

Library Club Plans Program

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club has arranged a special Christmas program, to be held Monday at 2 p. m. in the city library auditorium.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman, will present the high school a cappella choir, under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr., in special music.

Lt. Comdr. Graham Gilmer, post chaplain, Marine Barracks, will speak on "Christmas at Sea."

Members are reminded of the collection of toys for the children in the Doernbecher hospital at Portland. Dolls, doll clothing and soft cuddly toys are particularly appropriate for these children as they are all bed patients. All pins and sharp objects should be removed.

Mrs. E. H. Balsiger and Mrs. Karl G. Cummings are hostesses, decorations will be arranged by Mrs. Loren Palmer.

Lt. Leon Messenger of the naval air station, who was to speak at the meeting January 14, will be unable to appear and Wallace S. Baldinger, associate professor of History of Art, University of Oregon, will

Helping Hand

MALIN—The Helping Hand society met at the home of Mrs. Lester Schreiner on November 28. They made plans to entertain their families with a Christmas party December 19. Mrs. George Smalley is chairman of food, Mrs. Louis Drager and Mrs. Earl McVey are on the decorating committee and Mrs. Halbert Wilson, entertainment. There will be a Christmas tree with gifts for the families and the Polly Annex.

Plans were also made to serve lunch at the dances on December 8, and December 25, at the Broadway hall in Malin.

A bazaar and carnival is being planned for sometime in April.

Mrs. Schrogren was voted in as a new member.

Members present at the meeting were: Mrs. Halbert Wilson, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Clarence Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Earl McVey, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Harry Hundley, Mrs. Ostin Terry, Mrs. J. Z. Smith, Mrs. John McCulley, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Louis Drager, Mrs. Everett Jones, Mrs. Noah Nyhart, Mrs. George Smalley, Mrs. Jess Lindsay.

Mrs. Ritterwirth and Mrs. Frank Victorine were guests.

Holidays Will Be Observed

The traditional observance of Christmas with music and drama will be continued this year by Klamath school children. Although the annual all city school cantata will not be held, the grade schools will have individual programs to which the public is invited.

The Klamath Union high school will present its program on Wednesday, December 19.

Roosevelt school is presenting a cantata, "The Magi's Gift," at 7:30 o'clock, Thursday, December 20.

A general music program will be given by the students of Mills school Friday, December 21, at 7:30 o'clock.

Because of its music presentation two weeks ago, Fairview school is not having a public Christmas program, but will have a special assembly for its students.

Students of Riverside school will present the traditional nativity scene for the public in the school auditorium at 1 o'clock, Friday, December 21.

The Pelican school Christmas program will be at 8 o'clock, Thursday, December 20, and Conger school children will entertain their parents and friends at 7:30 o'clock, Thursday evening, December 20.

Fremont will entertain with a program of music and drama at 7:30 o'clock, Thursday, December 20.

Altamont Elementary school students will have their Christmas program on Thursday, December 20.

Circles Meet

The Ruth circle of Klamath Lutheran church met December 4 at the home of Mrs. Chester Owens in Riverview. Devotions were conducted by the president, Mrs. E. W. Delyea. Members responded to roll call with Bible passages. Mrs. Thomas Jamieson gave a reading on "Ruth," Mrs. L. R. Hickey gave a book report on "Burma Surgeon," by Seagrave. The children present sang "Jesus Loves Me." The meeting closed with the praying of the Lord's Prayer by all present. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting of the circle will be January 3, at the home of Mrs. Hilding Nelson, Riverview. Each member is to bring a guest.

The Miriam circle of the church met at the home of Mrs. L. E. Taylor, 2033 Del Moro, on Tuesday. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Estlin Kiger after which the members responded to roll call with Bible passages. The president of the circle, Mrs. J. R. Peebler, read an article on "Lydia." Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. E. H. Thompson invited the group to have their next meeting at her home, 1234 Pacific Terrace, on January 3.

Martha Shops and Shops

Bags, Perfumes Arrive At Whytal's

GENTLEMAN asked Martha the other day to suggest something for his wife's Christmas. It didn't take long to say a genuine alligator bag from WHY-TAL'S... plus a package of one of the store's new perfumes tucked inside.

If she doesn't care for alligator... which is hard to imagine... Whytal's also has bag creations of real snakeskin and lizard...

Pure plastic leathers and plastic patents... guaranteed not to crack...

A wide assortment of the latest in Corde bags...

And spacious California felt costume bags that are quite the rage. These are in hi-shades, brown and gray... with nail-head trim and arm loops.

Whytal's is featuring two tantalizing new perfumes... Alex's Tiara... a flowery fragrance... called the queen of perfumes "for the woman whose charm is like a precious pearl!"

