10 Girl Scout Troops Formed

Out of a total of 29 Girl Scout troops in the Klamath area, 10 were newly organized in 1945. Florence McConahey, executive secretary, reported at the annual meeting of the Girl Scout council last night.

The committee elected new officers for this year. Mrs. Roy Carter is the new commissioner, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, first deputy commissioner; Mrs. L. A. Murphy, second deputy; Mrs. R. H. Radcliffe, secretary, and Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, treasurer. Mrs. H. S. Stone was elected to the membership nominating committee.

Miss McConahey added that during the year, 75 leaders and eight troop committee members received special training in leadership, and two council members attended national training classes in Portland.

Lakeview Man Given Medal By President

O. C. Gibbs of Lakeview was among 54 selective service board members who received medals from President Truman yesterday in recognition of the work of the nation's draft boards.

The draft board chairmen were chosen by lot a month ago. Mrs. Gibbs accompanied her husband to Washington.

New Employee—Mrs. William Sweet, the former Gale Motley, has taken a position with the U. S. bureau of reclamation as stenographer. Her husband has recently been discharged from the U. S. army.
