

Today's Roundup

SERIOUSNESS of the refrigerator car shortage in the Klamath potato districts has increased, if changed at all, since the matter was mentioned in this column a few days ago.

EPLEY

The shortage has developed at a most unfortunate time. Klamath has produced and contracted for several hundred carloads of seed stock for planting in the early potato districts of California, and this is the time these potatoes must move south.

Demurrage Rates VARIOUS local agencies have received numerous telegrams from congressmen and others relative to efforts at the top level to do something about the reefer shortage.

Sought Answer WELL, I went about my business, but that egg haunted me. Surely I kept saying to myself, there's a story somewhere in it for this column.

Briefs From The Pocket File

JOSEPH KEENAN, who has been named prosecutor of Jap war criminals, is associated with former Mayor Willis Mahoney of Klamath Falls in a Washington law office.

Part of the red tape has been cleared away to make the Klamath municipal airport field available for use by civilian fliers.

Richard Shore Smith, Eugene banker, who has just retired after many years at the head of the First National bank there, is a former Klamath boy.

GET THEM HOME

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To The Editor)—I recently received the following letter from one of my friends in the service now on a Pacific Island.

Well, I am sitting here just wasting my time and wishing I was home, but so are 400,000 other GIs here on this island.

I don't remember any of the Senators of Oregon but Marshall Cornett. I have written him. Here is the thing that looks bad to us over here: There are about 1000 ships of all sizes here at Okinawa alone not doing a thing at all but the army is not doing anything about it.

There are men here with 3 or 4 years service and still no discharge. I tell you, Jack, it makes me sick to think of the way the damned army is fooling around. I just wish you would bring this to the attention of any and everyone that can and will help these guys.

I will quit the gripes for now. Say, how are the fellows getting along with their strike in dear old Klamath Falls, and say Jack, tell the boys hello for me and I will be home in about a year. I hope and intend to do a hell of a lot of logging when I get home and say Jack, take an extra quart of good whiskey Christmas for me because here for a short time after college, later moving to Eugene to go into the law and banking business. He is a cousin of E. M. Bubbs, former Klamath banker. Smith retired from the Eugene bank when it was sold to the TransAmerica people. The first year this scribe attended the University of Oregon, Dick Smith was pinch-hitting as football coach there.

Today's Bible Reading

From First Corinthians XIII THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.

When I was a child I spake as a child, I understood as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

The World Today

By DeWitt MacKENZIE Associated Press World Traveler LONDON, Dec. 8.—When I returned to my hotel room yesterday afternoon I found a hen's egg carefully cradled on the pen-tray of my writing tablet—but without rhyme, reason or explanation of where it came from.

My first thought was that someone—likely the distaff side of this partnership was playing a joke on me. After all, an egg is a most unusual thing for a gentleman to find on his writing table in one of London's elite hotels.

On examination, however, there was the number of our room penciled in big figures across the white shell, and on the other side was a green stamp saying the egg came from Canada.

Then suddenly I remembered fresh eggs are so scarce in England that, while the ration varies, the Briton and visitors are lucky to get one or two a month, the rest being in the form of egg powder. So this was either Mrs. Mac's egg, or mine, and the other would be along in due course.

Wonderful Meal WELL, she replied, "my immediate reaction is that you've found a jewel. That egg is a wonderful meal. You can't imagine how we treasure eggs, with our short and monotonous rations. It's been tough going, especially since lend-lease stopped and cut us off from tinned meat" (and she gave me a reproachful look).

Well, "Lou" made us a "dish" of tea, and we headed back to our hotel and the lone egg, with the feeling that she had given us a very shrewd appraisal of the position. That Canadian egg, by the way, goes to "Lou."

There is no such thing on Okinawa. We do get 8 bottles of beer a month.

Well, Jack, I will dummy up for now. So long Jack and good luck.

A GI Friend Pvt. Orville H. Stewart.

On the back of the envelope in which I received this letter was stamped "NO BOATS, NO VOTES." I think it is a good slogan. Let's all of us adopt it, and to anyone that is interested in getting our boys home write letters to your senator or representative and the war and navy departments. The boys in the navy are having an equally hard time getting home. We have a lot of marines in China that should have been sent home long ago.

I have known Orville Stewart for a long time. I know that he is dependable and believe the above to be true. I have heard similar stories from hundreds of other servicemen. Remember folks, one letter from you individually does more good to the powers that be than a petition with thousands of names on it.

We have read a lot recently of big shots in the navy and army being awarded medals of honor. It looks as though it would have been more fitting to have given some of them an "Iron Cross or a Hirohito Rose."

Klamath's Yesterdays

From the files — 40 years ago and 10 years ago

From the Klamath Republican Dec. 7, 1905

Jas. Driscoll and J. O. Hamaker have completed a new water tank at Bonanza.

Carlyle Yaden will give the declamation, "The District Schoolhouse," at the high school entertainment here this week. Maude Nail and Luke Walker will give a dialogue, "Taking the Census." Members of the cast for a farce are Carlton Spencer, Vincent Yaden, Jesse Siemens, Georgia Hoagland and Jesse Marple.

From the Evening Herald Dec. 9, 1935

Crater Lake division of Railroad Conductors have installed the following officers:

G. C. Stevens, chief conductor; O. R. Kluth, assistant conductor; W. C. Milkey, senior conductor; A. Peterstiner, junior conductor; J. L. Smith, inside sentinel; H. C. Bonney, legislative representative; C. W. Klum, outside sentinel; G. W. Rose, L. Bradford, H. F. Series, directors.

7 New Members Initiated By Eagles Auxiliary

Seven new members were initiated at the regular meeting of Eagles auxiliary, November 27.

The meeting December 4 was devoted to plans for the Christmas party to be held December 18. There will be entertainment, refreshments and gifts. Candidates who have received notices the past few months are urged to be present for initiation. Officers and drill team will not wear formal on this occasion.

The drum corps will practice every Monday evening.

Welcome Roxallanne — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, 421 N. 4th, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Roxallanne, who arrived at Hillside hospital at 12:20 a. m., December 8. The baby weighed six pounds, four and one-half ounces. Kelly, who was recently discharged from the service, is employed with Howard Perrin's office.

That Christmas may be perpetuated not only for today — but for days and years to come.
