

Mary Jane Jenkins Weds New Year's

Mary Jane Jenkins, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins of 1233 Pacific Terrace, became the bride of Dr. George Harris Merryman Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merryman of this city, in a simple ceremony read at 4 o'clock New Year's Day at the Jenkins home. The Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist church, read the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely full length gown of white crepe fashioned with a deep bertha collar embellished with seed pearls and gold bugle beads. A band of the same trim was set in the skirt. The bride's flowers were of gardenias and white carnations.

Church Rites

St. Paul's Episcopal church was the scene of the late holiday wedding of Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Adkisson of 1536 Oregon, to Thomas A. Bessonet Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bessonet of Seaside, on Saturday, December 29.

The bride chose traditional white satin and net for her wedding gown and a long full veil. She carried pink roses.

Her maid of honor was Maria Heygenia, who wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried red roses.

Little Starla Trippett was flower girl. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of small flowers.

Best man was Bob King of Klamath Falls. A reception for the young couple attended by a group of close friends and the bride's immediate family was held at the home of her aunt, Mrs. LeRoy S. Tyrrell, Pacific Terrace.

The bridegroom's family was unable to attend the ceremony. The young couple left a few days after their wedding for a honeymoon trip to Seaside. For going-away the bride wore a gold suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom will report soon for further duty with the army air corps.

Library Club

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club will open the New Year with a meeting Monday, January 14, at 2 o'clock at the city library. At this time Wallace S. Baldinger, Red Cross, will be the speaker. Mr. Baldinger will speak on "A Home To Live In," and will present slides to illustrate his talk. This speaker replaces Lt. Leon Messenger of the Klamath Falls air station, originally scheduled on the year's program. Lt. Messenger has been detached from the station here.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman, will announce her program later.

All interested women in the city are cordially invited to affiliate with Library club.

Luncheon

A yuletide theme was carried out in the decorations at a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Frederick Lewis at her home, 1834 Fremont, on Friday, December 21.

There were two tables of bridge. Each table received a gift. Present were Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Melvin Howie, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Bernard Dubel, Mrs. Joe Hicks, Mrs. Harold Franey, and Mrs. Lewis, the hostess.

Betty Reymers Weds Navy Pilot

A wedding of interest here took place in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Saturday, December 8, when Betty Jane Reymers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Reymers of Menlo Park, Calif., formerly of this city, became the bride of Frederick Russell Jacobson of Minneapolis. The ceremony was read by the Rev. W. B. Rilling at half-past three o'clock in the afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church.

The church was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums and cybotium fern and white candles decked the altar and the sides of the aisle.

Mr. Bryant Sanford sang "Benedictus" and "The Lord's Prayer," before the ceremony.

The bridegroom's sister Helen Jacobson, was the bride's only attendant. Charles J. Tack was the best man and the ushers were Robert Theodore Biesanz and Bruce Young. A reception followed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and tulle, the bodice of satin with an inset of tulle around the neck with satin applique. The sleeves were snug fitting and pointed at the wrist and the skirt fell in a long, full train. A finger illusion net veil was caught by a small hat embroidered in seed pearls. Her bouquet was a white orchid which she carried on a white Bible.

The maid of honor wore a gown of powder blue embroidered marquisette with a sweetheart neckline, full skirt, cap sleeves and matching elbow length gloves. She carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Following the reception the couple left for a brief honeymoon at Lowell Inn at Stillwater in northern Minnesota. They are now at home at 551 13th avenue south, Minneapolis.

The bride spent the greater part of her life in Klamath Falls and moved with her family to California two years ago. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1940 and attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

The groom attended the University of Minnesota before enlisting in the navy. For four years he served as a fighter pilot in the air corps and returned in October from overseas duty and shortly thereafter received his discharge.

Mrs. Carl G. Reymers, mother of the bride, flew to Minneapolis with her daughter and remained for several days after the wedding before returning to California.

Shower

Honoring Mrs. Jeanette Simpson, a shower and farewell party was held at the home of Miss Lucile Tweed, 442 N. 6th, on Sunday, December 30.

