U. S. Officer Says Japs Used Gas

By HAMILTON FARON

TOKYO, Dec. 11 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Charles E. Lucke declared Monday that the Japanese had used poison gas against American troops "in a few isolated instances," notably in New Guinea late in the war.

The chemical warfare officer on General MacArthur's staff said the most recent instance was March 5, 1945, when a Japanese patrol set off vomiting gas in a signal corps area at Biak, New Guinea.

Loucks said several Americans were made severely ill but none killed.

Knowledge Denied — Japanese officials he had talked to, he added, denied knowledge of this or other reported isolated use of gas but they conceded they were unable to say whether individual field commanders had used it.

Loucks asserted that the Japanese also had tossed gas grenades at American concentrations at Biak and had used gas against the Chinese in China.

The officer said the Japanese had a modern, well-equipped gas chemical warfare school at Nishino but abandoned the manufacture of poison gas in 1943 because, as questioned Japanese officials told him "we believed the allied statement that gas would be used only in retaliation."

Equipment Superior — "Our training and equipment were decidedly superior to Japan's," Loucks said. "Despite Japanese denials that they contemplated use of gas against U. S. troops, it is apparent that our extensive preparations were the biggest single factor in preventing gas warfare."

Loucks, who is going soon to Washington to become assistant chief of the chemical warfare service for research and development, declared that poison gas was more humane than the atomic bomb or "a bayonet in the abdomen."

"If we had used gas at places like Tarawa and Iwo (two of the most bloody marine campaigns) we would have saved a lot of lives," Loucks said.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Grant and daughter, Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kohls, Mrs. Beth Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. George Waterman, Maurice Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross, Oliver Guss and children, Carol, Merlyn and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell McGee, Joan Ross, Corinne Hood and Loyce McGee.

Highlight of the evening was a mock wedding with Carol Guss as the blushing bride, Gary Guss and the more blushing bridegroom, and Merlyn Guss as the preacher.

Friends, relatives and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo McGee on Wednesday of this week to congratulate them on their 29th wedding anniversary. The event was a surprise to them although they admitted they "smelled a mouse."

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL

At the football banquet, held at the Willard hotel Friday night, Bill Sari received both of the honors extended to the team this year. Bill was voted the most inspirational player by his teammates and also he received the title of honorary captain for the year. He is a senior and he has played with the Peppers for three years. Bill suffered several injuries, both this year and last. He played several positions on the squad starting as right tackle and ending as right half.

Paul Angstead introduced the various members of the team and told of the award Bill would receive. A cup, which will remain at the school, will be placed in the trophy case in the main hall. The cup will bear the name of the outstanding player. Bill's name will head the list. Ed Ryan, assistant coach, Stanley Woodruff, principal, and Arnold Grallup, superintendent, spoke at the banquet.

A Cappella Choir Busy — The a cappella choir has been doing a great deal of performing lately. Yesterday the choir sang at the library club and last night sang at the bond show. Wednesday the girls' glee club will appear at the Sojourners' meeting at the Willard hotel. Friday the choir will appear again at the Rotary club to render a Christmas program.

A group of girls have recently been chosen by Andrew Loney to form a singing group known as the "Nonette Ensemble." Mr. Loney chose those girls because of their singing ability and he hopes to have them perform in place of the a cappella choir occasionally.

Betty Glidden, Dorothy Howry, Doris Weaver, Lola Whisenant, Dorothy Collier, Alyce Wells, Beth Chastain, Marie Wright and Pat Hambrick are the nine singers. Barbara Zinn is the accompanist.

Faculty Game Tomorrow — The Faculty-Hi-Y game will be played tomorrow instead of Thursday since "Dutch" French and Hip Largent, two of the faculty's starting players, will be leaving Thursday with the Peppers on their barn-storming trip. The team will be gone three days to play three games, one each with Albany, Salem and Springfield, respectively.

These particular games do not count on the conference set-up.

Student Body Snaps — Individual pictures of every member of the student body will be taken tomorrow. J. H. Handel of Oakland, Calif., will take the pictures. The snaps will be small and are of the type that may be purchased three-for-a-dime. These pictures are used for identification purposes on office permanent record cards.

Students may purchase prints of these pictures at 3 for 10 cents, 6 for 20 cents or 12 for 30 cents, if they wish. There will be no charge otherwise. Pictures will be taken in the auditorium. Pictures such as these were taken before the war, but classes now in school have never been photographed for this purpose.

Flag Re-born — The Latin club recently decided that the flag in use at the assemblies was in bad condition so it did something about it. The club had the flag cleaned and asked Chester Newton of the woodworking department to fix the base of the flag. James Griggs, Latin club member, was in charge of this.

Latin club has secured the concessions at the first five basketball games. It is also planning a Christmas party to be held December 17 at the Y. "Bus" Bussman is president of the club.

And Incidentally — A pep assembly for the fellows leaving on the basketball trip is scheduled for tomorrow.

Pep Peppers were excused at 2 o'clock to sell season basketball tickets to the adults down town.

Rural Areas Exceed Quotas

Incomplete returns on bond sales in outlying communities show that at least eight rural districts exceeded their bond quotas. Ivory Pine under the leadership of George Butler, turned in $5050 with its quota being $2500.

Other communities are Chilquin with William Lorenz as chairman; Bonanza, Fred Rueck, chairman; Merrill, Ed Crawford, chairman; Sprague River, Anna Wolderd and John Becken, co-chairmen; Hildebrand, Jesse Drew, chairman; Henley, Henry Semon, chairman; Malin, A. Kalina, chairman.

The bond committee and Ruth Nelson, head of bond headquarters, wish to thank the Gilmore Sign company, and Conner's radio service for their cooperation throughout the drive.

The thanks of the committee also go to Esther Lawler, Ruth Nelson, Cpl. Jim Franks, Mrs. Paul Farren, Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. Ray Telford and Mrs. Gertrude Moore.

"We wish to express our gratitude to the many people who helped to make the drive a success," said Elton Thompson, drive chairman.

Aid To Europe Will Profit Fruit Growers

MEDFORD, Dec. 11 (AP)—Aiding Europe's rehabilitation would promote economic well-being for Oregon fruit growers, the Oregon State college extension service director declared here.

William A. Schoenfeld told the Oregon Horticultural society that humanitarian, political, social and economic angles must be considered in feeding war-ravaged countries. He noted that European nations were the largest buyers of export fruit before the war.

Dr. Don C. Mote, Oregon State college, and A. D. Borden, California experiment station, also spoke.
