

Klamath Girl Weds In Corvallis

A wedding of interest here took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, January 19, when Muriel White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving W. White of the Spring Lake district, became the bride of Donald E. Johnson at the Alpha Delta Pi sorority house on the Oregon State college campus at Corvallis. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson of Hibbing, Minnesota.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a black and white dressmaker suit with a small black hat and carried an orchid with her great-grandmother's Bible.

Sojourners

Sojourners held a meeting Wednesday, January 23, in the banquet room of the Willard hotel. Mrs. F. A. Murphy, president, presided over a short business meeting.

At this time, Mrs. Dexter Elliott was introduced as a new member. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. A. P. Anderson, Mrs. John Rice, Mrs. F. A. Skinner, Mrs. Gilbert Walters, and Mrs. Leslie R. Jenkins of Portland.

Mrs. K. N. Moty was hostess and gave bridge awards to Mrs. F. A. Murphy and Mrs. C. B. Larkin. The pinocchio award was given to Mrs. E. J. Howell.

Sojourners meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 1:45 in the Willard. Each meeting is preceded by a no-host luncheon at 12:30 in the hotel dining room. All newcomers to Klamath Falls are urged to come. The next regular meeting will be February 13.

Anniversary

A dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jenkins on their golden wedding anniversary was held at their home, 2028 Vine, on Sunday, January 20.

Centered on the table was a large, elaborately decorated anniversary cake.

Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Benson, their daughter and son-in-law, Jack Simms, a grandson recently returned from service, and Dan Masset, a friend of the family.

Two other children, Mrs. Cecilia Simms of Riverside, Calif., and Harry Jenkins, who is living in Nebraska, were not present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins were married 50 years ago in Troy, Kansas. They moved to Klamath Falls three years ago from Nebraska.

Juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met in the KC hall Monday, January 21, at 4 p. m. In the absence of the guardian neighbor, Harriet Lavenik, past guardian neighbor, presided. Games followed the regular business meeting, and Stella Dryden, senior guardian, served refreshments.

The week prior to her marriage, the bride was honored with a canned foods shower by the girls living at Delta Chi house. Later a set of dishes was presented to Muriel by the group.

WEDNESDAY CLUB of St. Paul's Episcopal church, organized many years ago by Mrs. J. Henry Thomas, now of Berkeley, California, continues as one of the most active groups among the younger married women. Left to right, Mrs. E. B. Goeckner, last year's president; Mrs. Roy Whytal, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Donald F. McKay, 1946 president, and Mrs. George Flitcraft, vice president.

Wedding Vows Exchanged Friday

Tall white tapers and bouquets of lilies and white carnations formed the setting for the early evening wedding, Friday, January 18, of June Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril V. Cook of Chiloquin, formerly of Klamath Falls, to Earl Jones, son of Mrs. Jennie Jones of Klamath Falls.

The ceremony was read by Paul Skeen, elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in the city library club-room.

The bride chose an aqua blue suit with black accessories. She wore a large, single purple orchid at the shoulder.

Her attendant was Agnes Winters, who wore a gray and brown dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Best man was Bill Jones, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception was held by the immediate families of the couple and a group of close friends, following the ceremony.

Mrs. Jones was graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1944, and is now employed as a secretary in the office of Klamath Theatres.

The bridegroom was recently discharged from the army air corps and is a draftsman for Klamath Machine and Locomotive.

They are at home at the Walnut apartments.