And Nathalie Nicoli's Natchka... a fragrance "haunting as a Russian melody"... packaged in handsome silver and black containers... advertised in Vogue, Glamour, Town and Country. If you like the exotic... you'll want this because that's what it is.

Yes, I'm sure your wife will love a bag... and perfume... from WHY-TAL'S... in the Medical-Dental Building.

Garcelon's Gifts Of Useful Type

WHILE looking over the gift selection in GARCELON'S the other day... Martha noticed several items that are very useful... yet inexpensive.

The store has a good supply of holders... the crocheted type with a rose design and the felt kind shaped to fit over pot handles.

There are felt card table covers in various colors... a practical gift for only $3.50.

For the men who boast of culinary accomplishments... I'd suggest the barbecue or bar aprons... for $1.75...

GARCELON'S... the store of gifts... 407 Main.

Worthwhile Books Make Ideal Gifts

IF YOU want to give a book this Christmas that will be a lasting gift... SHAW'S has received several outstanding volumes that fit this category perfectly.

"Masterpieces of Painting from the National Gallery of Art" is a unique and beautiful work... consisting of 85 superb color plates... paintings from one of the greatest art collections in the world. It's a book that both the general reader and art expert will enjoy.

Another is "A Treasury of American Song"... a magnificent collection of nearly 200 of America's songs from every period and every way of life... gathered by Olin Downes and Ellie Siegmester.

For the man who enjoys history I'd suggest the "Album of American History" in two volumes... for which James Truslow Adams was editor in chief. These books portray history in pictures that tell more and quicker than the imagination better than many pages of text... containing well over a thousand illustrations.

The book department of SHAW STATIONERY CO... 729 Main... still has a few copies of "Flight to Everywhere"... the picture journey of Ivan Dimitri, ace photographer.

Kappa Chapter

On Thursday evening of last week, Mrs. William Milne was hostess to the Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at which time a well planned program was presented by Marie Divens, Ann Dalcour, Betty Zirkle, and Marjorie Charon. Plans for the fall formal to be given at Cal-Ore tavern on Sunday, December 9, were also discussed.

Members present were Martha Keller, Audrey Buckley, Phyllis White, Marjorie Charon, Ann Dalcour, Marie Divens, Mary Drew, Katherine Kaler, Claudia Moore, Jones Moty, Pauline Pernell, Lillian Reakey, Evilo Saun-Whitlatch, Helen Crapo, Betty Zirkle, and the hostess.

OES At Malin

MALIN — The Eastern Star officers were entertained by Arlie May Johnson Monday evening December 3. Two tables of bridge and one of pinocle were played. High score in bridge went to Marion Wilson, low to Agnes Schreiner. Helen Ann Ottomann received high in pinocle and Alba Kniskien took low. Guest prize was taken by Alba Kniskien.

Invited for the evening were Agnes Schreiner, Leaha Street, Maude Heaton, Buehla Reber, Marion Wilson, Ann Paygr, Hazel Kalina, Helen Ann Ottomann. Guests were Grace Stevens, and Alba Kniskien.

Eulalona

The Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met in the library club room Monday evening, December 3, at 8 o'clock.

The purchase of a $100 Victory bond was authorized by the chapter. A fund of $25 was set aside for this purpose.

Contributions were made to the Angel Island fund and "Keep Oregon Green" association. A collection of beads has been made for use in occupational therapy at the Indian Veterans hospital, Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. Robert Odell presented the program on Klamath Indian myths which she has prepared for Eulalona chapter to broadcast over KOAC in February. She recounted the many ways in which the stories have been passed from one generation to another by word-of-mouth.

Mrs. Norman Fraley sang "O Holy Night" by Adams, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Mitchellmore. This was followed by carol singing by the group under the direction of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas. Helen Mueller was hostess for the evening.

Unit Meets

MALIN — The Malin Extension Unit met last Wednesday at the Malin high school.

Mrs. G. C. Blohm and Mrs. Frank Paygr gave a demonstration on short cuts in home sewing.

Those attending were Mrs. Harry Mitchell, Mrs. Austin Terry, Mrs. Mary Henzel, Mrs. Ann Lahoda, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Elizabeth Rajnus, Mrs. C. B. Cornett, Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Mrs. Frank Paygr and Mrs. Dick Henzel.

To Coos Bay

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murray and Mrs. Florence Botkins were given a farewell party Saturday, December 1, at the parish hall. A large group of friends attended the potluck dinner. A wool blanket and a picture of Crater lake were given to the Murrays by their neighbors, and Mrs. Botkins was given a purse.

They will leave Wednesday for Coos Bay where they will make their home. The Murrays managed the Lorella store, which they sold to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Forcier of Klamath Falls.

