

June Dickson Is December Bride

Before an altar banked with chrysanthemums and palms, June Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, became the bride of Harry L. Orem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem of Henley. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. David F. Barnett in the First Presbyterian church Saturday, December 22, before a large number of friends and relatives.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and marquisette with long sleeves and train. Her finger-tip veil was of fine lace-trimmed net. She carried white carnations.

The maid of honor was Barbara Ann Dickson, sister of the bride. She wore a floor-length gown of blue lace and marquisette and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The traditional wedding marches were played and Carl Hugel sang "The Lord's Prayer." Accompanying him was Mrs. George W. McIntyre.

Best man was Robert Griffith of Ashland, Ore., cousin of the bridegroom. Ushers were Paul Fairclough and Robert Norris.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dickson chose a black and chartreuse frock with black accessories. Her corsage was of Tallman roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church where the young couple cut their wedding cake. Serving were Miss Marjorie Schultz of San Jose and Miss Nannette Schubert of Klamath Falls. Pouring were Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt and Mrs. E. H. Ullman.

The bride, a graduate of Klamath Union high school, is now attending the Southern Oregon College of Education.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Henley high school and is in the naval reserve. He is serving on the USS Block Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Orem left that evening for a short trip to California.

Soroptimist Club Starts New Year

Soroptimists started off the new year with initiation of two new members, Bee Bell and Muriel Garich. The impressive initiation ceremony was read by Doris Peyton, assisted by Lillian Hillis. A welcome was given the new members by the club.

Ida Odell read several letters of appreciation from the president and members of the Brighton and Hove Soroptimist club in England to whom many packages and greetings had been sent by the Klamath Falls club.

Lillian Hillis read a letter from Elizabeth Hawes, international liaison officer of Soroptimists in Europe, thanking the local club for the many gifts sent to Holland children. Miss Hawes stated that each gift had been handed out personally and mentioned particularly a pair of shoes that went to a little girl who had had to leave school because she had no shoes to wear—not even wooden shoes. The local club is sending packages to Holland each month to help with the food and clothing problem there this winter.

Rose Poole appealed to the club members to do all possible to further plans for a YMCA in Klamath Falls, and the members pledged full support.

President Kathleen stressed the fact that opportunities for service were legion, and now that the war is over, we must be particular about attendance and miss no chance to prove to the community that we are a real service club.

From Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zetzman of Ashland spent the holidays in Klamath Falls as houseguests at the Frank Eberlein home on Summers lane. Many of their friends entertained for them during their visit.

The Zetzmans moved to Ashland last September after having lived in Klamath county for 26 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hartin were New Year's hosts to a group of relatives and friends at their home at 4967 Boardman. Cards were played and refreshments were served in the early hours of the New Year.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. William Garriott, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes, and Mrs. Carmel Hartin. Mrs. Carmel Hartin assisted the hostess.

Stingerette

The Stingerette social club held its regular meeting in the KC hall on Thursday when potluck luncheon was served by Mrs. H. G. Caldwell, Mrs. P. H. Horne and Mrs. N. B. Gale, hostesses for the day.

During the course of the business meeting officers were elected for the coming year. Mrs. A. B. Guthrie and Mrs. J. J. Pex, president and vice president respectively, were re-elected, and Mrs. R. L. Chaney will serve as secretary-treasurer. It was decided that rolls and butter will be furnished by the club for all luncheons and the hostesses will provide the hot dish. Mrs. R. L. Chaney and Mrs. M. D. Kious will be the hostesses on January 24. The club is to sponsor a public card party in the KC hall on January 10, and Mrs. A. B. Guthrie and Mrs. N. B. Gale will be in charge of arrangements.

The special award given at each meeting went to Mrs. P. H. Horne and following the business meeting a Christmas party with a gift exchange was enjoyed by members and their children. The favors and refreshments also carried out the Christmas motif.

Attending were Mrs. E. O. Stockdale, son and daughter, Mrs. H. G. Caldwell and son, Mrs. R. L. Chaney, Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Mrs. N. B. Gale and son, Mrs. P. H. Horne and two daughters, Mrs. A. B. Guthrie, Mrs. Henry Redmond, Mrs. J. J. Pex and daughter, and Mrs. M. D. Kious and two daughters.

