier reading, Martha is going to shop twice a week, which means that this column, dealing with what's new and interesting in Klamath stores, will appear in both the Thursday and Saturday issues of The Herald-News whenever feasible.

Whytal's Features 1946 Swim Suits

FINDING a friend shopping frantically for a swimming suit . . . in a December snowstorm . . . Martha felt completely bewildered . . . but pitched in to help out . . . and our search ended at Whytal's.

Not only does Whytal's have scads and scads of swim suits . . . but they're smart as you'll see every bit as smart as you'll see on the Palm Beach sands . . . and you can do a beautiful job of decorating the Barracks' pool in one.

Most picturesque of those Wanda Speer brought out were the loose weave two-piece suits . . . with matching capes that have huge ruffled collars . . . in lovely shades such as rose and chrysanthemum.

Second favorite was a cute, bloomer-leg style silk jersey . . . zipped up the back . . . and shirred down the front of the bodice. These come in a variety of pastel stripes.

Two types of suits . . . the skirt-style jerseys . . . with a good color selection, including white . . . and the lined, cotton checks with butterfly bows on the back . . . could be worn just as well for play suits as for swimming.

Whytal's also has a complete stock of the popular, two-piece LATEST suits . . . and neat beach outfits made of a crash material . . . consisting of brassiere, trunks and short coat. Most of the suits have zippers for convenience.

After looking them over, Martha decided . . . well, why not be different and give a swim suit for Christmas . . .

From WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Dental Building at Ninth and Main.

Send Tussy "With Love" For Holidays

EXPRESSIVE of the Christmas season . . . when we're seeking just the perfect gift to convey our affections . . . are the adorably quaint Tussy "With Love" toiletries at CURRIN'S . . . at least Martha hopes there'll still be some there for you to see.

With Love comes in two sizes of cologne . . . two sizes in dusting powder . . . liquid bubble bath . . . and heart-shaped soap, four to a box . . . that would make a mighty clever Valentine . . . if you don't mind my skipping over a couple of months.

These toiletries by Tussy are packaged in boxes of holiday red . . . and on the containers are old-fashioned, out-of-date scenes that add a romantic touch. Also, With Love is a wintertime fragrance . . . that would make a pleasing to almost any woman . . . and is on display . . .

At the cosmetic counter . . . in CURRIN'S for DRUGS . . . the friendly drug store at the corner of Ninth and Main.

Long's Ceramics Add Lovely Touch

ALL of you with a weakness for costume jewelry will have some exclaiming to do . . . when you see the exquisite ceramic pins and earrings . . . that arrived this week at LONG'S.

These clever flower pins provide an economical way to smarten up your plain suits and woolsens . . . or a set of ceramics would make a truly DISTINCTIVE gift. They're worn in sets of two or three you know . . . arranged on the lapel or pockets.

Martha had a difficult time deciding between the calla lilies . . . of white, yellow or purple . . . with matching earrings . . . the gorgeous pansies. Other flowers represented by these delicate colored ceramics are carnations, peonies, anemones, water lilies and gardenias . . .

Now on display in the window of LONG'S APPAREL . . . 719 Main.

Bronze Bookends Shown By Cameo

IN the CAMEO SHOP the other day . . . Martha saw something that's been impossible to get for several years . . . SOLID BRONZE bookends . . . the kind that really hold up the books . . . and make a handsome gift.

Designs molded on these include lodge emblems, nautical and western.

The shop now has a wide assortment of leather goods . . . in the finest line obtainable . . . including wallets, tobacco pouches, brief cases . . . and you can have a name lettered in gold from 50 to 75 cents a line.

As I've mentioned before . . . THE CAMEO SHOP . . . 737 Main . . . has an astounding supply of pictures . . . all sizes and types . . . and picture framing is a specialty.

