

Canvass Will Start On Monday

Klamath Falls women will knock on doors in a house-to-house canvass starting Monday morning in an effort to complete the Klamath county community chest fund drive. Those who have not been contacted will be, sometime during the week, and if you have not made a contribution, please be ready to do so. No matter how small, each contribution will be a welcome one.

One evening this past week a group met with W. E. Lamm, fund chairman; Elton Thompson and Robert Lamott, assistant chairmen and Mrs. Rose M. Poole, chairman of the women's division.

Present at this meeting, held at the chamber of commerce rooms, were Mrs. Poole, Mrs. Leigh M. Ackerman, Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mrs. Stephen Sabo, Mrs. Coleman O'Loughlin, Mrs. Jack Murphy, Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Mrs. E. Laton Stephens, Mrs. Harry Briggs, Mrs. Marvin Shepherd, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. George Hurn, and the three men.

Along with this representative group, will work the following starting next Monday:

Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Don Drulliner, Mrs. Mike Mosby, Mrs. William Beck, Mrs. Dora Goddard, Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mrs. Norma Miller, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Mrs. S. R. Brown, Mrs. C. C. Morris, Mrs. Ellis Matthews, Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, Mrs. Milt Sessler, Mrs. Norma Henson, Mrs. George A. Myers, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. R. A. LaLonde, Mrs. W. Martin, Mrs. Jack Linman, Mrs. W. S. Metler, Mrs. Ray Overson, Mrs. John Kerns, and Elenora Weatherford.

The community fund, for some reason, did not reach its quota by a long way. The local organizations which benefit from this fund such as Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Salvation Army and so forth, must have money to operate during the coming year. There are other agencies, too, which profit and are well worth while. Your cooperation is urged.

Wedding Rites

Antonio T. Polis and Ruth E. Heinberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Edwards of Malin, were married in a simple ceremony read by the Rev. Cecil C. Brown of the First Baptist church at the parsonage, 827 Eldorado, at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, December 6.

The double ring ceremony was used. The bride wore a black afternoon dress with white sequin trim and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. Her attendant, Mrs. Rose M. Spolek, wore black and a pink carnation corsage.

Mr. Edwards attended the groom. Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Louis Kalina were also present at the ceremony.

THE PRESBYTERIAN church was the scene of the wedding of Viola Hicks and Alvin Cheyne, on Sunday, December 2. The young couple will reside at Spring Lake. —Kennell-Ellis.

Farewells Said

Lucille Winkler was the honor guest at a farewell party given Tuesday, December 4, by the Silver Moon Blue Bird group of Mills school. She left December 6 with her mother and younger sister for St. Louis, Missouri, where they will reside.

Following games and singing, Lucille was presented with a gift from the group. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edamae Adamson, leader, and Hazel Craig, assistant leader.

Viola Hicks Is Bride On Sunday

Viola Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hicks of Bonanza, became the bride of Alvin Cheyne, son of Mrs. Alex B. Cheyne and the late Mr. Cheyne, in a ceremony read at the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, December 2, at 3 p. m. The Rev. David F. Barnett read the double ring ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar arrangement of palms and white chrysanthemums and many tall lighted white candles. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a pearl gray silk afternoon frock with bracelet length sleeves, sheered torso bodice and V-neck line. A pink feather halo hat completed her costume and she carried a white Bible with a single white orchid tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Eldon Clark was the bride's only attendant. She wore an aqua blue afternoon dress and matching hat and carried a bouquet of carnations. The best man was the groom's brother, Charles Cheyne.

Following the wedding a small reception was held in the church with the couple cutting their wedding cake which was later served by Mrs. Hicks, mother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Cheyne left shortly after the reception for California where they are spending their honeymoon. They will be at home at the Cheyne ranch in the Spring Lake district.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Clark, Mrs. Alex B. Cheyne, Robert Hicks, Della Cunningham, Virginia Cunningham, Robert Herringshaw and Charles Cheyne.

Past Matrons

Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. Alfreda Steinmetz and Mrs. George Casper were hostesses for the monthly 1 o'clock luncheon of Aloha Past Matrons club, Friday afternoon at the Masonic temple.

Mrs. O. F. Kenschot, president of the club, presided during the business session. A Christmas tree and gift exchange will be part of the program for the next regular meeting, December 25. Mrs. Elizabeth Norris and Mrs. H. F. Murdoch are in charge of arrangements for the tree. A potluck luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock on this date and the committee for this feature is Mrs. O. F. Kenschot, Mrs. H. G. Wortley, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. Fred Cofer and Mrs. A. B. Epperson.

Mrs. Walter West, who is leaving Klamath Falls to make her home in Oakland, Calif., was presented with a gift by the club. Mrs. West is a past matron of Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Kenschot was awarded the guest prize, and prize for high score in bridge went to Mrs. H. G. Wortley.

Camp Fire

Four girls of the Wawakeye Camp Fire group were awarded rank beads at a Council Fire held Monday, December 3, at the home of their guardian, Mrs. J. F. Lovell, 708 Jefferson.

Candles representing work, health and love were lit by Leona Leithead, Amelia Adams and Shermalee Henry. Girls who had completed requirements for trail seeker rank were Bonnie Wesley and Margaret Gerber, and those taking wood gatherer rank were Amelia Adams, Shirley Glenn and Leona Leithead. Jean Lovell received honor beads which she had earned during the past three months.

At the close of the meeting, the lights of work and health were extinguished by Amelia Adams and Shirley Glenn. Mrs. Lovell extinguished the light of love for Margaret Gerber, who was unable to attend.
