The northern division Pacific coast conference basketball race, paced by Oregon State with Washington's Huskies only half a game behind, is expected to be a close one.

Washington will play Oregon at Eugene Friday and Saturday, with the conference leaders meeting Idaho at Moscow the same day.

Washington led all the way against the Vandals, although the second half was close until the Vandals broke up their defense in the final eight minutes in an effort to crack the Huskies "frezer" on the ball. The half-time count was 30-24. Jack Pomfret of Washington was high point man with 19 points, 12 of them in the 1st half. Mortensen's 14 was the best Idaho performance. Norm Dealthorp counted 16 and Le Don Henson 18 for the Huskies.

The Beavers took good advantage of superior height to defeat Oregon. The Webfoots opened the scoring with a gift toss and OSC immediately countered with a field goal. The Beavers kept the lead from there on, and closed out the first half with a 28-22 edge. Big Red Rocha paced the OSC attack, with 21 points.

Oregon's best effort was early in the second half when the Webfoots closed the gap to 31-30 and 34-33 but the Beavers stepped up the pace and won going away.

Northern Icers Stop Canucks

By The Associated Press
The San Diego Skyhawks winning streak was broken and the two northern division Canadian teams went down to defeat by the Portland Eagles and the Seattle Ironmen in Coast league hockey games last night.

Two goals by wingman Fred Keating within a minute midway in the last stanza helped the Hollywood Wolves force a 3 to 1 win over the San Diego Hawks on their home ice. The loss snapped the Skyhawks winning streak at four straight and enabled the Wolves to pull into a tie for second place in the southern division with the losers.

Also fixing a tie for themselves, up in the northern division, the Portland Eagles defeated the New Westminster Royals 3 to 2 at Portland. Both teams drew five penalties in the rough and tumble third period, with Dutch Evers drawing a match penalty with only six seconds of play remaining.

At Seattle, the usually tail-end Ironmen bobbed up with a tidy 5 to 3 win over the Vancouver Canucks, just jarring the Canadians' hold on the league lead.

Eddie Dartnell scored two spectacular third period solo goals, the first breaking a 3-3 tie and the second clinching the verdict for the Ironmen.

Both teams' goalies counted on a full quota of hot stops, with Vancouver's McAneeley having 19 saves to 24 for Alf Rollins of Seattle.

Tony Penna Wins $2000 Tournament

RICHMOND, Calif., Jan. 21 (AP)—Little Tony Penna, colorful Dayton, O., professional golfer and winner of the Richmond Open, pocketed $2000 in Victory bonds today and headed for Phoenix, next stop on the winter tournament circuit.

Penna led a fast field to the fire in the final lap of the Richmond 72-hole, posting a total of 280. He was tied for second on the opening day and moved out in front in the second round, when he uncorked a dazzling 65, six under par, and the best 18-hole score during the four days. Penna put together rounds 69-63-73-73 for his 280.

The final round produced a thrilling climax when Penna, needing a birdie 4 to win, rolled in a putt of about six feet. He was the last to finish among those with a chance to win top money.

Three stars, Sam Byrd, Detroit, Mark Fry, Oakland, Calif., and Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., were deadlocked with a chance for first at 281 when 38-year-old Penna dropped his winning putt. He had lofted a 75-yard approach into position.

This was his first major tournament win since the Kansas Open in 1938, the year he took third in the U. S. Open. Penna is in the surge of a comeback and will be one of those to watch in the Arizona event.

Beginning this year he tied for 13th in the Los Angeles Open, winning $273.33. After that he tied for eighth in the San Francisco Open, earning $800, both payoffs in Victory bonds.

Byrd, Fry and Hogan each collected $1011 in bonds for their second place tie at 281 at Richmond.

Charles Congdon, Tacoma, Wash., took fifth prize, $666 in bonds, with his 282.

The Defending Champion Sam Snead, Hot Springs, Va., in spite of a final two-under-par 69, deadlocked at 289 with Amateur Tal Smith, Alameda, Calif.

Byrds, Spokane, ex-national Open winner, was completely out of it with 297.

Just Plain Tired, Nelson Takes Rest
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 21 (AP)—Byron Nelson, who admits he's "tired" after chalking up consecutive wins in the Texas, Los Angeles and San Francisco Open golf tournaments, said today he's going to take a much-earned rest but that in about three weeks he hopes to be back in competition.

Passing up the Richmond Open, Nelson stopped over here en route to his home in Toledo, O., for a business trip and a physical check-up.

"There's nothing particularly wrong with me," he said. "I'm just tired. I expect to be off the tournaments for about three weeks. I'll probably pick up the boys again in Texas, if not in New Orleans."

"Then I'll play until early in April when I'm going to Africa. I'll be back from there in plenty of time for the National Open at Cleveland in June."

Jockey Westrope Denied '46 License
ARCADIA, Calif., Jan. 21 (AP)—Stewards of Santa Anita race track have turned thumbs down on Jockey Jackie Westrope's application for a 1946 license.

