

Chairman Tells Of Washington Visit

Legislative Chairman Olive Cornett kept her audience spellbound at Monday night's dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, December 3, at the Willard hotel, when she described her visit to Washington, D. C., this fall, with her husband, State Senator Marshall Cornett.

Mrs. Cornett attended a joint session of the house and senate and had the privilege of seeing President Truman. She also described the legislative meeting of the capital city's BPW club, held in one of the large hotels, at which several dignitaries were guests.

The Hon. Rose M. Poole, one of Klamath's representatives to the state legislature, outlined the steps which a bill goes through, discussed interesting points in regard to legislation, and stressed the importance of all Oregon people informing themselves on the Columbia Valley Authority.

Elizabeth Ann Jones, secretary of the Klamath club, presented a resume of the annual report of the national legislative committee of BPW, and summed up the part which the organization has taken in legislation.

Barbara Wardell entertained with two readings, "What is Truth, Asked Pilate?" and "How It Started." Winnifred Gillen sang "Summertime" and "One For All and All For One," accompanied by Betty O'Conner.

An interesting wintertime theme was used in the table decorations, and assisting Mrs. Cornett with the program arrangements were Doris Schnell, Joanne Givan, Barbara Wardell and Elizabeth Ann Jones.

Dorothy Ackerman, music chairman, announced plans for the Christmas party to be held December 17. This will be a mother and daughter affair, with a 50-cent gift exchange, and it's to be a dress-up occasion—formals if you wish.

Isabelle Brixner invited members to her home for Sunday, December 16, to make holiday decorations.

It was announced that a state board meeting will be held in Portland on Monday, attended by President Hazel Morrison, Isabelle Brixner and Winnifred Gillen.

A Girl Scout and a Sea Scout sold Girl Scout calendars during the dinner hour. A card was read from Lillie Darby who is recuperating in Ashland from a serious illness, saying that she is improved. Hattie Evans received the special award for the evening.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY
By RITA WHISENANT
Licensed Cosmetologist

Being the full-fledged owner of a beauty shop still has my head whirling but, thank goodness, though Bernie and Evelyn sold to me they're staying with the Hazel Shop. Bernie will go east after the first of the year, for further study; Evelyn is staying indefinitely. (It's Miss Bernie Heidemann and Mrs. Evelyn Malloy, in case you haven't been a Hazel Shop fan).

The personnel all remains the same, and already we're dreaming up additional services. It's certainly grand to be back working with cosmetics again, and I feel that I'm in a better position now to help you with skin and scalp problems.

The Hazel Shop will be open December 24th, the day before Christmas, to give our customers their final beauty touches—but we'll be closed December 28th, the day after Christmas, to give the gals a break.

Christmas Tip: We have special Christmas Gift Cards for permanent wave gifts. Just call 6677.
Last August I wrote a "Thank You" column which I thought might be the last of "Beauty Is Your Duty" . . . but I did say that my interest in cosmetology was as strong as ever (let's add that there's no place like Klamath) . . . and here I am again.
