

Pels Eke Out Close Victory Over Ashland

By HALE SCARBROUGH
The Pelicans last night made it seven in a row by edging out the Ashland Grizzlies 36-30 before a full house at the KUH5 gymnasium. The Bruins, coached by Frank O'Neill, gave the Pels a scare by taking an early lead. Halftime score was 18-17 for the visitors.

Continual missing of foul shots on the part of the local boys was the difference in the two teams in the first half. The Pels flunked on eight and Ashland missed only two, but in the second half the situation was reversed.

Ray Craig scored the first goal to put Klamath out ahead of the start. Dom Provost, Grizzly forward, retaliated to knot the score. That was his only score of the game. Leroy Coleman sank a long shot and Jim Jandreau sank two foul shots for Ashland, tying the count again.

Gene Hoyer and Craig scored next putting the Pels four points ahead. Jandreau stole the ball from Craig and went for a goal. Cal Hovland added a free toss and Len Williams contributed a beautiful long shot that went through the hoop without grazing the rim, putting the Bruins out in front 9 to 8.

Jandreau scored twice and Coleman once to make the quarter count 13-10.

The Pelican second team of McLean, Linman, Redkey, Edwards and Crawford came in. Bob Redkey sank a foul shot and Tommy Edwards knotted the score again on a fast break.

Jandreau got Ashland ahead on a free toss. Edwards reversed for the Pels on a long shot and McLean added a free toss giving Klamath a two-point lead. Jandreau and Ed Bearse sank charity passes and Jandreau got a goal right back. Redkey's free throw ended the half with Ashland one point to the good.

Third quarter. Pel first team led Coleman's free throw tied the score and another put the K-men ahead. Then the Pelicans began to forge steadily ahead, ringing up 10 points before Ashland scored again. That period ended 32-22.

The last quarter was held by you have for the Pels but Ashland started another spurt upward and both teams threw tactics to the wind in a mad scramble for possession of the ball. Williams and Jerry Thorne went out on fouls.

Ashland has one of the best teams on the local court this season and the game was very fast all the way through. The Grizzlies were accomplished ball-thieves and pulled a few handling stunts that made the Pels seem awkward in comparison.

Jandreau, the Ashland stellar guard, was high scorer with 13 points, 12 of them in the first half. Palmer had nine and Coleman eight for the Pels.

Klamath and scoring: Ashland Palmer (9).....F.....(1) Provost Hoyer (6).....F.....(2) Hovland Thorne (2).....C.....(5) Peterson Coleman (8).....G.....(13) Jandreau Craig (4).....G.....(2) Williams

La Motta Still Contender For Zale's Crown
NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—Jake La Motta still is the No. 1 challenger to the crown held by Middleweight Champion Tony Zale but his concrete jaw is slightly chipped after a furious scrap with Welterweight Tommy Bell.

Although La Motta, the Bronx Rock, earned a unanimous 10-round decision over the flailing Negro from Youngstown, O., the welter gave him a good shaking up and staggered him in the closing rounds of their 10-rounder last night at Madison Square Garden.

It must have been discouraging for Bell who gave away 10½ pounds to La Motta who weighed 161. At least five times he hit Jake hard enough to slow him up, but La Motta bulldozed back for more each time.

The scrap was witnessed by 16,194 customers who paid $74,452.

CHENEY, Wash., Jan. 12 (AP)—With Bob Truckey, Seattle center, leading the score with 17 points, the Eastern Washington College of Education won a fast moving basketball game from the Seattle college quintet, 74-47 here last night.

The Savages from Eastern got off to a slow start, but started a steamroller of scoring after the half, piling up the big advantage by the time the final gun cracked.

Vancouver Beats Globe-Trotters
VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 12 (AP)—A Vancouver basketball team for the first time in ten years whipped the touring Harlem Globe Trotters here last night. The University of British Columbia Thunderbirds defeated the Travellers 42-38.

The game was fiercely contested all the way. Shortly after the half, Pat McGeer put the Thunderbirds ahead 16-15 and they were never headed after that. McGeer led UBC scoring with 14 points.

