

Recital Given Monday Evening

A group of piano students was presented by Josephine Tyson in recital Monday evening at her home, 915 Donald street, assisted by violin pupils of Harry Borel.

An appreciative number of parents and friends heard the recital and the program is as follows:

- Piano Duet, "Spirit of the U. S. A." Cobb
 Jack Ayres, Robert Van Vactor.
- "Waltz" Brahms
 "Pastoral" Eckstein
 Bonnie O'Hara.
- "Santa and His Reindeer," Phippen.
 "Jingle Bells," Folk Song.
 David Landis.
- "China Doll" Eckstein.
 "The Bee and the Clover" Geibel.
- Margaret Quick
 "The Frogs' Concert" De Leone.
 Robert Van Vactor
- "Sunshine" Anthony.
 Shermalee Henry
 "The Pirate Ship" Masters.
 "O Solo Mio" Capua.
 Brent Hedberg
 "Puck" Grieg.
 Jack Ayres

Violin:
 Overture from Handel's Oratorio "The Messiah"
 Ensemble:
 1st violins, Marilee Crawford, Ethelmae Skinner.
 2nd violins, Frances Stearns, Wayne Angel.

Viola, Donald Quick.
 Cello, Neil Olson.
 Accompanist, Louise Barnhart.

- Aria
 Wayne Angel
 Accompanist, Shirley Sayers.
- Aria from Rinaldo Mozart.
 March Pontificale Gounod.
- Piano:
 "Away In A Manger," Luther.
 Judy Danielsen.
- Musical Reading:
 "The Night Before Christmas" Brent Hedberg
 Accompanist, Audrey Payn.
- Piano:
 Duet—Dance of the Imps. Ritter.
 Hazel Frymire, Mildred Frymire
 The Music Box Liebhich.
 Claudette De Leone.
 Beverly Kohn
- Hungary Koelling
 Mildred Frymire
- Minuet Paderewski
 Spanish Gypsy Dance, Mowry
 Audrey Payn
- Coasting Burreleigh
 Hazel Frymire
- Trinity Chimes Decker
 Gene Peyton

Books Clubs

Members of the Minerva book club of BPW enjoyed a Christmas dinner and party last Saturday evening, December 15, when Mrs. Emma Carter entertained at her home on South Sixth.

A gift exchange added to the evening's fun, and Mrs. Asta Kierulff told about Christmas in Norway.

The December meeting of the Edith Canning book club has been postponed until January when the same committee will be in charge, according to an announcement from Elenora Weatherford.

Beauty IS YOUR DUTY
 By RITA WHISENANT
 Licensed Cosmetologist

"A GIFT OF BEAUTY" . . . that's the way our permanent wave gift certificates starts . . . and if you're still pondering the gift for HER, you know she'll adore a gift of beauty. We have several very fine permanent wave specialists. Just call 6877 about the gift certificate.

PORTIA ANDERSON is the latest beauty specialist addition to our staff. Portia is from Ashland and her work is known to many of you. She will be pleased to see her friends at Hazel's.

It seems like a long time until New Years . . . but it brings up that Bernie Heidemann is leaving us after the first. Bernie is going to New York for further study . . . and here's wishing her just all there is of the best. It has been wonderful the way Bernie and Evelyn Malloy have helped me take over since I bought Hazel's from them. They have my sincere thanks.

LET me remind you again that Hazel's will be open Monday before Christmas, but will be closed Wednesday after Christmas, to give the staff a breather.

AND here's best wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year from the entire staff.

—RITA.
 The Hazel Beauty Salon
 125 N. 7th Ph. 6677

JUDITH ANN'S fourth birthday was observed recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck of 428 Jefferson. Judy is posed here with her brother David. —Kennell-Ellis.

Christmas Music

At the McIntyre home on Lincoln street Saturday afternoon of last week a program of Christmas music was presented by a group of Mrs. George W. McIntyre's younger voice students. This group has entertained at several church and club affairs during the past week.

Guests were mothers, some high school and adult voice students. The rooms were gay with Christmas decorations and holly and bright candles were used on the tea table.

Members of the singing group are, Erlene Wheeler, June Murphy, Dorothy Collier, Joan Bennett, Marian McIntyre, Colleen Creswell, Marie Wright, Joan Stacy. They sang several traditional Christmas numbers. Incidental solos were sung by Joan Bennett and Marian McIntyre.

