

Gen. Marshall Meets With Chinese Factions To Seek End Of Shooting

CHUNGKING, Jan. 7 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall met today with government and communist peace negotiators and at the end of the first historic session declared that "we have made progress."

President Truman's special envoy, making his first comment since he stepped into the midst of the Chinese negotiations after the rivals agreed to methods leading to a truce, said the conferences would be resumed tomorrow.

Marshall met for about three hours with Gen. Chou En-lai, head of the delegation of the communists sent here to talk peace, and Gen. Chang Chun, representing the Chinese government.

All three emerged smiling from the conference. Both Chang and Chou agreed with Marshall that progress had been made.

Earlier Chou had predicted that a truce halting the spotted fighting in China's civil turmoil would be made effective before Thursday, when China's all-party conference opens its peace meeting designed to skirt the peril of civil war and work out a program of peace and unity.

It was reported reliably that the "cease fire" order would be given when the committee of three concludes its work, possibly tomorrow.

Truce Discussed
It also was understood that no political problems were touched up at today's session, which was devoted entirely to a discussion of details for the truce and the restoration of China's paralyzed communications.

The session took place at Marshall's residence which since his arrival in Chungking late last month has been one of the busiest spots in the war-time capital.

It was generally conceded that Marshall's direct participation in attempts to solve the current crisis aroused far greater hope of settlement than has existed before.

After the conference, Marshall told reporters it would be "highly undesirable" to disclose the character of the talks now, but promised that a full statement would be made when they are finished.

To this Chou added: "It's been a good morning."

"It went very well," added Chang.

Communist and government leaders reportedly were studying the first draft of cease-fire orders today. As soon as the two parties agree on wording, the orders will be submitted for General Marshall's approval, reported Dr. Lo Lung-chi, a spokesman for China's democratic league.

Reds Reconciled
Lo said the proposed truce would not apply to Manchuria, because it was not regarded as a zone of hostilities. Observers here said this might indicate that the Chinese communists were reconciled to control of Manchuria by Chiang Kai-shek's national government.

Occupation of that industrial-rich area by Chiang's troops meanwhile proceeded without reported opposition. A semi-official dispatch confirmed previous reports that national troops began landing by air at Changchun, Manchurian capital, on Saturday. And in Shanghai, U. S. Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer announced that American navy ships would begin within 10 days to move 26,000 Chinese government troops into Manchuria.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By JOAN O'NEILL
The Teen-age club is planning a big dance to be given the night of January 25 for the whole teen-age high school population of Klamath county. The TAC committee is taking charge of the arrangements for the dance.

Jim Howard, TAC chairman, has secured the use of the armory building and Baldy's band.

This dance is an unusual one. The most unusual feature about it is that there will be no charge to high school students. The only requirement for entry into the doings is a high school student body card or a Teen-age club ticket.

The aim of the Teen-age club is to give the greatest amount of wholesome entertainment to the largest number of teen-age kids. That is the reason for the presentation of this dance. Invitations are going to be sent to the various schools in Klamath county.

Teen-age club tickets will be sold inside the doors so that those who have not been able to purchase them before will have an opportunity to do so. The 1946 TAC tickets will be off the printing press some time around the middle of this month and will be on sale soon after.

The advertising staff of the KUHS annual, The El Rodeo, received its instructions as to procedure and such for collecting advertising for the book today. Ruth Merrill, who is in charge of this branch, designated certain beats for each person. $20 must be received in the form of ads or sponsorships from the local businessmen.

Charlotte Carter, Jeanne Hamilton, Marilyn Bruce, Jim Crisman, Andy Moore, Shirley Dalton, Dorothy Collier, Jody Bennett, Mary O'Brien, Mary Lou Case, Lynden King, Carmen Jones, Anna Johnson, Katharine Newman, Janice Blyeu, Rosie Oss, Dorothy Dewey, Jeannine Selby and Jim Ivory form the advertising staff that will be running around town for the next two weeks trying to meet the February 1st deadline. If any person would like to help sponsor the El Rodeo and is not contacted by a member of the staff within the next few weeks, he may call the Krater publications at the high school.

Pelicans Look Good
The Pelicans basketball squad seems in pretty good shape this year and they are heading for the championship in the opinion of many. The Pels won both the games over Bend which were played Friday and Saturday nights in Pelican Court.

If Friday night was any inkling of what is to come, this year's adult attendance at the basketball games will be considerably higher than it was last year. Friday night both the adult and student sections were jammed, although the adult section wasn't quite as full Saturday. Friday night the Lions club was the guest of the Service club and the members who came sat in a special section set aside by the Service organization.

Pastor Named First Citizen

PORTLAND, Jan. 7 (AP)—The Junior chamber of commerce has named Dr. Thompson L. Shannon, pastor of First Christian church, the 1945 "junior first citizen."

Dr. Shannon served in 1945 as president of the Oregon Mental Hygiene society, vice chairman of the state liquor control commissioner's advisory committee and as member of the governor's veterans and the Russian relief committees.

Fire Damages City School

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 7 (AP)—A third incendiary fire at near-by Vanport City since Dec. 16 yesterday caused $50,000 damage to one of the war housing center schools.

Assistant Chief M. B. Schnackenberg said a watchman reported an explosion preceded discovery of the auditorium building in flames. One fireman was burned slightly.

Schnackenberg said the manner of the fire's origin was incendiary. One of the previous set fires caused $140,000 damage to the Vanport shopping center.

January 15 Tax Questions Answered By U. S. Experts

(Editor's Note: The following questions and answers were compiled by J. W. Maloney, collector of internal revenue at Portland.)

1. What federal tax form must be filed by January 15? Your 1945 declaration of estimated tax (or an amendment of your 1945 declaration).
2. Does everyone have to file a declaration? No. This filing should not be confused with the regular time for filing annual income tax returns, which must be filed not later than March 15.
3. Who does have to file January 15? Three groups as follows: (a) farmers, (b) persons who filed a 1945 declaration of estimated tax, but wish to change their estimates, (c) persons who should have filed a 1945 declaration but have failed to do so.
4. Did everybody have to file a 1945 declaration? No. Only persons whose wages last year exceeded $5000 plus $500 for every exemption except their own and persons who had over $100 income outside of wages from which tax was withheld (assuming their overall income was at least $500).
5. What are some examples? A wageearner with a wife and one child has two exemptions besides his own, and if his wages exceed $8000 ($5000 plus $500 plus $500), he had to file a 1945 declaration. Also required to file were merchants, landlords, lawyers, doctors, and others who received income from which tax was not withheld.
6. Why is January 15 a special date for farmers? Other taxpayers were required to file declarations last March, but the law specifically permitted farmers to wait until the next January 15.