Medford Gunner Outscores Klamath's Trap Shooters

George Jantzer of near Medford showed up the local gunners at last Sunday's trap shoot at Wocus, blasting 50 for 50 in official shooting and then knocking another 50 straight to show it wasn't an accident.

In the handicap he hit 46 out of 50, leading the way in that event.

Nelson Reed had 48 out of 50, R. W. Stearns and Tom Watters

Joe Lynam Signs For Main Event With Buck Lipscomb

Joe Lynam, the man who lifted Brutal Jack Lipscomb's junior heavy grappling title a few weeks ago, will stake his reputation as one of the most enterprising young rasslers on the circuit but not the crown against Lipscomb in the main event struggle at the armory next Tuesday night.

This will be Lynam's first showing here in a couple of months. He hasn't been here since he won the crown and started being able to name his own price a few weeks ago.

The Redmond, Ore., athlete and ex-sailor is a very clean and likable young muscled, well-schooled in mat tactics. He revolves in great part on lithe, tumbling tactics and not so much on the rough stuff.

Pete Belcastro, the mighty hunter, meets Canadian Herbie Parks in the four-round semifinal. Pete's most recent action was a one-fall win over Gloomy Gust Johnson, and Parks' latest was a draw with Earl Malone, tattooed toughie from Salt Lake City.

Malone will be back Tuesday to tussle with Army Joe Smolinski, a newcomer to the local ring. Their bout is the opener, three rounds or two falls out of three.

An attempt was made to rematch Angelo Martinelli and Jack Lipscomb for the main go, but Brutal Jack preferred to wait a while until the Buckeye Boy's wrath cooled a bit before stepping into the squared circle with him again.

Ironmen Sink Further In Cellar
VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 12 (AP)—The Seattle Ironmen dragged their heels a little farther behind last night, when the Vancouver Canucks whipped them again, 6-3, in a Pacific Coast league hockey game.

With three goals, Bill Carse led the league-leading Canucks. Andy Clovechuk, Bernie Bathgate and Jack Smith netted the rest. Eddie Dartnell scored two for Seattle and Shorty Coombs slammed in the other, the only goal scored in the period.

The End of Old Back Track
It took three days of hunting through waist-deep snows of Idaho woods, but Old Back Track, phantom killer-cougars, finally came to this end. Pat Reed, who killed the big cat, is shown with two of the Walker foxhounds who helped him. Reed, Idaho's modern "Cougar Dave," has slain 121 mountain lions.

Lesnevich Knocks Out Joe Kahut

Oregon Farmer Boy Kisses Canvas Once Before Chill Comes

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 12 (AP)—Gus Lesnevich, the light heavy-weight champion needed only 2 minutes, 45 seconds to dispose of Joe Kahut, of Woodburn, Ore., in his first fight after donning a U. S. coast guard uniform, in a scheduled 10-round bout here last night.

The champ was rugged and fast at 182 pounds, and it was apparent that his 42 months in the service did little damage to his timing. Kahut, winner of 34 of his previous fights, weighed 181 pounds.

Lesnevich essayed a few preliminary left jabs, blocked a few by Kahut before he unwrapped the wickedest right chop ever seen in a Portland ring. It caught Kahut on the jaw and he plopped to the canvas. There had been only a minute and 10 seconds of going. The farmer was down for eight counts.

He staggered to his left and took up a crouch on the ropes, arms covering his face. Lesnevich hit him 42 times without a return. Kahut lashed out once, backed around the ring to a neutral corner, against the ropes again. Lesnevich resumed the attack. The defenseless and groggy Kahut sagged to the floor and was out cold when Referee Nat Fleisher finished the count.

Scratched Nag Hangs Up New World's Record

ARCADIA, Calif., Jan. 12 (AP)—Snow Boots, a four-year-old bay colt, Mrs. A. L. Rice thought wasn't quite good enough for today's $50,000 San Pasqual handicap at Santa Anita, broke the world's record for the mile and one-sixteenth yesterday.

Mrs. Rice and her trainer, C. A. (Slim) Roles, withdrew the son of Stimulus-Guiding Light because she had Sirde and Richmond Jac running today. She put Snow Boots into a $5,000 handicap. He ran the race in 1:41 3/5, or 2/5 second better than the old mark held jointly by Top Row and Bull Reigh.