"Your Store" Has Wrapping Service

FOR the convenience of its patrons . . . YOUR STORE, Inc. maintains a complete wrapping service . . . a double convenience to busy holiday shoppers . . . as you well know.

By wrapping service I don't mean gift wrapping . . . but completely preparing your package for mailing. And if you want to send a gift from Your Store by express . . . the store will pack and send it off for you . . . and all you have to do is pay the shipping charges. Isn't that easy?

Shopping around in there the other day . . . Martha learned that YOUR STORE, Inc. . . 721 Main . . . has the largest stock of gifts ever . . . and unlimited variety.

Repair Work Set Back By Heavy Gusts

PORTLAND, Dec. 6 (AP)—Another surge of wind following Tuesday's gale set back repair work on broken power and communications today.

Winds with gusts up to 35 and 40 miles an hour were recorded at Portland airport during the night. The velocity fell to 12 miles this morning.

Portland power companies reported service normal to all hospitals and industries, but power was still partly out in homes of a dozen northwest towns.

Glencoe school here announced today it would not reopen because of lack of heat.

One-Way Traffic On Main Street Vigorously Opposed By Merchants

Vigorous opposition to the establishment of one-way traffic on Main street, as suggested in a cross-city traffic plan offered by State Highway Engineer R. H. Baldock, was voiced at a meeting of numerous Main street merchants and property owners at the chamber of commerce rooms last night.

The group at first considered opposition to any one-way traffic in Klamath Falls. Later, it decided to confine its opposition to such a plan for Main street, leaving the questions involving Pine street or Klamath avenue for an expression from Pine and Klamath avenue people.

Engineer Baldock, on a recent visit here, outlined three possible cross-city plans, all calling for one-way traffic, crossing the city from the Link river bridge on the south to Esplanade and Alameda streets on the north. From the latter point, a new entrance to the city would connect with highway No. 97 north at about the point of the overhead crossing at the north city limits.

Here are the three plans: No. 1—North on Klamath, south on Main. No. 2—South on Klamath, north on Walnut. No. 3—South on Pine, north on Klamath.

No. 1 Best In making his report here last week, Baldock said he regarded plan No. 1 as the best from the standpoint of both traffic movement and costs.

The group present last night, numbering about 50, voted virtually unanimously in opposition to one-way travel on Main, and indicated a desire for a study by the engineers of possible plans which would not require one-way traffic. The opinion was generally expressed that one-way traffic would be harmful to business on Main street. One suggestion was made that highway No. 97, on its routes through town, be divided north-south by making one route northbound and the other southbound, without restricting travel to one-way.

Resolution Presented

After the meeting at the chamber of commerce, which was presided over by Paul Skeen, the group went to the city hall and presented its resolution to the city planning commission and council, in joint session there.

In the ensuing discussion, it was proposed that state highway engineers be invited to come to Klamath again for a general meeting of all interested persons for a discussion of cross-city traffic plans. Bert Igl, chairman of the planning commission, said he would suggest such a meeting to the engineers, and in cooperation with The Herald and News would give it ample publicity so all persons who wish may be present.

The meeting last night was not sponsored by any organization. Skeen, who is president of the Klamath Merchants association, said he was asked by several persons to call such a meeting, and finally did so, with word passed along the street informally.

Civil Case Due For Jury

Now in its fourth day, the irrigation dispute between W. O. Smith, Main farmer, and the Horsey Irrigation district may be ready for the circuit court jury late this afternoon. Smith rested his case against the district yesterday.

The Main potato grower is suing the Horsey concern for $7000 damages. He claims that amount is the difference between what his potato crop brought last year and what it would have brought had the land been properly irrigated. Smith was farming a 21-acre leased patch between Bonanza and Dairy and charges the irrigation concern failed to keep his farm supplied with water so his crop was not successful. The irrigation district, through its attorney, William Ganong, is seeking to prove that the terrain of Smith's land is too uneven and hilly to be completely irrigated and the company is not at fault in the crop failure.
