

760 Vets Unemployed In County

There are approximately 760 unemployed veterans in Klamath county at the present time, Jack Almeter, manager of the United States employment service office said today.

This figure was computed from the best information available at the office, from which it was also estimated that 3000 men from this county have been discharged since the end of the war.

During December, 1945, 323 veterans registered for employment, Almeter said, and in January, 1946, they registered at the rate of 15 to 20 per day. Some of the men discharged are going back to school or to prewar jobs and some are enjoying a voluntary rest period before going back to work. These, of course, are not included in the number of estimated unemployed, as they have never registered for employment.

Besides veterans, a number of other citizens are also on the non-working list and applying for unemployment compensation, as was expected when war plants closed down. Many of these civilians were in the non-working class before the war and are glad to take a back seat now the younger men are coming home, Almeter said.

Slack Period
The major industries in the area, lumber and agriculture, being at a slack period, now also contribute to the unemployment situation. Industrial expansion in the district is for the most part dependent on materials and favorable weather, and although an ambitious construction program is planned, construction is still being held up by weather, reconversion and strikes and agricultural work cannot progress until freezing danger is past.

A trend toward greater employment is expected, however, about March and April, Almeter said.

Ranger Given Job Promotion

Acting Forest Supervisor H. E. Pyles of the Modoc national forest, announced last week the promotion and assignment of District Ranger Byron B. Beattie to the regional office, division of personnel management, in San Francisco. Beattie has been the district ranger of the Happy Camp district with headquarters at Canby, for almost two years. His new assignment will be largely in the field of training fire personnel for which he has had considerable previous experience.

James E. Sowder, returning from military furlough, is being assigned to fill the district ranger vacancy at Canby. He is expected to assume his new duties by February 4. Prior to entering the navy June 7, 1943, Sowder was administrative assistant in the Alturas office of the Modoc forest. In a way, Sowder is "going back home" in that he occupied the Happy Camp ranger position prior to his assignment as administrative assistant.

PFC Robustelli Receives Discharge

PFC Richard Robustelli of Klamath Falls is home with a discharge after 26 months in the service with overseas duty in Italy.

Robustelli spent six and one-half months on the frontlines as a rifleman, but escaped injury. He saw action in the Po valley, northern Apennines and the Rome-Arno areas.

While in Italy, Robustelli paid a visit to a brother of Otto Sari, Klamath restaurateur. For 45 days Sari's brother and his wife lived in an air raid shelter, little more than a hole in the ground, getting out only occasionally at night. The family escaped unscathed.

Robustelli trained with the 65th division and went overseas as a replacement with the 34th division.

SON-IN-LAW AND DAD ARE REGULAR

No More Constipation Now—They Eat Famous Cereal

Constipated? Harsh laxatives rot you feeling down? Then read this sincere, unsolicited letter:

"I was troubled with constipation for years—until I started eating an ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day. Never have any trouble now. Told my father-in-law about it. Now he takes ALL-BRAN and has the same results as I do. He is 82 years young." N. Dawson, 15 Beverly Street, Methuen, Mass.

If your trouble is constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet, you may never have to take another laxative—if you eat an ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day and drink plenty of water. Try it for ten days. If not completely satisfied, send the empty carton to Kellogg's of Battle Creek and get double your money back. ALL-BRAN is not a purgative. It's one of nature's finest sources of gentle-acting bulk, which helps promote normal laxation! It's a wholesome cereal made from the vital outer layers of wheat. Eat ALL-BRAN every day either as a cereal or in muffins.

Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg's of Battle Creek and Omaha.

Buddies Contribute To Memorial Fund

Yeoman 1/c Dale M. Mathis of the coast guard presents Carrol B. Howe (left), Henley principal, with an $800 check presented by shipmates of James O. McKeehan (insert) who lost his life in the Pacific. The money will be added to other donations to create a monument for Henley men who died in World War II.

$800 Collected By Buddies Of Dead Henley Boy Added To Fund To Erect Monument

A check for $800, the money collected by the shipmates of a Henley boy who died in the Pacific, has been added to a fund now being collected to erect a monument in memory of the seven boys of that community who lost their lives in the war.

