Marriage Vows Exchanged Friday

TULELAKE—In an informal ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Klamath Falls, at 4:30 o'clock on December 21st, Dorothy Loyal Kissan, Pelham Manor, New York, became the bride of Lt. Col. Barton S. Pulling, U. S. army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Ess Pulling, Los Vegas, Nevada. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. F. C. Wisenbach.

The bride chose for her wedding a brown gabardine suit with matching hat and veil and other accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds.

Her only attendant, Miss Ruby Schultz, Tulelake, wore an all white frock with a corsage of white carnations. Albert Pulling was best man for his son. The bride was given in marriage by Bernard C. Schultz, Tulelake.

The marriage was the culmination of a romance which began in Italy while both Lt. Comdr. Pulling and his bride were in the service. The new Mrs. Pulling, formerly a model for B. Altman and company, New York, served with the Wac as a sergeant, for 27 months, first in Africa and later in Italy. The commander saw 38 months service in Africa, Italy, Sicily, England and France. He reports back to Dayton, Ohio, January 4 for further orders.

The wedding date was also the 29th anniversary of the marriage of the groom's parents, well known here. Mr. Pulling associated with the fish and wild life service has spent several months here each year since 1942 at biological headquarters.

Present for the ceremony were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pulling, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard C. Schultz and daughter Ruby, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Fisher, Tulelake.

A reception attended by 80 guests followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schultz on the west side of the lake. The traditional white tiered wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds. The refreshment table and other appointments about the rooms carried out the Christmas holiday theme.