Friendly Circle

Kathryn Billings and Fannie Goddard were hostesses to the Friendly circle which met Wednesday at the home of Arthur Stone, 2204 Darrow. Luncheon was served at 12:30 p. m. and the short business meeting was held about the table after luncheon. Officers elected for the coming year are Lizzie Little, president; Nona Hall, vice president; Kathryn Billings, secretary-treasurer. Those present drew names for their Silent Sisters for 1946.

Pinocle Club

Ye Olde Pinocle club met Thursday, December 27, at the home of Agnace Lowe of 2640 Homedale, and the hostess served the members and guests with a turkey dinner. There was also a Christmas tree.

Two guests were present, Nettie Good and Esther Lowe. High score at pinocle went to Maggie Upton, second to Fannie Goddard, low to Nettie Good and the pinocle award to Esther Adkisson who will be the hostess on Thursday, January 10, at her home at 1536 Oregon.

Exchange Vows

Helen Louise James, daughter of Mrs. Lydia James, 243 East Main, and Francis M. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Douglas of Bay City, Ore., exchanged vows at the First Methodist church of Klamath Falls Saturday, December 22. The ceremony was read by Rev. Victor Phillips.

Douglas was employed by the state highway department in Klamath Falls before entering the army in 1942 and was recently discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas left the following week for Bay City to spend the holidays. They will make their home in Klamath Falls.

WEDDING BELLS rang in October for Lorraine Neis, daughter of Mrs. Ann B. Ambard of this city, and S 2/c Thomas Hermant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Hermant Jr., also of Klamath Falls.

Officers Elected At Church Meet

All circles of the Woman's Society of the First Methodist church assembled for a general meeting in the church parlors Thursday of last week. The study group met at 10:30 a. m. with Miriam Smyth as leader. At noon there was a potluck luncheon with the circle chairmen in charge.

There was no executive board meeting, and Mrs. Earl Redman led the prayer circle at 1:40 p. m. At 2 p. m., the general meeting opened with the singing of Christmas carols, and Mrs. Redman presided over the business meeting. It was voted to continue the cottage prayer meetings, but the places were not announced.

Mrs. George Casper submitted the report of the nominating committee, which was voted upon and accepted. Named president was Mrs. Earl Redman; first vice president, Mrs. Thomas Windham; second vice president, Mrs. John Yadon; third vice president, Mrs. W. A. Carleton; recording secretary, Mrs. A. G. Proctor; treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Calvin Hunt; student secretary, Mrs. C. H. Barnstable; Wesleyan Guild secretary, Mrs. Victor Phillips; children's work secretary, Mrs. Lillian Hagman; secretary of literature and publications, Mrs. J. D. Gillispie; secretary of supplies, Mrs. L. A. Brannan; secretary of spiritual life, Mrs. Walter Herndon; press committee, Mrs. Bruce Binkley; scrapbook chairman, Mrs. George Casper.

The circles will meet together on Thursday, January 10, in the church parlors for dessert at 1:30 p. m. In the absence of Mrs. Walter Herndon Mrs. McBride led the devotional service, her subject being "God's Gift To Us" and the general theme of the day was "This Is My Father's World."

Mrs. L. K. Phelps, program chairman, then introduced the guest speaker, Mildred Simmons, returned missionary from India, who spoke upon the customs and problems of modern India and demonstrated some of the costumes. Mrs. Robert Craig, playing her own accompaniment, sang "In Little Village Bethlehem" and "Jesus, Jesus" and there were Christmas songs by Lois and Genevieve Morgan, accompanied by Mr. Redman.

The Winema Temple Pythian Sisters and Knights held their annual Christmas dinner Wednesday, December 19, in the library clubroom.

Turkey and all the trimmings were served to 50 guests. The holiday theme was carried out in the decorations. There was a Christmas tree with gifts for all with a gift exchange between men and ladies. Cards and singing furnished entertainment.
