Spaulding Firm Changes Hands

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 20 (AP)—Purchase of timber holdings, logging equipment and lumber plant and retail facilities of the Charles K. Spaulding company was announced today by the Oregon Pulp and Paper company.

The new owners reported a price of about $400,000 and said the 55-year-old Spaulding firm would continue to operate under that name.

The deal involves 100,000,000 feet of timber in Polk county, the saw mill plant and retail yard at McMinnville and an estimated 55,000 acres of logged off land.

The transaction is one of several made by the Oregon firm in recent months involving more than $1,200,000 in new investment, expansion and rebuilding.

Extension Unit News

A small but interested group of women met at the USO women's lounge with the Klamath Falls home extension unit. They learned to make a dickey and a very good, quick way to put in a zipper. Mrs. I. J. O'Hara and Mrs. B. V. Yaden were project leaders.

A potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon with Mrs. Mark Taylor and Mrs. Wilbur Telford hostesses. A short business meeting was held in the afternoon, Mrs. Taylor presiding.

The next meeting will be on January 10 and the project will be labor-saving salads. Members are asked to watch the paper for notice of the meeting place.

Kinzua Mill Quiz Ordered

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20 (AP)—Governor Earl Snell today reported an investigation underway of complaints by the northwest AFL lumber strike policy committee involving conditions at a company owned town of the Kinzua pine mills at Kinzua, Ore.

The union committee charged poor sanitation conditions and fire hazards existed at the town and at the school because water and power services were curtailed. The company called the charges "preposterous." Lights, it said, were off because of a lack of power—but company officials' lights were out, too.

"I felt it my duty to make an immediate check of these reported conditions," Governor Snell said. "The investigation has been started and the report is not completed."
