GMC — PONTIAC
SALES—and SERVICE

Increasing sales in the Klamath Falls trading area, with proportionate increasing of tonnage, has necessitated the crasse of a new 10-ton GMC truck to addition of a new 10-ton GMC truck to Wadhams' fleet of transportation. Wadhams and Company have standardized hams and Company have standardized on GMC equipment for some years past. This firm is an Oregon Pioneer wholesaler grocery concern, having been established in 1888, with head offices in Portland. In 1941, Wadhams opened a new branch at Klamath Falls to better serve the trade requirements in this area, and at that time a new and modern warehouse was built by Heilbronner and Robinson at Market and Elm, for their exclusive occupancy. Robert Payne is the manager of the local unit.
