

Third-Quarter Dash Gives Pels 36-34 Victory

The Klamath Pelicans overcame a 19 to 10 half time deficit last night on the KUHS maple by staging a spirited second half rally to overwhelm the Grants Pass Cavemen 36 to 34 in a Southern Oregon conference cage tilt.

The Cavemen forged to an early lead on two successive long-toms by Bertrand and Everton before Craig broke the ice for Klamath with a looping one-hander. Coleman tallied twice and Palmer once for the Pelicans during the first quarter and the period ended with the score deadlocked at eight-all.

Grants Pass ran wild in the second stanza to ring up 11 points while holding the Pelicans to two charity tosses and the end of the half found the Cavemen out in front, 19 to 10.

The latter part of the ball game was an entirely different story, however, with the K-men going on a third period scoring spree of 17 counters. The Cavemen were able to collect only eight points, enabling the Pelicans to knot the count at 27 to 27.

The final frame was the payoff as the Red-and-White hit the bucket for nine points on field goals by Craig, Hover and Coleman and a gift flip by Palmer. Grants Pass threatened all the way and a last-chance heave by Bertrand failed by an eyelash.

The fast-break offensive of the Klamath five began functioning smoothly in the last half as Hover, Craig and Palmer drove in for easy set-up shots with the Grants Pass defense caught flat-footed.

The men in the striped shirts restrained themselves admirably last night from too zealous tooting of their whistles and the result was a well-played and speedy ball game that had the fans sitting on the edge of their chairs. Personal fouls were evenly divided with 12 called on Klamath and 11 on Grants Pass.

Palmer and Everton shared high-scoring honors for the game with 11 each and Coleman and Lutz racked up nine points apiece.

The two clubs will resume their rivalry tonight on the KUHS hardwood at 8:15 o'clock with a preliminary tilt slated between the Wildcats and Chilquilt at 7 p. m.

New Photo Of You

God lifted off your sins and put them on Christ. Then God put on over you his own eternal righteousness. Sins forever off and his own righteousness forever on. So God's new photo of you shows you a sinless being, all in glorious raiment. This is how he sees you from the instant you lay hold on Christ as having died for your sins. But until then your sins stand against you. See BIBLE, 2 Cor. 5:21.

But you still slip. You are to yourself like the sheep in the hog wallow. Still a sheep but out of place. After serving Christ half a century, the beloved Apostle John felt the same. Said he—"If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." 1 John 1:8. And he says to get back into step. Confess your sin, take forgiveness. And in it all God never quits us for he that has begun a good work in us will go on in it against the day when Christ comes to take us to Himself. See Phil. 1:6.

Jesus paid it all. All to Him I owe. Sin had left its crimson stain. He washed it white as snow.

Idaho Rips OSC Out Of Lead

Huskies Defeat Ducks 57-46 And Take Over Division Top Spot

By The Associated Press

Standings:	W.	L.
Washington	5	2
Oregon State	4	2
Idaho	4	4
Oregon	2	4
Washington State	1	4

A University of Idaho basketball gang got its fist in the northern division machinery last night and twisted the Oregon State cogs entirely out of shape, a neat little trick that boosted the University of Washington to the driver's seat.

But Idaho didn't wallop OSC 42 to 37 just as a favor to Washington's Huskies, who were crushing Oregon at the same time 57 to 46, or just for the satisfaction of kicking the defeated Beavers down into second place. The triumph left Idaho firmly entrenched in third spot, a game and a half back of Washington and just a tilt below their victims.

While Idaho was turning in the neat trick of the week, Washington ran wild against an Oregon team that is ready to swear today its basket was wearing a lid. The division's defending champions got only two less shots at the hoop than did Washington—76 to 78—but could squeeze only 17 all the way through while 22 goals swishes the twine for Washington.

Girls Tiff Remains Uncertain

Whether the girl grapplers will come back to Klamath for a mat rematch next Tuesday is still a matter of speculation but if they do the set-up will be about the same as last week's armory bout.

Three bouts are already lined up. Joe Lynam and Buck Lipscomb occupy the top spot, six rounds or two out of three falls; Pete Belcastro and Pierre LaBelle in the semi, four rounds, and Herbie Parks and Chester Hayes in the opener of three cantoes.

A glance over the bill of fare reveals that in the six grapplers named above there are three who have authentic claim to titles in various championship brackets. Lynam's is the coast junior heavy toga, Parks' laurels are Canadian and Hayes' championship lei is Hawaiian.

The reason for the holdup on the girls is not that they don't like Klamath Falls but that they, particularly Miss Mortensen, are asking too much money. Promoter Mack Lillard signals that she practically wants an option on the armory.

Rita Martinez apparently isn't so hard to get along with and there is still another girl on the circuit now, Betty McCoy, so something may be worked out.

NEW YORK—Chalky Wright, 134½, Los Angeles, outpointed Pedro Firpo, 132½, Camden, N. J., (10). Lee Milito, 129½, New York, outpointed Oscar Lewis, 136, Newark, N. J., (6).

Marines Win 11th Straight, Topping Willamette 31-27

The Leathernecks made it eleven straight last night with a 31-27 win over Willamette university at the barracks gym in a slow, cautious ball game.

Bearcats opened the scoring and led for the first five minutes of play but the locals took over with an 8-7 count and held the lead on in though the margin of safety was never more than six points. The score at haltime was 18-15 in favor of the Marines.

Paul Adams opened the scoring in the second half with a long set shot, Zautcke added two field goals and a free toss and Adams counted again with his long shot. The remainder of the final period dragged by with very little offensive push being displayed at any time by either team.

It was the first appearance in nearly three weeks for Barbour, Willamette captain, whose sprained ankle obviously was still bothering him last night.

Zautcke walked away with scoring honors with 14 points but it was the brilliant and amusing defensive play of little Art Verment, Marine forward, that made the evening gay. The five foot
