Dairy

Dorwin E. Grise QM 2/c, who enlisted in the navy April, 1943, expects to change his navy blues for civilian clothes in February and return to his home in Dairy. He took boot training at Farragut, Ida., and remained there as instructor the winter of 1944. Later he served sea duty on the carrier Wasp where he saw action in the Pacific until V-J Day. After that the Wasp was converted to a troop carrier and he made two trips with her, one to Italy and one to England. The Wasp will soon go into drydock. Grise reported a big storm on the Atlantic and found his duty on the trips very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lannie Shopton, Mrs. Doris Adams and son Milton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolb.

Carl Prough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Prough of East Dairy, has returned home from service in the navy in the South Pacific.

Why is this sauce the Western favorite?
LET'S ASK THE WOMEN WHO COOK WITH DEL MONTE!

Yes, Del Monte Tomato Sauce has been the grand old cooking sauce of western housewives, for years! Was their favorite—is their favorite!

And even during the war, when it was hard to get, they didn't forget it. Certainly not!

How do we know? Well, one of America's largest independent research organizations went out and asked them.

And what did Del Monte users say about Del Monte Tomato Sauce? Plenty! Two out of three women preferring Del Monte have used it over 10 years. Listen to Mrs. Brock, for instance:

"There's no tomato flavor like it to me!"
— Says MRS. W. L. BROCK, 2117 SANTA YNEZ STREET, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Have you used this sauce a long time, Mrs. Brock?
dependable—always good and always the same.

Do you cook for a family now?
"Only four of us now, but I brought up five children. My boys are still in the service, and they're really anxious for some of 'Mom's cooking!' One dish they'll ask for is barbecued spareribs. We all like the way Del Monte Tomato Sauce peps up plain meats. And I use it in many other ways, too. In fact, when I want tomato flavor, it's Del Monte Tomato Sauce for me!"

Just what do you like about its flavor?
"Well, it's a nice clear flavor—a genuine tomato flavor without too much spicing. When Del Monte was scarce, I had to use whatever sauces I could find. But I really like Del Monte best. It is very

20 years a family favorite! Just try Mrs. Brock's recipe

BARBECUED SPARERIBS

3 to 4 lbs. pork spareribs or lean beef shortribs
3 cans Del Monte Tomato Sauce
1 cup vinegar
3 tps. sugar
1 medium sized onion, minced

1 clove garlic, minced
2 or 3 small, pickled red chili peppers, minced
Salt and pepper to taste
1 tbs. Worcestershire Sauce
1 cup hot water

Arrange the meat in a good-sized baking pan. Combine remaining ingredients in a saucepan and simmer until slightly thickened, about 15 minutes. Pour over the meat and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until the meat is tender, about 3 hours. Do not cover. Add a little water if needed but the richness of the sauce should not be too greatly thinned. Extra good served with hot buttered hominy and a green salad. Serves 5 to 7.

Del Monte TOMATO SAUCE

Just be sure it's
