Fans' Choice Of Cage Tilts Open Tonight

By HALE SCARBROUGH

Klamath cage fans should be able to find a game to suit individual tastes tonight with matches scheduled for both the KUHS hardwood and Marine Barracks gymnasium. At the high school the Pelicans meet the Ashland Grizzlies in the first of a two-game series and up on the hill the Leathernecks play the first of two tilts with the powerful Fairfield-Suisun Skymasters.

The Pelicans are scheduled to take the floor shortly after 8 o'clock and the Marine game will get underway about 8:30. Preliminaries are to be played before both varsity games.

Both the K-men and the Leathernecks are riding the crest of win streaks now and the Pelicans are beginning to receive booming for state basketball laurels. Their record is nine out of 10, with the last six strung in a row.

The Marines have seven victories in 10 starts, the last four consecutively, and have hit a 48-point per-game average, compared to 38.6 for opponents.

After being crippled continually by discharges early in the season the Leathernecks have gathered together a squad that is three-deep for every position and capable of playing college-caliber ball all the way. In fact, a number of the men have had advanced cage experience.

Among the newer additions to the squad are Forward Doc Zautcke, a sailor from Wisconsin who has nailed down a starting berth; Wayne Kelling, all-state forward at Davenport, Ia., high in 1942; Lyle Sparks, set-shot artist from Boone, Ia., high, and Jack McNeill, who played four years of basketball for Hampton, Ia., high, and a year at Millsaps college, Jackson, Miss., while a V-12 trainee.

Probable starters for the Leathernecks are Art Verment and Zautcke at forwards, Jim Lambert, center, and McNeill and Paul Adams in the back court.

For the Pelicans against Ashland, Coach Dutch French will probably start his high-scoring first five of Jim Palmer, Gene Hover, Jerry Thorne, Leroy Coleman and Ray Craig, but will probably do some doctoring in his lineup to get more workable height to throw against Medford later in the season.

Preliminary games at the high school tonight will have the Freshmen against Tulelake B squad at 6 o'clock, and the Wildcats versus Tulelake A team at 7 o'clock. The varsity match starts as soon as the prelims are finished.

At the Barracks Rickys Jewelers and Ashley's Chevrolet of the Basin loop play the prelim, beginning at 7:30, and the Marine-Skymaster game takes the floor about an hour later.

All basketball lovers are invited to come out to the Barracks to see the game and a grade-A tilt is the expectation as the Skymasters are reported to have an even stronger aggregation this year than last when the army squad was one of the best service teams on the coast. Civilians attending the games tonight and tomorrow night may pass through the gate unescorted and plenty of parking room is available at the gym. The road to the Barracks is in good shape now.

Admission to the high school games will be by season tickets or ducats purchased at the box office.

First Fiddle Nag To Beat In Rich Race

ARCADIA, Calif., Jan. 11 (AP)—First Fiddle and Johnny Longden—two of turfdom's top figures at the moment—rate as the team to beat in tomorrow's $50,000-added San Pasqual handicap at Santa Anita park.

A fleet field of some 10 competitors, topped by Mrs. A. L. Rice's Sirde, promise to make it a close race over the mile and one-sixteenth route, but First Fiddle, Mrs. Ed Mulrenan's seven-year-old gray, is the horse to watch.

The "Gray-Ghost," one of the strongest stretch-runners to come along in years, currently ranks 10th among the world's all-time money winners with $325,385. Victory tomorrow — worth at least $40,190 if 10 start — would zoom him to fourth position, behind Whirlaway, Seabiscuit and Sun Beau.

Dark Horse Leading First Round Of S. F. Open

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Dark Horse Chandler Harper, 32-year-old pro from Portsmouth, Va., paced the field today as the country's finest golfers teed off in the second round of the 72-hole San Francisco Open tournament, worth $25,000 in victory bonds to the 20 low scorers. He had a par 71 for the initial eighteen.

Whether Harper's advantage would be continued was questionable but the slender parchaser, regarded as a comer before he went into a three-year stretch with the navy, was able to say he led such link notables as the tournament favorite Byron Nelson of Toledo, O.

