

Klamath Folks Enter New Year

With the Christmas tree ornaments tucked away and all the fun of holidays so recently over, Klamath folks looked forward to a busy new year with high hopes. A number of people are packing up preparing for a trek south and "wish you were here" notes will soon come filtering through the mail to those of us who stay at home.

Arrivals from overseas continue to thrill the people who have been waiting for a long, long time. Friday morning Jolene Woodruff Staiger and young son received a call from Major Stanley Staiger who had just docked at Tacoma having arrived from Shanghai where he was last stationed. Jolene will leave this weekend to join her husband for a brief stay. He continues then to Washington, D. C., to make his report to the office of strategic service of the United States army and his wife will join him there. They then plan a visit in New York and a holiday in Florida before returning to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Sr., with the Ellingsons Jr. and Dorothy will leave next week for a month's stay in the south. Their plans are quite indefinite but will include southern California and possibly Arizona and New Mexico.

One of the loveliest of celebrations is the Feast of the Lights which will be observed at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The service will be followed by a gathering in the parish house and the cutting of the traditional Epiphany cake.

Something borrowed, something blue and something old were all linked together when Mary Jane Jenkins wore an antique Chinese bracelet of blue loaned to her by Mrs. William Lyons of San Francisco for her wedding New Year's Day to Dr. George H. Merryman Jr.

MARY CATHERINE Jackson, daughter of Mrs. Freda Jackson of this city, will wed George A. Wright on January 12, the bride-elect's mother announced.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis of Malin entertained extensively over the holidays in their new home near Malin. On Christmas Day old friends and new dropped in when they held open house.

On December 26, Elaine Abbott, Gwen Summers and June Selstrom of Klamath Falls were overnight guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kleiner, formerly of Klamath Falls and now of Medford, were house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis for New Year's.

Tuesday evening, January 1, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Milne of Portland, who are visiting in Klamath Falls. Other guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Sandmeyer and Miss Isabella Milne. The Tom Milnes spent several days with the Ellises.

Pioneers Honored On Anniversary

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ess of Keno, road was celebrated Sunday, December 24, when friends called on them from 2 to 5 o'clock that afternoon. The rooms were decorated with flowers and gifts given to them in remembrance of their golden wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ess were married on Christmas Day, 1895, in Bellview, Kansas. They moved to Oregon in 1911 and have resided here since that time. They have one daughter, Mrs. Robert McGhehey and two grandsons, Stanley and Donald, who live with their grandparents. Stanley is home on furlough from the army, and Donald is in Japan.

The table was set with a lace cloth, lighted candles, and a tiered wedding cake, decorated with golden bells and yellow roses. Mrs. M. Stuart Biden cut and served the cake. Mrs. H. B. Sargent and Mrs. F. D. Everhart poured, with Mrs. R. D. McGhehey assisting.

Mrs. Lee Sutton presented a memory book to Mrs. Ess, and all those present registered.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGhehey, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ager, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. M. The bride-elect is a graduate of the Klamath Union high school and has been employed by the Kesterson Lumber corporation for the past 10 years. Miss Jackson is a member of the Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, member of the Amaranth lodge, Past Honor Queen of Jobs Daughters, and was active in the Oregon Women's Ambulance Corps.

Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright of DeQueen, Arkansas. Kappa Chapter

The year 1945 was successfully completed by the Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, with two meetings, the first being held on December 13 at the home of Mrs. W. P. McMillan on Pine street, at which time her granddaughter, Katherine Kaylor, presided as hostess for the annual Christmas and birthday party of the sorority.

On December 27, Mrs. Donald Divens, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Howard Pernel, entertained for the group at her home on Alameda street. Phyllis White, Martha Keller, Ava Whitlatch and Lillian Redkey gave the group a very interesting discussion on the program as scheduled by the chapter. Beauty IS YOUR DUTY
By RITA WHISENANT
Licensed Cosmetologist

If your hair is inclined to be a little stringy, and doesn't stay up too well during this damp weather, a permanent is the solution. It's worth it for the peace of mind it gives and the way it peeps you up... not to mention mere looks.

AND if your hair is exceptionally dry I'd like to have you come in and see me for conditioning treatment BEFORE you get the permanent. If your hair is in the right condition at the time, your permanent will be ever so much more satisfactory.

ALL of our operators are specially trained to judge the texture of your hair, besides actually giving the permanent properly... so you may be sure of satisfaction. And, of course, I'm always glad to advise you on hair conditioning whether you're getting a permanent or not.

Martha Shops and Shops

Market Receives Epicurean Items

AT the PINE STREET MARKET are a couple of new items for epicureans... Virginia Dare Wine Dressing (French style)... for salads... and Guava Jelly from Florida... for your hot biscuits! The names are description enough for enticement.

If you were asking for crystallized ginger for the holidays... you can obtain it now at the market... where a supply has just been received from Chicago... in half-pound packages.

A fresh supply of frozen foods is expected Saturday or Monday from the north... which will be welcome news to customers who have been pecking consistently into the empty container. Last week's shipment was held up by valley floods and spoiled completely... hence the scarcity.

Many other new foods... as well as choice favorites... are arriving daily at the PINE STREET MARKET... corner of Seventh and Pine.

New Scrap-Trap Found At Robert's

IN regard to kitchen gadgets... the most convenient Martha's seen in a long time is the Scrap-Trap at ROBERT'S HARDWARE... to eliminate garbage problems and the unsightly disposal can.

This consists of a metal frame to which is secured a heavy, wax-covered bag... and comes in two models... the screw-on type that fits inside a cupboard door, out of sight... or the hang-on type that can be hung over a drawer, cupboard or even on the back of a chair.