LaPointe Oomphs Do Double Duty

OOMPHS, woolsies, scuffs or leathers... whatever your preference for pitter-patter around the house, you're almost certain to find it in LAPOINTE'S shoe department... where Martha saw a grand array of house slippers.

The saucy Oomphs... that have cute names like Lazy Bones and Forty Winks... are particularly slick for gifts... for they can also be worn as play shoes.

There are some practical CHENILLE scuffs in pastel shades... practical because they're washable... and these have been hard to get, according to Jessie who rules the shoes.

The real fur scuffs... and the all-over wool slippers look warmly comfy... especially for winter wear... but there are other types... such as leather slippers lined in wool... and you have a choice of soles, too.

In LAPOINTE'S shoe department... 507 Main.

Gift Shop Hobby Collectors' Mecca

HAVING several in the family who are hobby collectors... Martha discovered that THE ART and GIFT SHOP is a helpful solution to gift puzzles... for a collector is always pleased with a new item for his cupboard.

The shop has a whole shelf of the most precious little pitchers... ranging from elegant to comical... many of English ware; an almost unbelievable selection in salt and pepper shakers... from metal animal heads through wood, china and pottery. A couple of roly-poly snowmen... and a pair of wise old owls would be my favorites... if I had a shaker collection.

If it's animal ceramics you're looking for... you couldn't find a wider variety than at Art and Gift... all breeds of dogs, so lifelike you want to pet them... horses, roosters, birds... even a couple of snooty penguins.

Anyone who collects miniatures would be tickled with some of the animals and queer figures fashioned of sparkling glass... of which the shop has a vast amount.

Gift wrapping is a year-around service at THE ART and GIFT SHOP... 519 Main.

Muriel Designs Custom-Mades

DROPPING in to chat with MURIEL this week... Martha found her just spreading a pattern over yards of luscious pink taffeta... as the first step toward a new formal for the shop. You can view the finished number in the window the first of the week.

I simply can't get over how exciting it is to be able to get custom-made gowns, blouses and even dickeries right here at home... all fashioned of pre-war fabrics!

Muriel showed me a couple of her newest dickeries that would spice up any suit... one of striped rose and blue on black... the other a smart style of printed and rose red satin that's reversible. There are others in pastel shades... all pure silk.

A shipment of lovely, modernistic lamps came in Friday... enlarging the already wide selection of gift items. There are table lamps as tall as 32 inches and exquisite boudoir lamps... the bases resembling crystal... and white shades with soft flower designs.

You'll want to see these at MURIEL'S, 1119 Main... in the Winema Hotel Building.

Malin Grange

Malin — Election of officers for the Malin grange was held the thirteenth of November. Named were Master, Charles Hamilton; overseer, Leonard Petrick; lecturer, Mildred Petrick; steward, Louis Drager; assistant steward, Mrs. Macken; chaplain, Harry Wilson; treasurer, Frank Paygr; secretary, Joe Chotard; gate keeper, George Smalley; Ceres, Mrs. Macken; Pomona, Mrs. George Smalley; Flora, Mrs. A. E. Street; lady assistant, Mrs. Charles Hamilton; organist, Mrs. Frank Paygr; executive officers, George Smalley; home economics, Mrs. Louis Drager.

Dainty Chantilly Found At Currin's

THOSE dainty Chantilly toilettries at CURRIN'S... with their fresh, exhilarating scent... are becoming immensely popular, Connie Baert told Martha... and no wonder, being a Houbigant product.

Lacy, pink containers decorated in satin bows make these toilettries as pretty to look at... as they are nice to smell... and so many Chantilly items are obtainable that you could start a set with one or two... then add to it on gift occasions.

Chantilly perfume is obtainable in four sizes... from $3.00 to $16.50, plus tax... the cologne is $3.00... and the liquid skin sachet $2.75, plus tax as usual.

The body powder comes in a great big box with a luxurious puff... for $3.50 and tax. With this it would be nice to give a bottle of bath softener... or the effervescent bath tablets for $3.50.

Besides these... there's an adorable perfume gift set containing miniature bottles of Quetes Fleurs, Gardenia and Chantilly... for only $5.00... that would please your Miss Teen.

At the cosmetic counter... CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS... Ninth and Main.

Studio Ready For Year's End Rush

THE year's end is a rush season for beauty shops... and when Martha dropped in at the STUDIO OF BEAUTY this week... Fern Short reminded it would be a good idea to make appointments early... and for the remainder of the year if possible.

Furthermore, if you're planning to have a permanent this month... as many do... try to get in early enough so you'll have time for a follow-up shampoo and wave just before Christmas... then your hair will look far more natural and lustrous.

THE STUDIO OF BEAUTY... on the mezzanine in Whytal's... will be closed on Monday, the 24th... leaving only 12 more appointment days before Christmas!