Lord Byron, greatest money winner in the history of the sport and seeking his third successive San Francisco Open victory, was two strokes behind, with a 73.

Harper, four-time Virginia Open champion, chalked up a 34-37—71 for his opening round. Par for the 6438-yard Lakeside course, woody, hilly and tricky on the greens, is 35-36—71.

Trampling on the leader's heels were three good ones, national amateur champion, Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, Wash., just back in major competition after army air force service in the Pacific; Herman Barron, White Plains, N. Y., and Harold McSpaden, Sanford, Me. These three had 72's.

McSpaden, second high money winner of the top flight professionals, was one of a small handful who turned the course's first nine in one under par.

While the bulk of the opening day gallery of some 4000 followed the tournament big shot, Nelson, unusual events were taking place in the first round. Among them was the hole in one posted by Jim Ferrier, Chicago, who aced the 133-yard fifteenth hole with a No. 6 iron. Ferrier carded a total 74, thanks partly to his 15th hole feat.

U. S. Open Champion Craig Wood of New York contributed a high light while taking 11 strokes on the par 4 second hole.

Courts May Annul Frankie's Plunge Into New Grid League

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 (AP)—A court fight loomed today whether All-America Halfback Frankie Sinkwich, of Georgia, would play professional football this fall with the Detroit Lions of the National league or the New York Yankees of the newly organized All-America conference.

Sinkwich, voted the NFL's most valuable player in 1944, bolted the Lions yesterday by signing a three-year contract for Dan Topping's Yankees at a salary reported to be $12,000 annually.

The move brought a prompt reaction from Detroit officials who declared they were "prepared to go to court' 'to enforce a two-year contract with Sinkwich which they contend has one year to run because he did not play in 1945 when he was in the army.

"Even if that isn't so (that the Detroit contract has one more year to run) we have an option on Sinkwich's services until Auguest 1," asserted Fred Mandel, owner of the Detroit club.

In Buffalo, at the time, it was announced another former Detroit player, William Kennedy, 215-pound lineman, had signed with the Buffalo All-American team.

These developments took the limelight away from the opening of the National league's three-day annual meeting. It's first day's session found the rules committee recommending several changes.

Chief of these was the suggestion that any forward pass thrown from the end zone and hitting the goal posts be declared an automatic touchback. This happened in the championship playoff game at Cleveland last month and led to a safety, giving Cleveland a 15-14 triumph over Washington.

That wartime plea to auto drivers, "Stay off the highway," has changed to a peacetime warning, "Stay on it!"

Hoop Rivalries Flare In Northern Division

Spot Focused On Eugene Game Between Webfoots And Oregon State Beavers

By The Associated Press

Traditional rivalries flare Saturday night in northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball when Oregon State's Beavers risk their share of first place in a game against Oregon's Webfoots, and Idaho makes the nine-mile jaunt to Pullman to play Washington State.

Washington, which shares undefeated status as leader of the division with OSC, plays a non-conference game tonight with Western Washington college of Bellingham on the Huskies' floor.

Chief interest will focus at Eugene, Oregon, defending champion, won its opener against Idaho last Monday night, but stumbled the next night to lose decisively and give the Vandals their first victory of the season as they wound up their Oregon road jaunt.

Oregon State, on the other hand, trimmed Idaho twice. However, the dope usually goes out the window in these Oregon "civil wars," and what will happen is anybody's guess.

Idaho, with its best prospects in years, came close in its first three losing contests before crashing through impressively against the champs last Tuesday night. The Vandals, perennial division tail-enders, would like nothing better than to upset their neighboring Cougars.

Washington State will have to display much sharper shooting eyes than exhibited last week in losing two to Washington. The Cougars had speed and height, but inability to hit the loop, coupled with oft-times shoddy ball-handling, cost them both games. However the Cougars will be playing on their home floor tomorrow night and they may snap into the form earlier predicted for them.

STANDINGS	Won	Lost
Oregon State	2	0
Washington	2	0
Oregon	1	1
Idaho	1	3
Washington State	0	2

Weekend games:

Friday night — Western Washington college vs. Washington at Seattle. (Non-conference).
