

Committee Heads Named By Club

The no-host luncheon preceding the regular meeting of Sojourners last Wednesday at the Willard hotel turned into a farewell party for Mrs. Melvin Bakke, Mrs. F. A. Murphy, president, presented Mrs. Bakke with a corsage and in a few well chosen words told of the work she had done for the club.

The meeting was held in the banquet room of the Willard with Mrs. Murphy presiding. At that time committees for the coming six months were appointed. They are as follows: Mrs. D. W. Rice, hospitality; Mrs. E. J. Howell, calling; Mrs. Eric Majors, cards, and Mrs. C. B. Larkin, publicity. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. T. J. O'Dwyer, Mrs. Dexter Elliott, Mrs. F. X. Sexton, Mrs. G. E. Walters, Mrs. D. F. Hagg, and Mrs. L. W. Mills. Mrs. J. C. Argetsinger, Mrs. E. C. Connell, Mrs. H. R. Tatum and Mrs. Larry Watkins were welcomed as new members.

Awards in bridge for the afternoon went to Mrs. Larry Watkins and Mrs. Clara Horstman and the pinocchio award went to Mrs. Allen Fletcher. Mrs. W. D. Miller was hostess for the affair.

With the coming of 1946, Sojourners begins its ninth year as a club. It started from a group of 12 women interested in making newcomers feel at home, and has grown into an organization of many times that number. However, the primary purpose of the club remains intact. It is under the sponsorship of the Klamath County chamber of commerce and the management of the Willard hotel has graciously given a room for the meetings which are held the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. Officers are elected bi-annually.

Newcomers are welcome to Sojourners whether invited or contacted by a member. Being a purely social affair only a small fee is charged upon registration at each meeting. The money goes into the general fund to defray expenses. Teas, dances and picnics are some of the club's activities. After attending three meetings, a membership card is given, then, "Once a Sojourner—always a Sojourner."

A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. Margaret Shulmire Monday, January 7, at the home of Mrs. Carrie Shulmire, 283 1/2 B Street. The evening was spent playing pinocchio. High score and traveling award went to Mrs. Gladys Nelson. Second high went to Mrs. Jo Williams. Guests were Mrs. Neata Shulmire, Mrs. Gladys Nelson, Mrs. Jo Williams, Mrs. Esther Hoefler, Mrs. Sarah Michael, Mrs. Alice Hurley, and the honor guest, Mrs. Margaret Shulmire, who opened her gifts during the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Joyce, Wanda and Carrie Shulmire.

Mrs. LeRoy Carter will entertain next Wednesday at her home on South 6th street for members of TNT bridge club.

Ruth Circle

The Ruth circle of the Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid met January 3, at the home of Mrs. Hilding Nelson, Riverview addition. The meeting was opened with the singing of the hymn, "Silent Night," after which devotions were conducted by the Rev. S. M. Topness. Readings, "Christmas in Ambroembe" and "Christmas in Zululand" were given by Mrs. Arthur Breitenstein and Mrs. H. Nelson. The group then sang, "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The Ruth circle will have charge of the nursery at the church at morning worship during the month of January. Mrs. Arthur Breitenstein and Mrs. L. R. Hickey were elected as members of the reading project committee. Lunch was served by the hostess.

January Bride

Freda V. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller of 1113 Upham, became the bride of Clifford L. Stone, 634 E. Main, Saturday, January 5, at the Methodist parsonage in Medford, Ore.

They were attended by Lois Stone, sister of the bridegroom, and Melvin Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone left for an extended trip in California after the ceremony. They will make their home at 1334 Oak.

The Miriam circle of Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Elton H. Thompson, 1234 Pacific Terrace, on Thursday last week. Pastor S. M. Topness had charge of devotions. The members present responded to roll call by the secretary by quoting Bible passages. A chapter on "Mary, the Mother of Jesus," from the book, "Women of the Bible" by Lundstrom, was read by Mrs. L. E. Taylor. A reading project was discussed and will be acted on at the next meeting January 29, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Topness, 2036 Leroy street. Lunch was served by the hostess.