A trio composed of Erlene Wheeler, Dorothy Collier and Marie Wright sang, "O Holy Night" by Adam. The beautiful solo, "Gesu Bambino," was sung by Erlene Wheeler and Marie Wright sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." June Murphy sang, "The Lord Is My Light" and Luther's "Cradle Hymn" was presented as a duet by Colleen Creswell and Joan Stacy. Christmas carols were sung as solos by Sharon Stacy and Mary Ann Mills.

Preceding the vocal program, two piano numbers were given, "Barcarolle" from Mendelssohn's "Songs Without Words" played by Marilyn Hayden, and "Nocturne in E Flat," Chopin, played by June Murphy.

Past Noble Grand

Members of the Past Noble Grand club and the Social club of Prosperity Rebekah lodge held a joint meeting in the IOOF hall Wednesday, December 12. About 60 were there to enjoy the turkey dinner with all the trimmings, and a few small children especially enjoyed Santa, who presided over the Christmas tree.

There was a gift exchange and the silent sisters remembered each other with gifts. Nellie Wattenburg was dinner chairman for the Past Noble Grand club, and Mary Curtis for the Social club, while Bernice McCracken and her mother, Mrs. Mast, were in charge of the tree.

Social Club

The Eastern Star social club enjoyed the annual Christmas gift exchange and potluck luncheon when the group met in the Masonic temple Friday, December 7. The table was beautifully decorated with holiday greens and following luncheon there was an election of officers. Mrs. Howard Listoe was named president; Mrs. Horace E. Getz, vice president; Mrs. William Poole, secretary and treasurer. Outgoing officers received Christmas gifts. They are Mrs. J. Calvin Hunt, retiring president; Mrs. Sam Roberts, vice president, and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Hunt presented officers and committee chairmen with personal gifts. The next meeting of the social club will be held January 4 at 1:45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Snell and young daughter are also leaving for the Christmas holidays, driving south to Napa and San Francisco for the coming week.

Helen Peterson, student nurse at Mary's Help college of nursing, San Francisco, arrived Thursday morning to spend Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Peterson. She returns to her studies Wednesday.

TIPS OF MERIT

Did you know that we are authorized dealers for the following merchandise when it is available?

PHILCO: Radios, Refrigerators, Home Freezers	ADMIRAL: Refrigerators, Home Freezers, Electric Ranges, Radios
MAYTAG: Washers and Ironers	EASY: Washers and Ironers
IRONRITE: Ironers	EUREKA: Vacuum
FWLER: Electric Water Heaters	ESTATE: Electric R.
AMERICAN: Steel Kitchens	SERVEL: Kerosene and Flamo Refrigerators

Orders now accepted on any of this home equipment.

MERIT'S
RETAIL STORE
609 So. 6th St. Phone 6989

Happy Hour

Mrs. C. C. Heldrich was hostess to the Happy Hour club on Tuesday, December 11, at her home on Washington street when a Christmas party and gift exchange was held.

Enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Dayton Barnhart, Mrs. Henry Funk, Mrs. Carl Sandell, Mrs. E. H. Lawrence, Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mrs. H. J. Savidge, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. R. G. Molschenbacher and the hostess.

The next meeting of the club will be on January 9, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hamilton on North Ninth.

Nile Club

The Klamath Nile club Christmas party for members and their husbands was held at the Willard hotel ballroom Saturday evening of last week when a dinner dance was enjoyed by the group.

Christmas decorations were used on the tables and around the large room. Dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock.

Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, assisted by Mrs. Paul Matthews, Mrs. L. H. Craver, Mrs. Alfred Stroud and Mrs. Walter Brown were in charge of decorations. Stuart's orchestra played for dancing.

Florence Weaver of Los Angeles arrived this weekend to spend the holidays with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver of Auburn street.

GEORGE CARROL is the two and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Howe of Henley and the grandson of County Judge and Mrs. U. E. Reeder of this city. —Bell.

Lt. and Mrs. W. H. Campbell and their two children, Barbara and Billy, will spend the Christmas holidays in John Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell. Lt. Campbell is stationed at the Klamath naval air station in charge of public relations.

December Bride

One of the loveliest brides of December, Joanna Massey, walked down the aisle at 2 o'clock December the eighth at Sacred Heart church to become the bride of Corp. John J. Lynch, United States marine corps. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Massey, 525 East Main street. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey.