The bags can be kept tightly closed... then dumped, bag and all, into the outside garbage container. These scrap-traps are perfect for apartment house dwellers... and a great convenience for the sick room. They sell for $2.19 a set, including 30 bags... and extra supplies of bags are available, 30 to a package for 49 cents... At ROBERT'S HARDWARE... 1007 Main Street.

Cal-Ore Not To Close 'Til Later

IN answer to numerous inquiries... CAL-ORE is not going to close until new equipment arrives for installation... and this may not happen until sometime in February... so the management informs Martha.

In answer to other inquiries... the Tavern's super steaks can usually be had for the asking now... except on Saturday nights, which is the big crowd night.

So you can still plan on a few evenings of dining, dancing and fun at CAL-ORE... just across the California line on Highway 97... before the closing date to renovate.

Society stories called in this week and not appearing in this issue will be published Monday. Lack of space prohibited carrying the full section this week.

Shower

Bowls of yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the decorations for a bridal shower given by Darle Helfrich and Maryellen Wright honoring Mrs. Hugh Killmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Kahl, 714 N. 10th, Sunday afternoon, December 30, at her parent's home.

During the afternoon gifts were opened by the guests of honor and refreshments were served.

Present were Mrs. Killmeyer, Josephine Thornton, Mrs. Douglas Ernst, Mrs. Ben Campbell, Mrs. Leslie Wright, Mrs. Edward Kahl, Pat Larson, Lettie Linman, Joy Biggs, Mrs. Devere Helfrich, Dolores Helfrich, Mildred Williams, Mrs. Edgar Williams, Mrs. Peter Silani, Mrs. Andrew Silani, and the hostesses.

Marvin George Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas of 237 Pacific Terrace, has returned to the University of Oregon. He spent last term at home.

Clearance Sale On At LaPointe's

STOREWIDE clearance is in full swing at LA-POINTE'S... and from the mark-downs Martha noted, you can just about double value received on that gift check you're itching to spend.

When I dropped in Friday... there was still a good choice in three-piece suits, a few formalis, and hosts of dresses on sale... all types and a DRASTIC reduction had been made on fur coats.

Receiving the most attention was the table piled with a rainbow selection of sweaters... but the most interesting was the "conglomeration" table... containing skirts, blouses, scarfs, dummies in several styles... some marked as low as a quarter... and even Starlight brassieres.

Many of these items are being showed out to make room for spring apparel... but, as we well know, we'll be donning winter clothes awhile yet... so this is an opportunity to pick up an extra frock or suit... for far less than new price.

At LA-POINTE'S January clearance... 507 Main.

Whytal's Features Gabardine Casuals

WHEN it comes to casuals... it's getting so one thinks of gabardines... such as the astounding assortment at WHY-TAL'S... and I DO mean astounding!

This includes both sport and dressy types... two pieces and frocks of unusual color combinations... long or short sleeves... and many are brand new on the hangers.

For all-around wear and comfort... neatness and serviceability... Martha favors the neck to hem button style... especially to slip on without mussing a hair-do... and Whytal's is showing a number of these in pastels and winter tones... such as the fuchsia with brown trim and stitching.

Another distinctive gabardine that Wanda Speer showed me was the two-piece, royal blue... with a showy dragon embroidered on the blouse... which is only an example of the clever touches displayed on these frocks.

Sizes range from 10 through 20... and the price is exceedingly moderate on these gabardines.

At WHYTAL'S... in the Medical-Dental Building... Main at Ninth.

Junior League Cologne At Long's

TOO late for Christmas... but just as desirable in giftability is "Mine Alone" the exquisite Junior League cologne that Martha found at LONG'S this week.

Mine Alone... featured in this month's Harper's Bazaar... is a fragrance that's soft as a whisper... young, possessive, wistful... "a cologne of unrivalled originality created to express the individual you" and, as you might imagine, especially appropriate for a Teen Miss.

The satin containers of white, American Beauty red and peacock blue... with gold figures skating around over them... are just as lovely as the cologne.

Furthermore, the price... only $3.30, INCLUDING tax, for a four-ounce bottle... is what I'd consider surprisingly nominal.

Especially recommended for her birthday... Mine Alone from LONG'S APPAREL... 719 Main.

Tussy Special On At Currin's

WHETHER by design or coincidence... Tussy's Wind and Weather Lotion SPECIAL at CURRIN'S... certainly arrives at an appropriate time... when face and hands need extra protection from the rigors of cold and winds.

This lotion... which Currin's rates among its "best sellers"... helps guard the skin against roughness and chapping... and also serves as a splendid foundation base for powder.

Tussy fans have told Martha that they watch eagerly for these specials... because they can stock up at a worthwhile saving. The dollar size bottle can be had for 50 cents... the $2.00 size for $1.00... plus tax, of course.

For a limited time only... at CURRIN'S for DRUGS... corner of Ninth and Main.

Moe's Announces Introductory Offer

MOE'S department store is featuring an introductory special on Chiffon Hand Cream by Primrose House... during which you can purchase a big $2.00 jar for only a dollar... plus tax... to acquaint more women with its qualities as a skin softener.

This is an emollient cream containing LANOLIN... for rough, dry and chapped hands... helping keep them smooth and soft. It is delicately scented... and isn't sticky or greasy.

So Martha recommends that you take advantage of this offer... because Primrose House products are always desirable... and get a plentiful supply if hand cream disappears as rapidly for you as for me.

It's sold exclusively at MOE'S, The Woman's Store... 512 Main.