St. Paul's Women's auxiliary met January 3 at the home of Mrs. Roy Lee to hear the annual reports of the group. Following the business meeting Ruth Hill spoke on YWCA matters and proposed activities for the center here. Mrs. Lee served tea to the twelve who attended.

LT. EDWARD P. GODDARD of this city and his bride, the former Emma Lou Stander of Utah, were married November 17 in Tremonton.

Wed In Utah

Of interest to his friends and acquaintances here is word of the marriage of Lt. (jg) Edward P. Goddard, MC USNR, and Emma Lou Stander, which was an event of November 17. He is the son of Mrs. Dora Goddard, 424 Mt. Whitney.

Vows were exchanged at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Fred Gephart, at Tremonton, Utah. The bride was given away by her father, David S. Stander, President C. E. Smith of the Latter Day Saints church officiated and Dr. Thomas Burns was best man and Delma Flowers, bridesmaid. The wedding march was played by Elaine Halling.

The bride wore the traditional white satin with sweetheart neckline edged in rows of tiny pearls and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom wore the uniform of the navy. After a brief stay at home he reported to his commanding officer at San Francisco and shipped out on the USS Rawlings on November 22.

While Lt. Goddard is serving overseas, Mrs. Goddard will be at home at 1245 24th street, Ogden, Utah.

Members Present Monday's Program

Pointers on what constitutes a good club member and how to get the most out of BPW were given by Isabelle Brixner, program chairman and parliamentary, and Dena Backes at Monday evening's dinner meeting, January 7, of the Business and Professional Women's club at the Willard hotel.

Joanne Girovich of Bonanza presented a list of hints on public speaking, and introduced four Bonanza high school girls—Helen Gowen, Billie DeVaul, Lila Jean Driscoll and Elda Ayers—who personified the four parts of a good speech.

Martha McCollum gave a short talk entitled "Right or Wrong — Let's Do It," in which she urged all members to take part and speak up at the meetings.

In regard to the club's clothing for Greece project, Dorothy Ackerman announced that each package is allowed 11 pounds, and that she can supply labels for shipping.

A letter was read from Mildred Luzz, a former member, now at Las Vegas, Nev., in which she wrote, "I think there's no other club in the U. S. having as much sincerity and friendship as the one in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Buzaid's address in Las Vegas is 214 S. 17th St.

Reports were made by Bertha Geiger, treasurer, who announced a membership to date of 112; by Lorraine Quillen who told of the highly successful BPW day last Sunday, January 6, at the USO center; by Twyla Ferguson, newly appointed chairman of the YWCA committee who outlined results of the last meeting and by Dena Backes who announced the opening of the infantile paralysis fund drive on Monday, January 14.

It was also announced that Gwen Everitt has accepted the post of co-chairman with Agnes Geddes on publications, and that the first meeting of the Fun club will take place on Wednesday evening, January 16, in the girls' gym at KUHS. All women interested in playing indoor games, such as ping pong, table tennis, or dancing, are invited to these gatherings which will be held weekly.

Initiation of new members and the emblem ceremony will take place at the next meeting of BPW, scheduled for January 21.

Martha Shops and Shops

Studio Will Design Hat-Hair Styles

PATRONS OF BEAUTY are invited to bring their new hats with them . . . when they want a different hair style . . . thus giving the operator an opportunity to co-ordinate coiffure and chapeau.

The cart-before-the-horse system . . . that is, the hair style before the hat . . . should eventually be a thing of the past . . . through efforts of a Coiffure Creation Council, sponsored by two national associations, which will work with designers to create hair-dos for new hats before they go on the market.

But until then . . . Fern SHORT of the STUDIO OF BEAUTY . . . located on the mezzanine in Whytal's . . . suggests that we can do our own co-ordinating . . . by having our hair styles designed particularly for our hats.