The altar was decked with white chrysanthemums and many white candles. Elaine Abbott sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" before the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white satin, the gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long bodice, full sweeping skirt and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace and fell from a tiara of pearls. A strand of pearls, gift of the groom, was her only jewelry. She carried an ivory prayer book and rosary and a cluster of lavender orchids caught with white satin streamers.

Wilma Jean Massey, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and Mary Lee McKinney was the bridesmaid. Miss Massey wore a blue chiffon gown and carried a bouquet of carnations and a wreath of carnation hearts in her hair. Miss McKinney wore a full length pink gown and carried carnations and wore a similar headdress.

Corp. Jerome A. Slimah of the Marine Barracks was the best man. Usher was Corp. Louis J. Bogarski.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for the Oregon coast to spend their honeymoon.

CDA Meets

Catholic Daughters of America held a short business meeting in the parish hall Monday, December 10, at 8 p. m., followed by travel pictures shown by Gus Anderson. Refreshments were then served by Norma Earnest, committee chairman, assisted by Luana Smith, Rosemary Zupan, Mabel Roman, Bonnie Vandenberg, Elizabeth Schuh, Mary Thurber, Geraldine Roycroft, and Anna Schafer.

On Thursday, December 13, the following Catholic Daughters were in charge of the sale of Christmas seals at several business establishments. At the First Federal Savings and Loan, Anne Kessler and Anna Schaefer; U. S. National bank, Marie O'Sullivan and Lillian Dale; First National bank, Mrs. Dean Caldwell and Mrs. George Knoll; at Castleberry's drug store, Pearl Hosking and Mae Carrier; post office, Violet Pieser and Clara Beard; Montgomery Ward, Vera Mullin and Ethel Brunner; Sears Roebuck, Winifred Hooker and Nora Manning; J. C. Penneys, Emina Grey and Freda Newman.

Helen Egan and Ellen Ely were chairmen in charge of this project which was very successful.

Saddle Club

A gala time was had by members of the Klamath Saddle club and their husbands at the annual Christmas party which was held at Lakeshore inn last Saturday night.

Dinner and dancing was enjoyed by about 40 persons. Helen Perry and Beth Chase, in charge of the decorating committee, arranged a little table tree as a centerpiece with holly and evergreen sprays.

A rosy-cheeked Santa Claus with flowing white beard appeared shortly before the stroke of midnight and distributed presents to everyone after questioning them on their individual behaviour for the past year. This role was acted by Elmer Balsiger.

Mrs. Donald Finch, who lived here for many years, has asked friends to open house on Christmas Day at her home in Tulelake.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts have been busy in this pre-holiday week. On Saturday afternoon Skateland was the scene of a skating party from 2 to 5 o'clock for intermediate and senior Girl Scouts. Also present were leaders and troop committee members.

Mrs. Frank Kafer, member of the national staff with headquarters in Seattle, has been visiting here this week and attended a meeting of the Girl Scout council held Monday at the Willard hotel. She also conferred with the new executive secretary, Florence McConahay, who has come here from Seattle.

Troop No. 15 of Henley had a Christmas party recently at the Henley elementary school. There was a grab bag of Christmas gifts. Officers were elected also, and the new president is Sharon Finchum. Mrs. Harvey Wise is the leader and assistant leader is Mrs. Ralph Hill. Songs and refreshments completed the afternoon.

IT TAKES A HEAP O' LIVIN'

It takes a heap o' livin' in a house t' make it home,
 A heap o' sun an' shadder, an' ye sometimes have t' roam
 Afore ye really 'preciate the things ye lef' behind,
 An' hunger fer 'em somehow, with 'em allus on yer mind.

We have tried to give you the beauty and joy that quality furniture has given to home lovers. If we have fallen short, it is only because of limited stock, as we pride ourselves as merchants of "Finer Furniture!" Our sincere wishes to you, for a Joyous Christmas.

ROBERT SPROAT ROBERT O. SPROAT

Klamath Furniture Co.
 221 MAIN TELEPHONE 5353

Order NOW for Christmas Flowers

Avoid the last minute rush!
 Open 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. until Christmas—including Sunday, Dec. 23.

Open until 2 p. m. Christmas Day.

★ Still time to Telegraph Flowers
 out of town!

Klamath Flower Shop
 1211 Main Phone 4159
 Charlie Mack Sanford Rose