Attend Meet

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Blanche Barker and Mrs. Fred Cofer attended the special meeting of the Rebekah assembly and the Grand lodge of the IOOF held in Roseburg Saturday, January 12, returning to Klamath Falls on Sunday. The meeting was held in the IOOF hall and was attended by 50 officers of the different branches. Among them were R. Henry Anderson, grand patriarch of the assembly, and Mrs. Anderson.

The purpose of the meeting was to confirm the assembly degree on past noble grands, and there were present 34 who received this degree.

On Saturday evening members of the IOOF served a turkey dinner to the guests, and after the meeting an interesting program was presented. On Sunday morning Ethel Bailey, president of the Rebekah assembly, the wife of the grand master and the wife of the grand conductor were hostesses at a breakfast served to 35 before they returned to their respective homes.

Dinner Guests

Claude E. Yeo was honored at a dinner recently at the home of his parents, 828 High street. He has just returned from Europe where he served with the 755th railway shop battalion for 23 months. He was a staff sergeant and wore the ETO, American Theater, and Victory ribbons, Good Conduct medal and four battle stars.

Present at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Simmons and daughters, Janet and Roberta of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Abbey of Oakland, Mrs. Mike Petroff, Betty O'Leary, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. LaLiberte, and Yeo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rowe.

Mr. Yeo will remain in Klamath Falls for some time before returning to his position with the Southern Pacific at Sacramento.

Merrill Group

MERRILL—Tuesday evening of last week was the regular chapter night for Women of the Moose, Chapter 18, of Merrill. Two candidates, Vivian Storey and Inez Sherrell, were initiated. Anna Hartlerode, chairman of the Academy of Friendship, gave the chapter night program. Two vocal selections were given by Kay Blake.

All standing committees gave their reports. Mrs. Hobbs reported a successful executive meeting at her home January 2. After the business session, refreshments were served.

It was announced there would be a friendship members' luncheon at the home of Esther Seavey on January 25. Bessie Aubrey will be hostess to Women of the Moose at a pinochle party January 18, at 2 p. m. Senior Regent Margaret Fields reported the women would sponsor a public card party to aid the "March of Dimes," infantile paralysis fund. The date will be announced at the next meeting, January 22.

Keno Party

KENO—A party was given for two Keno boys, Richard Heublein and Leroy Osborne on New Year's eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heublein. Games were played until midnight when refreshments were served as the New Year came in.

Klamath Youth Weds In South

A wedding of interest here took place Sunday morning, January 6, at Clayton, New Mexico, when Chester Musselman, formerly of Klamath Falls, took as his bride Thelma Lee Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wood of Clayton.

The ceremony was read at 9 o'clock by the Rev. C. Paul Rich, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends of the couple. Mrs. O. R. Brandon sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Donna Lou Spinelli who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The attendants were Mozelle Wood, sister of the bride, and Lewis Gibbs.

The Wood home was attractively decorated with flowers for the wedding service. An improvised altar in the archway was draped with deep red velvet against which white candles burned. Pink and white snapdragons and pale yellow callendulas with heather formed the background for the bridal party.

Immediately after the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast. The young couple cut their three tiered cake.

The bride wore a steel blue ensemble with brown accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. Her sister, Mozelle, wore brown with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The new Mrs. Musselman was graduated from Seton School of Nursing at Colorado Springs, Colorado and has been on various hospital staffs since that time.

Mr. Musselman, son of Mrs. Victor Orewiler of Smith River, California, was graduated from Klamath Union high school and attended Linfield college at McMinnville, Oregon, before joining the army air force in June, 1941. He was recently discharged after serving in the Pacific and Panama theaters with the AAF for four and one-half years.

The young couple will make Klamath Falls their home and Mr. Musselman will be affiliated with the Great Northern railway here.

Family to Remain Here—Lt. Wilbur V. Charters, USNR, who has been stationed at the Marine Barracks, has received orders to report to Washington D. C., and leaves today, Wednesday, for the east. Mrs. Charters and young son will remain at their home here, 1813 Birch.

Circles Named

The four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met in the church parlors Thursday for dessert at 1:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the afternoon were the newly-elected officers of the general society. The circles will now be known by name instead of numbers, and Mrs. Calvin Hunt is chairman of the Ruth circle, formerly No. 1; Mrs. J. C. Gillispie of Esther circle, formerly No. 2; Mrs. Lawrence Baker, Martha circle, formerly No. 3, and Mrs. E. W. Moberg, Rebecca circle, formerly No. 4.

Mrs. George Casper conducted the general devotions and the study hour on "Africa" was in charge of Mrs. John Yaden and Mrs. Victor Phillips. The Rev. Victor Phillips installed the new circle officers and gave a short talk upon their responsibilities to the church and its work. The circles then held their separate business meetings before adjourning.

Recent Visitor Here—Mrs. Burt Schultz, now making her home in San Jose, California, visited here one day last week as the guest of Mrs. Sylvia McClelland, 1942 Arthur. Mrs. Schultz plans to return in March when her daughters, Barbara and Marjorie, will have a spring vacation from their studies at San Jose State college.

Ye Olde Pinochle club met Thursday, January 10, at the home of Esther Adkisson of 1536 Oregon, for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock followed by cards. Grace Bock held high score, Fannie Goddard second, Kathryn Billings low, and the pinochle award was received by Agnace Lowe. There was one guest, Mrs. Petrick. Kathryn Billings of the Keno route will be hostess on January 24.

Empress Josephine of France was born Marie Rose Josephine Tascher de la Pagerie.