Long's Receives Debonair Shorties

LONG'S has received a new selection of the debonair, three-quarter coats . . . of worsted serge . . . that are so comfortable for wearing over suits . . . and ideal later as a spring topcoat.

Commanding attention are the boxy flaps . . . slit back . . . and flap pockets . . . and colors include aqua, gold, brown and gray. A shipment of this same casual in winter white and black is expected most any day.

There's an assortment of other shorties at Long's . . . but these are the very latest . . . and are going out fast.

When you drop in to the store . . . Martha suggests that you don't overlook the odds-and-ends' tables . . . of bags, costume jewelry . . . sweaters, . . . hats . . .

During the January clearance at LONG'S APPAREL . . . 719 Main.

Whytal's Garment Line Outstanding

WHYTAL'S carries the Gossard H&W lines in foundation garments . . . for that smooth look . . . so while in the store the other day, Martha asked about girdles for slight figures.

Wanda Speer showed me a choice of four . . . obtainable in smalls, mediums and large. Carrying the H&W trademark is a 15-inch length girdle . . . made of a substantial, rayon fabric . . . with bonded diaphragm, slide fastener, four garters . . . for $7.50 . . . and a neat semi-stylin . . . fashioned of heavy satin with side hooks . . . priced at $5.00.

In the Gossard "line of beauty" is a comfortable looking pantie girdle of satin . . . with elastic insets at the side . . . also $5.00 . . . and an inexpensive one-way stretch elastic garment . . . for only $2.50.

Also, "while there, I picked up some 'nightie' news. The store has had a fair-sized shipment of polka dot and flowered rayon gowns . . . designed a little on the audacious side . . . in sizes from 32 through 40 . . . At WHYTAL'S . . . in the Medical-Dental Building . . . corner of Ninth and Main.

Market Arrivals Ideal For Suppers

SCANNING the shelves in the PINE STREET MARKET yesterday . . . Martha noticed a number of new arrivals that are ideal for Sunday night suppers . . . or snacks.

There's Philadelphia Canned Scrapple, slice and fry . . . make it crisp on both sides . . . Norwegian style Smoked Sardines from Maine . . . jars of Boned Turkey that goes a long way when creamed . . . both Turkey and Chicken spreads . . . always handy to have in the pantry.

For you cheese connoisseurs . . . there's some more of that K a u k a u n a Klub Hickory Smoked cheese . . . and Liederkrantz Ripening cheese . . .

At the PINE STREET MARKET . . . corner of Seventh and Pine . . . where there's two de-liveries daily.

Your Store Gets Irish Linen Cloths

REAL IRISH LINEN damask tablecloths . . . ordered a year ago . . . have finally reached YOUR STORE.

Just a hint, of course, but that pride on your gift list will adore one . . . such linens being practically impossible to obtain during the war years.

This shipment includes a few 72 by 90-inch dinner cloths . . . in three patterns . . . and four sizes of luncheon cloths . . . 34 by 54 inches, 63 by 63, 54 by 72 and 63 by 72 . . . but they do not have napkins . . .

YOUR STORE, Inc. . . . 721 Main . . . also has some of the beautiful handmade luncheon sets from Madeira . . . and Chinese hand-embroidered cloths . . . that make unequalled gifts.

Hormone Cream Found At Currin's

ALWAYS intrigued by the variety of Helena Rubinstein cosmetics at CURRIN'S . . . Martha asked Connie Baert this week about the Estrogenic Hormone Cream . . . and its purpose.

"Use this cream and keep your age a secret," said Connie. Helena Rubinstein's scientific preparations can be relied on to help your complexion . . . and this particular cream contains natural estrogenic hormones . . . the equivalent of a substance abundant in youth but decreasing with the years.

These hormones are absorbed by the skin to help retard the appearance of aging . . . so I'm certainly going to try
