Webfoots Blasted Out Of Basketball Tourney

Indiana State Trounces Ducks 66-48; Washington Also Routed By De Paul

CHICAGO, Dec. 15 (AP)—Indiana State Teachers college Sycamore's alternating blinding speed with a semi-stalling type of offense, blasted Oregon's champion Webfoots out of the De Paul invitational basketball tournament, with a 66 to 48 defeat last night.

De Paul university moved into the finals of its own tourney by routing the other northwest entrant, University of Washington, 75-50, in last night's second game.

Only once during the game did the Oregon west coast champions hold an edge over the Indiana quintet, which entered the tournament virtually unheralded. That came when Ken Hays dumped in a bucket after a minute and 29 seconds of play to put the Ducks ahead, 4-3.

After that the crowd of 7000 in Chicago stadium settled back to watch the Sycamores, sparked by diminutive Bob Royer and Center Joe De Peugh, pull steadily away and coast on through the last 10 minutes to an easy victory.

Indiana piled up a 34-19 lead at the half as Henry Percy and Ed Lash, Sycamore guards, pulled out the Webfoot defense with their slow-breaking tactics, allowing De Peugh, Doyle Cofer and Bob Royer to break for the goals.

Cofer led the Indiana scoring with 14 points, but top honors went to Oregon's Captain Bob Hamilton, who scored 16 of his team's 48 points. De Peugh, with 13, and Royer, with 11, were the Sycamores' other scoring leaders. Wilkins of Oregon had 15.

Navy Champs End Season Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15 (AP) Fleet City's Navy Bluejackets, generally considered the strongest service football team in the country, parade their all-star cast here tomorrow in the final game of a lengthy season. The Fort Warren (Wyoming) Broncos will provide the opposition in Kezar stadium.

Undefeated, once tied against eleven topnotch rivals, the high-geared navy squad built around the sensational Illinois freshman of 1944, Buddy Young, will line up as heavy favorite over the army team. Earlier in the season, the Bluejackets defeated the Broncos, 21-9.

Following the custom, Cmdr. Bill Reinhard, coach, will not start Young, saving the fleet negro halfback for substitution at opportune times. Young ran wild last Sunday while helping Fleet City score its second win of the season over the powerful El Toro Marines. The Bluejackets took the Marines into camp 21-7 in their first contest and walloped them 48-25 last week.

Veteran Trainer On Carpet For Doping Racehorse

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP) — The suspension appeal of Tom Smith went into a second day today with the 70-year-old trainer of Elizabeth Graham's Maine Chance stables protesting his innocence in the alleged stimulation of the race horse Magnific Duel last November 1 at Jamaica.

Insisting he never had doped an animal in his life, Smith told the New York State Racing commission and Jockey club members at a hearing yesterday that he had often sprayed Magnific Duel and other horses with a 2.6 per cent solution of ephedrine "to relieve congestion." He claimed he did not believe it was stimulant and said he never had used it on a horse within a few hours of a race.

Smith's testimony climaxed a 12-hour session that was adjourned until 9:30 a. m. (EST) today with instructions that the case must be completed by noon. No announcement was made whether a decision can be expected immediately.

Dr. James E. Catlett, a veterinarian, testified that ephedrine is a stimulant that could make a horse "breathe deeper and give him more power."

Smith had been suspended for one year by the Jockey club at a closed session November 8 and appealed the case November 23.

Catholics Scare Merrill In Loss

Sacred Heart gave the Merrill Huskies a scare last night on the Fairview hardwood, but dropped the game 37-21. The score at the half was 18-14 for Merrill.

The first half was a tight, see-saw affair with plenty of fouls called on both sides, but the Huskies forged ahead in the third period, potting 15 points to the Catholics' one.

Joe Garner was high point man for Sacred Heart with six tallies, and Kandra starred for the visitors. Both Merrill and Sacred Heart play the KUHS Wildcats next week.

Referee Gives Mask Nod In Wild Grapple Classic

By HALE SCARBROUGH

Rough Rufus Jones had the Grey Mask's facial covering unlaced and all but ripped off last night while a jammed crowd at the armory screamed for him to "take it off" but paused long enough to knock Referee Norval Stockstill silly and lost on a disqualification.

The Hood speedily got the first tumble in the initial canto with a half crab, and Jones copped the next in the second with a press after three full body slams.

Then the playing got rough. In the third frame Jones butted and slugged the Atom Man groggy, almost knocking himself out in the process, then sailed him clear out of the ring with a particularly ferocious head butt.