The check was turned over to Carrol Howe, principal of Henley school by Yeoman 1/c Dale M. Mathis who was in the coast guard outfit overseas with James O. McKeehan of Henley.

McKeehan was killed while landing supplies on Baker island in the South Pacific September 19, 1944. He was knocked overboard from a landing boat in heavy seas and his body never recovered.

Members of the coast guard unit contributed the $800 and turned it over to Mathis with instructions to see that it was used as a memorial to McKeehan, who was very popular in his outfit.

Mathis was returned to the United States in December and came here to deliver the money on his way home to Denver, Colo., on leave.

The check was made out to S. E. Enman, treasurer of the committee arranging the monument which is to be placed in front of Henley school.

In addition to McKeehan, former students who lost their lives in the war are Bob Cameron who was killed on Guadalcanal, Charles Semon with the paratroops in Normandy, Bob Hamilton at Kasserine pass, North

Offer Made By Newsmen

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 29 (AP)—A Texas newspaperman must want to get into the mail order butter business, Police Bureau Recorder Harry Ludington believed today.

Ludington said a letter from Henry Edwards, Troup, Texas, Weekly Banner manager, offered to mail a pound of butter to the Tacoma, housewife who phoned Portland police and asked if butter buying prospects were worth driving the 180 miles to Portland.

Edwards asked for her address, explaining he read about the woman's plight in an Associated Press news report. The pound of butter "will cost her 60 cents, plus postage," Edwards wrote, adding "P. S. We are serious."

Two Killed By Gunfire

YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 29 (AP)—A man and a woman were killed, and another man was wounded last night, as shots were fired in a basement room of a Yakima home.

The dead are Glen Willard Collicott, 27, and Mrs. Bernice Johnson Setness, 25, both shot through the heart.

Willard Sanford, brother-in-law of Collicott, was wounded in the chest and left arm, but crawled from the scene of the shooting to his car and drove to the home of a neighbor who called police.

Investigating police said Sanford told them Collicott had been keeping company with Mrs. Setness. He said both had been previously married, and both had two children.

Police said Sanford, under treatment in a hospital, told them that Collicott turned the gun on himself after shooting Mrs. Setness and Sanford, the shooting occurred at the home of Ben. F. Johnson, 66, father of Mrs. Setness, while her two children were upstairs in the house.

Housing Units Will Be Moved

PORTLAND, Jan. 29 (AP)—Vacant units from the Gullid's Lake Housing project here probably will be moved "in a couple of months" to Eugene and Corvallis, the Oregonian said today.

The newspaper said E. S. Foster of the regional federal housing administration reported in a telephone call from Seattle that the Gullid's Lake houses probably would fill requests for 100 units at the University of Oregon and 150 units at Oregon State college.

Removal would simultaneously clear a Gullid's Lake site for construction of asphalt and chain plants. Foster said the moving would be financed by the FHIA; sites and utilities furnished by the educational institutions.

TOP O' THE TANK FERMENTATION GIVES

Columbia Ale

IT'S UNUSUAL, DISTINCTLY-DIFFERENT

Texture

Just as you can feel the fine texture of silk so can you taste the lighter, more-delicate "Top o' The Tank Texture" of Columbia Ale.

If you are one of the many thousands who enjoy Columbia Ale, but have wondered how it got its delightfully different "texture," perhaps we can explain.

A completely different method of fermentation is employed in the brewing of Columbia Ale. A highly-cultured, unusual-acting type of surface or "top" yeast, is used to activate the brew. Unlike other yeasts, this variety floats buoyantly at the top of the tank and the fermenting action is downward from the top, rather than upward from the bottom.

This distinctly different method of fermentation results in the distinctly different "texture" of Columbia Ale, the lighter, smoother, more delicate "Top o' The Tank Texture" which so many enjoy but find difficult to explain.

If you are not among the thousands who enjoy this unusual beverage try a bottle today. Sip it at your favorite tavern, or take a few bottles home. You'll find it delightful before, or with, dinner, on summer outings, or at bedtime. Your guests will enjoy it, too.

All taverns, beverage stores and grocers carry it for your pleasure.