The chances of the San Pasqual winner equalling this new record are pretty slim.

Yesterday's starter just goes to show that the stable oftentimes doesn't know how good its youngsters are.

Snow Boots led from wire to wire, won by six lengths from Man O'Glory, a right promising four-year-old. Ralph Neves was aboard the winner, which carried 117 pounds. There was a cross-wind that helped and hindered the horse.

The morning line had Snow Boots at 4 to 1 but a fast recent workout impressed the wagers, who backed him to 8 to 5. He paid $4.80 on the front end.

Another DiMag Returning To Civilian Ball

BREMERTON, Wash., Jan. 12 (AP)—Dominic DiMaggio, Boston Red Sox outfielder, steps back into civvies again after 20 months overseas this Sunday.

DiMag gets his discharge from the navy as chief athletic specialist.

He had charge of welfare and recreation at the naval supply depot at Brisbane, Australia and organized a ball team he said "won everything in sight down under." Later he was stationed at Subic Bay and participated in the army-navy "world series" at Pearl Harbor in 1944.

Tanned and in fine shape at 174 pounds, the 27-year-old bespectacled big leaguer said he would go to his home in San Francisco after he is discharged, would "probably report to the Red Sox this year."

SCORES LAXITY
NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—Francis Ouimet, chairman of the championship committee of the U. S. Golf association, today strongly scored the laxity which he said had crept into wartime golf and warned that from this point on the rules of the game must be strictly adhered to in events sponsored by the USGA.

Since 1830, more than 8000 Gloucester seamen have perished at the oars of dories swept out of sight of parent fishing schooners.

"Go ahead—look in the book. It doesn't say a word about it!"

Byron Nelson Out In Front By Four Strokes At Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12 (AP)—Byron Nelson held a commanding four-stroke lead today going into the third round of the San Francisco Open golf tournament.

Bad luck or brilliant play by any one of the crack players trailing him might easily wipe out Nelson's margin but, in view of the steady game he has been playing, particularly yesterday's spectacular one-under

Puget Sound Raps Linfield In Close Game

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Jan. 12 (AP)—Anybody's game until the last minute, the rough and tumble first northwest conference tilt for both teams here finally wound up 43-41 with the College of Puget Sound winning over Linfield last night.

Nip and tuck all the way, a last minute basket barely gave CPS the edge after the count was tied 11-all midway through the first period, 23-all at the half, and 35-all at the three-quarter time.

Denchman, CPS forward, dumped in the winning bucket in the final few seconds of play. He ran up 20 points during the evening to take high scoring honors.

The game was rough, with 31 fouls called, 18 on Puget Sound.

Marines Tip Army Flyers By 28-27

By PHILIP SCHWAB
The Marines won on a breath-taking finish from the Fairfield-Suisun Army Skymasters last night, 28-27, making three times that army teams from Vallejo have come to draw a little more than a year of rivalry in sports.

On the Marine Barracks basketball court tonight the Leathernecks play the final game with the Skymasters, starting about 8 o'clock.

A preliminary is slated between Oregon Woolen and the Barracks corpsmen, beginning promptly at 7.

All cage fans are invited to see the games at the barracks tonight, free of charge.

After trailing 12-13 at the half, the Marines took a quick lead on two field goals by Zautcke and one by Kelling. The Skymasters, displaying crack ball handling in spots, went to work on that lead and pulled to within one point before Paul Adams sank three field goals in rapid succession on long set shots to give the Marines what appeared to be a comfortable lead with four minutes remaining.

But Seigal and Morgan counted for the Army before the Marine stalling game drew several fouls. Adams, Marine floor captain, elected to take the ball out of bounds each time.

"Schnoz" Lambert, Leatherneck center, drew a double-shot foul and sank the first attempt to provide the margin of victory.

The security was short lived, however, for with one-half second of play remaining, Dailey, Army forward, was awarded a foul over when the stocky lieutenant stepped to the free throw line lead character in one of those "hero-heel" situations.

Standing all alone on the floor Dailey shot and the attempt bounced into the arm, back to rim and off into the court, while several hundred Marine fans in attendance went wild.

High point man for the evening was Adams with 8, followed by Dailey and Longere for Fairfield with 7 each.
