Church Notices—All ministers in Klamath Falls and surrounding communities who wish to include Christmas notices in the Friday night church page, are asked to have notices in the hands of the church editor not later than Wednesday at 1 p. m. A special church page is planned and all information must be in this office by that time. The cooperation of all concerned is urged.

Musicals—The LDS church musical program will be presented this Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the basement of the local library. A mixed chorus of 25 voices will sing, directed by Lawrence Worley. There will be violin and clarinet solos, readings and a tap dance number. The Mutual Improvement society of the church presenting the program invites the public to attend free of charge.

Toastmasters—The Toastmasters club of Klamath Falls plans a children's evening, December 10, at the Willard hotel. It will include dinner and a program for children of the ages from 7 to 12 years. President Joe Pland will be toastmaster for the evening. The program will consist of three-minute talks by the members on subjects of interest to the children.

From School—Billie Lee McAdams and Helen Hasy, students at Armstrong's Business college at Berkeley, Calif., are home for the holidays, arriving this past weekend to be with their families.

Breaks Ankle—Ruth Dixon of Swansen's beauty shop is confined to her home with a broken ankle. Adeline Houck is taking her place during her absence.

Annual Dinner—Schoolmates club will hold its annual dinner party with Christmas gifts this Friday noon at the home of Mrs. George Grizzle, 927 Jefferson.

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benson and Noel Benson wish to express their sincere appreciation to the many friends of their son, Lt. Gordon Benson, for whom memorial services were held at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday morning. They especially wish to thank those who sent flowers to the church and those who attended the services.
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benson and Noel.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, the messages of sympathy and the many beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement, the loss of our father, Mr. Dick Cummings.

and family.

To Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, who spent the weekend here with Dr. and Mrs. George H. Adler when Professor Hopkins presented an all-Chopin concert at Klamath Union high school, left at noon Sunday for their home at Eugene.

League—The Girls' Recreation league will meet tonight at 8:30 in the Salvation Army recreation hall. Further plans will be discussed on Christmas activities.

Expected Here—Donna Burke and Barbara Kvern, students at the University of Oregon at Eugene, are expected home Wednesday to spend the holidays with their parents.

Card Party—The Suburban League auxiliary will hold a card party at the KC hall this Tuesday at 2 p. m. This is the third of the series. The public is invited to attend.
