

Jobs Daughters Install Officers

The mid-winter Jobs Daughters installation service was an event of Sunday, December 20, at the Masonic Temple.

In a Christmas setting of tall white tapers, pine boughs, pine cones, poinsettias, and mammoth red bows, the new officers for the ensuing six months officially took over their duties.

Officers installed in the candlelight service were Honored Queen Sally Mueller, Senior Princess Lynden King, Junior Princess Marilyn O'Neill, guide, Mary Lou Case; marshal, Dorothea Cogdill; musician, Barbara Zinn; chaplain, Mary O'Brien; treasurer, Joan O'Neill; recorder, Barbara Roskamp; librarian, Ruth Merrill; first messenger, Betty Clegg; second messenger, Joyce Sample; third messenger, Mary Lou Stanbery; fourth messenger, Carmen Lee Jones; fifth messenger, Connie Hunt; senior custodian, Jeanne Hamilton; junior custodian, Charlotte Carter; inner guard, Nancy Humble, and outer guard, Ann Reeves.

Installing officers were Lois Cada, queen; Maxine Liskey, marshal; Betty Merrill, guide; Joy Kent, recorder; Merlon Albrecht, chaplain; Marcelyn Wiggins, musician; Ann Mueller, senior custodian; and Dorothea Ellingson, junior custodian. All were home from school for the holidays.

Following the ceremony, a dance for Jobs Daughters and their guests was held, with music furnished by Evans' orchestra.

Nile Club

The Klamath Nile club met for 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday in the Pelican party room with Mrs. Walter Brown, president, presiding. The hostesses, Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. Bert Miller, Mrs. Sanford Selby and Mrs. Herman Gisvold, used attractive decorations of tangerines, huckleberry greens and green candles. Mrs. Marshall Cornett gave an interesting account of the East-West game which she witnessed New Year's Day in San Francisco.

Cards were played during the afternoon with high score held by Mrs. Myrtle C. Adams, low by Mrs. Harry Wayne, and the guest award going to Mrs. Paul Matthews.

Delta Kappa

Alpha chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, met at the home of Mrs. Irene Foster, 1218 Crescent, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Borghild Mehlen, high school librarian and a member of the society, gave an excellent book review of Thomas Costain's "The Black Rose," an historical novel of the thirteenth century. "The Black Rose" has held first place as a best seller since early October.

President Olive Wilson appointed Mrs. Geraldine Owsley, Irma Wauchope, and Eva Burkhalter to write a letter to "Vogue" magazine requesting them to devote a part of an issue on fashions for teachers.

Miss Augusta Parker led the group in the singing of the society songs.

Coffee was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Stella Bowne, Mrs. Nell Olson, and Augusta Parker.

Mrs. Harry Bathiany of Harbor, who spent the holidays here with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Crawford of Lakeshore drive, left recently for Oakland, Calif., for a brief stay. She will also visit her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bathiany and young son, at Martinez, before returning to her home on the Oregon coast.

Tells Of Trip

Members of the Soroptimist club were privileged to listen to Olive Cornett tell of her recent trip to Washington D. C. Mrs. Cornett is a member of the club and she was introduced by Rose Poole, program chairman. One of the highlights of Mrs. Cornett's trip was to meet with the Soroptimist club in Washington D. C., and hear a talk given by a war correspondent, recently from the Italian theater of war. She went sightseeing in many of the government buildings, including the archives. She attended the meetings of the house and senate, as well as a joint session.

Mrs. Cornett expressed her belief that it is the duty of citizens of the country to take more interest in government by asking questions or by stating views on matters of interest.

President Kathleen Thompson presided. She reminded the members that the first Soroptimist club was organized at Oakland, Calif., in 1921. Now the club is international with clubs in Europe and Asia.

A letter to the club from O. C. Howell, M. D., superintendent of the Swansea General and Eye hospital in Glam., England, expressing appreciation for the assistance given, was read by Isabelle Brixner.

Secretary Alice Howard announced that twin clubs were organized January 12 in the northwest, one at Lewiston, Montana, the other at Newport, Wash.

Church Rites

In a simple ceremony read at the home of the Rev. David Barnett of the Presbyterian church, Lila Karvonen, daughter of Mrs. Matt Karvonen of Portland, became the bride of William H. McMann of Coos Bay, December 15.

The bride wore a lime sult with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. The couple left for a short trip to California after the ceremony. They will reside in Klamath Falls for the present.

Mrs. McMann is a home economics teacher at Klamath Union high school.

The bridegroom was recently discharged from the navy.

Lt. and Mrs. Calvin Lamb are expected here this weekend to visit with Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb, 327 Lincoln. They will remain for a time until Lt. Lamb's plans for the future are completed. He is now on terminal leave from the United States army air corps. Dr. and Mrs. Lamb spent New Year holiday in San Francisco, guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Capt. and Mrs. Vance Trout. They attended the East-West game. Lt. and Mrs. Lamb joined them over the weekend.

Joy LaVerne Wright of Berkeley, Calif. arrived Friday to attend the wedding of her brother, George A. Wright, and Catherine Jackson, Saturday evening in the First Methodist church.

Kiwanis Club Installs Friday

Subdued lighting effects helped provide a pleasing atmosphere for the annual Kiwanis installation dinner dance, held Friday evening at the Willard hotel. Indirect lights, many candles, and four colored spotlights in the corners, were arranged by the committee in charge of this annual affair which placed L. Orth Sisemore in the club's presidential chair.

Lt. Governor Ernest Kofoid of Medford installed Mr. Sisemore and other officers of the club. A feature of the program was a tribute to returned veterans who are members of the club, conducted by Past President John Houston, and ending with all present joining hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Charles Mack, president as master of ceremonies. Music for the dancing was provided by the Evans orchestra.

Mayor and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas served as the reception committee at the door.

Members of the committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Don Cram, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kaup, Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward.

In addition to Mr. Sisemore, officers of the service club for the coming year are Charles Mack, vice president; Henry E. Perkins, secretary; Bert C.