As the Hood tried to crawl back in, Jones was on him again aiming for the kill. Stockstill pulled him off and stopped a head butt to kiss the canvas. The Mask got back in the ring and clamped a half crab on Rufus and the fight went into a three-way scuffle as Stockstill piled on trying to break it up and award the Hood a technical victory.

The referee had another merry chase during the Belcastro-Sherman affair which Pete won after chilling Seattle Ben in the third round. Sherman was out cold, unable to come back for the fourth frame.

Both the Assassin and Sherman, who is a lively little guy, spent a lot of time on their backs in the aisles during the first two rounds. Then to open the third to Ben let fly a drop kick, planted both heels resoundingly into Pete's face to draw blood and the fight went wild.

Belcastro slugged Sherman out of the ring twice, beating him almost senseless, then got the fall with a surfboard. Sherman was still out on the canvas and the handlers were working on him when Pete made size 10 EE tracks back to the dressing room.

Buck Davidson and Angelo Martinelli put on a lively show in the curtain raiser, but Martinelli got the decision in two straight falls. The first came in the second round on a full crab and the second in the fourth go with an intricate reverse alligator clutch.

Salem Tops Barnstorming K-Men, 27-18

SALEM, Dec. 15 (AP) — The Salem high school Vikings opened their season here Friday night by defeating the barnstorming Klamath Falls Pelicans, 27 to 18.

The Salem club, presenting a tight defense, led all the way. They were in front 14 to 5 at halftime and at one point in the fourth quarter, led 24 to 12.

Captain Jim Palmer of the Pelicans led all scorers with nine points.

Beau Jack Awarded Unpopular Decision

NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (AP)—Beau Jack, the "Million-Dollar Kid," is back fighting again and seems destined to resume his pre-army service role of being one of boxing's greatest attractions.

The former lightweight champion from Augusta, Ga., returned to action at Madison Square Garden last night by gaining an unanimous 10-round decision over Willie Joyce, of Gary, Ind., the year's most active boxer.

Announcement of the decision, however, was greeted by a noisy demonstration of disapproval. Many in the crowd of 16,231 (gross gate $70,071), apparently thought Joyce, a 2 to 1 underdog, had won.

Unknown Leading Ft. Worth Open

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 15 (AP)—Slender Joe Zarhardt of Norristown, Pa., not yet one of the tournament winners with the PGA touring golfers, and tall E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, usually one of the top finishers, led the way into the second round of the Fort Worth $10,000 open today.

Each fashioned a two-under-par 69 yesterday as a curtailed field of 108 battled freezing weather and snow in the first 18 holes which saw favorites Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan falter, with the former finishing three strokes off the pace and Hogan one back.

Joe Louis Forgets To Collect Four Grand

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 15 (AP)—Joe Louis calmly climbed into a plane here last night for Los Angeles, and flew out of town without bothering to collect $4000 which he earned for his exhibition bout here Thursday night.

When Promoter Coley Hall called the champ's headquarters to arrange payment, he was informed the brown bomber had blown. Joe apparently forgot to pick up the four grand take.

An Emergency Appeal to anyone missed during the Klamath Community Fund drive: (and to those who can give again)

Klamath County is falling down on its Community Fund drive. To date, exactly $44,949.39 has been raised of a total budget revised down to $71,419 from an original goal of $75,000. This still leaves $26,000 to go.

Are you one of those who were missed during the original downtown canvas? Are you a business man who has not yet sent in your check? Have you been away when a solicitor called on you? No matter how you happened to be missed, here's your chance to get behind this worthy cause.

Let's Look Again

Maybe you've forgotten who benefits from the money raised by the Klamath Community Fund. Let's run over it again quickly. First in our hearts are the local youth agencies, such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Salvation Army. The Army also does excellent local work among adults in need of its special services.

Then there are the homes caring for babies, boys and girls and unfortunate young women from all over the state. Klamath County has a number of its children and women in these homes every year.

Next there is the USO, more needed than ever now that service men have a great deal of time on their hands, waiting for orders to head for home. Top it off with a few dollars for the suffering people of allied countries who helped bring victory, and it all adds up to an obligation we can't avoid.

NOW DIG DEEP!

If you haven't given yet, give at least ONE FULL DAY'S PAY. If you can give more, NOW IS THE TIME TO DO SO! For our youngsters of Klamath County, of Oregon and of the WORLD. At this Christmas time give generously and thankfully.

A number of public-spirited women are making a door-to-door canvass in many parts of the residential district. Make their task lighter by having a friendly donation ready. However, don't wait long! Be sure your gift is in before Christmas. If a solicitor doesn't call on you SOON, mail or bring your donation to Community Fund Headquarters at the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, 323 Main Street.
