100-Year-Old Indian Urges World Peace

SADDLE MOUNTAIN, Okla., Jan. 16 (AP)—Hunting Horse, Kiowa chief who scouted for General Custer in the 1870's, started a second century of life today with the hope that "just as the white man and the Indian found peace" the people of the world can live in harmony.

His plea for peace was made during celebration of his 100th birthday yesterday at his Wichita mountain home near here. Nearly 100 guests were present.

Patio is a Spanish word meaning an inner court or enclosed space open to the sky.
