

Today's Roundup

SEVERAL erroneous statements have appeared in Oregon newspapers and elsewhere to the effect that the Klamath Falls Marine Barracks has been declared surplus.

EPLEY

The Marine Barracks is a going installation. There have been no official announcements concerning any change in its operation.

Smaller Hospitals Programmed

THE Mail Tribune, in another paragraph in its story, quoted a veterans' administration statement to the effect that new hospitals would be built "only near the country's largest cities where the nation's top-ranking medical, surgical and dental men were already grouped."

The World Today

By DeWitt MacKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

LONDON, Dec. 11—War has brought England a heavy increase in divorces, most of which have been based on infidelity, and in addition to those that actually have reached the courts there has been a flood of matrimonial upsets which have been adjusted through the kindly offices of welfare societies.

This seems MacKENZIE so contrary to the ultra-conservative character of the Briton, who always has been averse to washing family linen in public, that in searching for reasons one naturally comes up against the question whether there has been any change in moral standards.

Slump in Conduct This widely experienced trio agrees that a slump in John Bull's moral standards is not among the reasons for the increase in divorce. There obviously has been a slump in conduct, due to the extreme circumstances created by the world conflict but the moral outlook is held to remain about the same.

Separate Divorce Laws There was one divorce law for men and another for women. These were based on the theory that the man was lord and master of the family by divine right, and that by the same token he could do no wrong through infidelity.

These smaller hospitals . . . (The emphasis on "only" and "not" is General Hawley's.) That is plain enough. It shows why Klamath Falls was chosen as location for a veterans hospital.

The other day the Eugene Register-Guard quipped on Page One that if you're in need of Vitamin D, you're wrong if you look for it in Oregon.

News Behind The News

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11—A few of the bravest administration congressmen said God loves everyone and the British loan agreement is a good one, immediately after it was announced.

The suspicious or knowing congressmen roundly denounced it. But the bulk bucked and ran when they saw newsmen coming to seek comment.

Indeed its sponsors, in the sacred halls of the department, were not eager to champion the success of their negotiations in congress.

What they knew, they did not like. And the deeper they went into it, the less they liked it. It was so bad few wanted to be connected with it one way or another.

Modest Enthusiasm

Britain turns down Bretton Woods, our sensationally modest official enthusiasm for this thing, will be revised downward.

We are to lend Britain far more than her whole cancelled first World War debt. The amount to be advanced is $3,750,000,000 while the old war debt still owed is $2,331,000,000, less than two thirds as much.

The only way we can raise this money is by borrowing from our people. The interest charge to us is not less than 2 1/2 per cent. The loan to the British carries only two per cent. But we must pay our people interest from the date of the loan.

For the British, interest will not start until five years, at least so the publicity said. Actually her interest payments will not start until five years after December 31, 1946—more than six years hence.

The British permanent underchancellor of Exchequer, Sir

Use Of Our Money

THE use of our money to protect the British financial position permits the socialist experiment. Otherwise that added debt could not be carried, judging from the official British statements of her financial plight.

But on our loan, we get nothing for five years (what will happen in this atomic age by then?) while Britain can draw the money as she wants it.

This is, strangely enough the best feature of the deal. It gets worse from here on. The lend lease deal is almost unbelievable. Britain owes us about $25,000,000,000 under what Mr. Roosevelt deceptively called "lend lease."

Now it is officially said this money and goods were neither loaned nor leased. Mr. Roosevelt had a provision for repayment in kind, so we could at least get some of our equipment back for use or scrap. That is forgotten in the current arrangement.

We Get Promises

WHAT do we get? We get promises. Nothing definite about anything. No time limit or signed specific plan of immediate action. We get a hope of negotiating the abandonment of the various gyping arrangements by which Britain has

Man Found With Throat Slashed

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 11 (AP) Police and the federal bureau of investigation are trying to solve the first murder committed here in several years, with the discovery today of the body of Clarence Campbell, 35, beside the road near the fashionable Seattle tract residence.

Note well Mr. Truman's careful words about the credit "making it possible" for the United Kingdom to expand multilateral trade; and Mr. Vinson's claim that it opened "the likelihood" of a less competitive trade world.

We got "possibilities" and "likelihoods"; and they got the $25,000,000,000 we have already supplied plus $3,750,000,000 more at less interest than it will cost our treasury to raise the money for any purpose she chooses.

Argentine Autoists Make Perilous Trip

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP)—Six Argentine motorists rested here today after making a perilous four-month trip from Buenos Aires.

The six men left Buenos Aires for New York in three cars last July 19. They lost time in jungles where the highway ended, and had to travel from Panama to Guatemala by sea. Actual driving time, they said, was only 40 days. They said the Pan-American highway is "still a myth in many of its spots."