Games were played and refreshments served. Many gifts were received by the honor guest. Guests included Mrs. Jean Dickerson, Mrs. Mildred Merrill, Miss Ruth Jones, Mrs. Sarah Tweed, Mrs. Ethel Morrison, Mrs. B. E. Lien, Miss Lorraine Wright, Mrs. Lettie Druceker, Mrs. Agnes Lageson, Mrs. Malcolm Epley, Mrs. Margaret Dudley, Mrs. Emily Priest, Miss Maxine Rankin, Mrs. Jerry Alcorn, Mrs. Anne Sherfy, Mrs. Herrick Wheeler, Mrs. Pearl Thompson, Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Mary Carver, Miss Bess McCole, Mr. Simpson and the hostesses, Mrs. Helen Hoffman and Miss Lucile Tweed.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left December 31 for Long Beach, Calif., where he has accepted a position with a contracting firm. Mrs. Simpson was a teacher at Pelican school.

Open House

On Sunday, December 30, Mrs. Frederick Lewis held open house at her home, 1834 Fremont, from 3 to 8 o'clock. Approximately 70 friends called.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. J. E. Hawkins and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

SOCIETY From The South

Holiday Tea On December 29th

An interesting holiday affair was the tea arranged last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. A. Bristow Hood and her daughter Barbara asked guests to their home, 76 Washington, for several informal hours.

The rooms were bright with greens and the tea table was especially attractive with white chrysanthemums and Christmas candles. Pouring were Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall and Mrs. E. P. Livingston.

Barbara, who is studying at the University of Oregon where her minor is music, played during the afternoon for the guests. Her numbers included Etude by Symanowski, Nocturne by Resighi, and Arabesque No. 2, Debussy. Answering a request, Barbara also played Debussy's Clair de Lune.

Guests asked for the afternoon were Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe, Mrs. Thomas Radcliffe and Helen Radcliffe, the latter two here for the holidays, Mrs. Harold Teale and daughter Patricia, Mrs. Lowell Coggeshall and Diane, Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach and Mrs. Carrie Ann Hearing, Mrs. Hugh Campbell and Joan, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Florence Weaver of Los Angeles, Mrs. Phil Hitchcock and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr.

Barbara Hood returned to the university New Year's night.

Among the students returning to school New Year's Day was Madelon Adler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Adler, who is studying at Roosevelt junior high school in Eugene and majoring in music at the University of Oregon under Professor George Hopkins.

Dancing Club

The first of a series of parties for members of the Winter Dancing club will be held Saturday night, January 12, at the Willard hotel. Dancing will start at 10 o'clock. Tables will be arranged cabaret fashion around the large ballroom.

Hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch and Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr.

Jean Hauger, who spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hauger, left New Year's night for her home in San Francisco.

House guests of Mrs. Frederick Lewis, 1834 Fremont, for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hastings of Portland. Capt. Lewis, USMC, is still overseas.

Betrothal Told At University

The betrothal of Mary Louise Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Landry of 331 Pacific Terrace, was announced at the Alpha Phi house on the University of Oregon campus at dinner Thursday evening.

Mary Louise will wed William Louis Wasmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wasmann of Honesdale, Pennsylvania, some time late this coming summer.

The betrothal was made known when a box of lovely red roses was opened at the table and clusters, tied with crimson ribbon, presented to each girl. The traditional box of chocolates was then passed by Mary.

The bride-elect is a member of a well known Klamath Falls family. She attended schools here and is now in her junior year at the University. Mr. Wasmann is also a student at the university having enrolled in his sophomore year following his discharge from the United States marine corps with the rank of technical sergeant. He attended Columbia university prior to his enlistment, served over three years in the South Pacific and was returned to the United States a year ago.

The forthcoming wedding will culminate a romance which started here where the groom-to-be was stationed at the Marine Barracks following his return from overseas. Mr. Wasmann spent Christmas with his parents but arrived in Klamath Falls in time for the New Year festivities. The two left New Year's Day for Eugene to resume their studies.

Wed Christmas

Christmas morning, in a setting of holiday greens, poinsettias, and white chrysanthemums, Nancy Belle Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orpheus L. Parker of Oregon City, became the bride of SK 3/c Richard Henthorne, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Franey of Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony was read in St. Paul's Episcopal church of Oregon City.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a long train. Her full length veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried white chrysanthemums centered with a single white orchid.

Mrs. Harold Franey, mother of the bridegroom, was present at the ceremony.

The young couple attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Larkins in Salem before leaving for their honeymoon trip to California.

Mrs. Henthorne is a graduate of Oregon City high school and attended Oregon State college for two years.