In a letter to the California Horse Racing Board, the stewards said Westrope's past infractions of the rules have been detrimental to the best interests of racing and of the public.

Westrope was set down last year by the board for asserted rough riding at Del Mar during the August meeting.

Clinches Win

Leroy Coleman, Pelican starting guard, sank two baskets in the overtime period to clinch Saturday night's win over the Salem Vikings, 29-24. Count was 27-all at the end of the regular playing time. (Evergreen photo).

Mexican Miss Set For Battle

Black-haired, fiery Rita Martinez and blonde, stolid Clara Mortensen will scrap it out for the position of logical contender for the women's world's ransling toga, should there ever be a clearing of the present muddled situation in that sector, on the armory mat Tuesday night.

Clara already has one hand on the title, sharing in the dispute with Mildred Burke of Kansas City, but Rita is still in the runner-up stage. The Mexican Miss generally confines her mat activity to Los Angeles and vicinity.

This bout will be an added feature to Tuesday's star-studded six-bout card.

Clara's big brother, Leo, is coming along also and bears a hand in the proceedings Tuesday night in the semi-final with Brutal Jack Lipscomb. Buck is much chagrined over being relegated to fighting other than main events, but since Joe Lynam lifted his coast junior heavy title Buck is no longer writing his own duct.

Jumping Joe will appear against Pete Belcastro in the main go, and Bulldog Jackson meets Herbie Parks in the opener, rounding out the extra-length card.

This may be Old Bulldog's last fight in this neck of the woods. Now that hunting season is over and he no longer has Klamath's ducks and geese to amuse himself with between fights he has decided to head on back to Detroit.

Pels Snatch 35-29 Win In Overtime

K-Men Catch Salem After Trailing Until Final Minutes Of Game

By JOHN LARSON

After trailing the Salem Vikings for 30 minutes Saturday night the Pelicans finally caught up and went on to win 35-29 in an overtime period, sweeping the two-lie series in a thrilling finish as has been seen on the KUHS court in a long time.

At the end of the regular playing time the score was knotted at 27-all.

For the Pels it was do or die while time ran out in the fourth quarter. With two minutes to go and on the low end of a 24-22 count, Jerry Thorne connected with his first goal of the evening to tie the score and a moment later sank another to put the Pels ahead. Gene Hover added a free toss.

But the Vikings came right back. Dasch rang one from the center of the floor and Fitzmaurice's charity shot knotted the count with nine seconds to go. Score 27-27.

In the overtime Leroy Coleman made two baskets, Palmer got a free throw and Hover a free toss and basket. Mason scored for Salem and the game ended.

The game started slow and Salem had a seven-point lead before the Pels connected and at the half the Vikings led 12-9. In the third period the Pels tied the score momentarily at 12-12 but never got in the lead.

Forty-seven personal fouls slowed the game down and also accounted for 20 points on free throws. Salem made 11 of 22 and Klamath 10 of 15 in 25 tries. Jim Palmer topped the scoring with 17 points and Roger Dasch got 12 for Salem.

Lineups and scoring:
Klamath Pos. Salem Palmer (12) F (1) Bellinger Hover (6) F (2) Fitzmaurice Thorne (4) C (7) Mason Craig (1) G (12) Dasch Coleman (5) G (2) Chamberlain

Substitutes: Klamath—Crawford (1), Zarozinski, Linman, Busman, McLean, Redkey (1), Edwards, Salem—Alberts, Houck (2), Province (2), H. Bellinger, Hendrie (1), Officials—Joe LaClair, Harold Douglas and Dr. G. I. Wright.

In a preliminary tussle the KUHS Wildcats trampled Henley 32-15. Don Cassun and Charles Heilbronner divided scoring honors with 7 points each.

Kahut's Brother Has Fistic Ambitions
PORTLAND, Jan. 21 (AP)—Younger brothers of Joe Kahut and Tommy Moyer—two of Oregon's topnotch fighters—will make their fistic debuts at the March of Dimes golden gloves tourney here January 23-25.

Joe and Tony Kahut have been supervising workouts of Eddie, their 15-year-old brother, who weighs 150 pounds. Tony has shied away from ring appearances since his discharge from the navy and now is boxing instructor for the Woodburn American Legion post.

Larry Moyer, 14, younger brother of Tommy Moyer, also has signed for the tournament. He weighs 148.

Chandler Suggests Bringing Negro Loops Onto Diamond

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 21 (AP)—Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler says all baseball, including even the amateurs, should be under one head. He also reveals that negro diamond leaders have discussed the question of reorganizing their leagues on a basis that would permit their entry into organized baseball.

Here to speak at a sports achievement banquet, the commissioner at a press conference, disclosed that the presidents of the two negro leagues had conferred with him, President Ford Frick of the National league and President Will Harridge of the American league.

Chandler said these conferences were at the request of the negro league presidents and his revelation came in reply to a question regarding the signing of Jackie Robinson, a negro, to a Montreal, International league, contract.

Chandler said he was asked if he also would be commissioner for the negro leagues. "I told them to get their house in order then come to baseball with a petition for recognition," Chandler declared.
