

Klamath Churches Unite In Program Of Bible Teaching

First Methodist, First Presbyterian and Congregational churches of this city have united their efforts in a winter program to make the people of Klamath Falls more acquainted with Bible teachings.

The first series of studies was on the subject "Know Your Bible," conducted by Rev. Godfrey Matthews, pastor of Community Congregational. This series, which was well attended, was recently completed.

The second series conducted by Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., pastor of First Presbyterian has now begun and is on "The Sacraments." The class will be held this Sunday at 7:30 p. m. instead of Tuesday, and if response in attendance warrants, it will be permanently changed to Sunday as a more convenient day.

Members of churches named, as well as the general public, are urged to attend this service of worship and study which will be held Sunday at the First Methodist church.

Topic

"Faith Comes to Our Hearts" will be the topic of Victor A. Schulze, pastor of Zion Lutheran church at morning worship service at 11 o'clock. Special music by the Zion choir directed by M. Bendin will be offered. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m.

Directly following morning worship the voters assembly under the leadership of F. A. Ohlemeyer will meet for its first business session in 1946.

The First Methodist church will hold regular services January 13 with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. under the superintendency of Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, Klamath county health officer. Morning service will commence at 11 a. m. with special music by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Robert P. Craig with Mrs. John O'Connor at the organ console.

Pastor Victor Phillips will preach on the theme, "Confraternal Living." A nursery is maintained in the lower auditorium for the convenience of parents of small children. The Methodist youth fellowship will meet at 8:30 p. m. and welcomes all young people to join them.

Worship

Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor, will be heard at Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent streets, at 11 o'clock worship Sunday morning. He will speak on the subject, "The Place of Children in the Kingdom." The senior choir directed by O. K. Warcup, will offer special selections.

The annual business meeting of the congregation will be held Monday, January 14. A potluck fellowship supper at 7 p. m. with the ladies aid providing rolls, butter, cake and coffee will precede the meeting. Officers will be elected to fill positions as secretary, treasurer, auditing committee, trustees, deacon and deaconess.

Reports will be read and action will be taken on the proposed revised constitution. All voting members are requested to be present.

Wainwright Named 4th Army Commander

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 (AP)—Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, hero of Corregidor, has been named commander of the 4th army, it was learned today.

Wainwright, who has been chief of the eastern defense command, fills a vacancy created by the death of Lt. Gen. Alexander Patch. Headquarters of the 4th is at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

After his return to the United States from a Japanese prison camp, Wainwright went on leave and then took the eastern defense command assignment.

County Council

Increased youth activities in Klamath Falls and its suburbs, keynoted the reports of local unit PTA presidents at the Klamath County Council of PTA, meeting January 7 in the USO lounge. Each unit is sponsoring two or three clubs and furnishing leaders. Projects include playground equipment, lunches and vitamins for needy children, milk funds, improved teachers' rest rooms and athletic and school equipment.

Mrs. Thomas Parker of the Klamath County Public Health association, discussed the need for increased public health consciousness and offered new pamphlets and use of a free file for school at PTA units.

The council plans to hold its Founders Day program February 4 in Mills school auditorium at 2 p. m.

Joseph Conger

The January meeting of the Joseph Conger PTA will be held Wednesday, January 16, at 2:30 p. m. Augusta Parker, principal, has asked Mrs. M. S. Shreeve, president of the Mills PTA and Mrs. L. C. Hornby, president of the Riverside PTA, to be guest speakers. They will speak on the various activities of their units. All parents are invited to attend.

The executive board will meet on the same day at 1:30 p. m. Those who have the study course questionnaires are asked to return them and the answers to Mrs. E. G. Childers.
