

Sportsmen Here Back Salmon Bill

By HALE SCARBROUGH
The Klamath-Modoc chapter, Izak Walton league, is thinking over a proposal to fight for the controversial House Bill 378—commonly known as the "steel-head bill"—which will probably go on a referendum at the next general election.

The bill is a critical measure to conserve salmon and allow the coast streams to be used for spawning, and actually doesn't effect waters on this side of the Cascades.

Commercial fishing interests have fought against the bill, which would limit salmon-catch to not prohibit it, all the way through the river and state and are continuing to campaign to have it voted down on the ballot.

Last Saturday the Oregon Wildlife Federation, of which the local Izak Walton chapter has become a member, decided to actively push for passage of the measure and last night Klamath sportsmen heard a proposal by John B. Ebinger that Izak Walton league members here be assessed $1 each to go into a war chest to help put the bill across.

Last year, Ebinger said, the state fish commission did not receive enough poundage fees from commercial fishing to pay its strict administrative costs, so it's imperative that if the salmon be allowed to use the streams to spawn and multiply on there'll be none left for sport anglers.

Work on the migratory deer problem is coming along satisfactorily to all concerned, Frank McCornack, who has been active in studying the problem with Oregon and California officials, told the Izak Walton gathering, and by May the survey now being conducted in the Modoc feeding area will be complete.

McCornack is going out next month to try to determine the number of deer wintering between here and Lakeview. The total has already been estimated at 2000.

The chapter last night also voted to favor the reappointment of Ted Conn to the state game commission, although the Lakeview man was on the plan here for his stand on the deer kill when he first went on the commission.

Conn's attitude toward deer has moderated considerably, the chapter was told, and he is now one of the two experienced men on the commission at a time when that body is preparing to spend $1,800,000 on a postwar program.

Governor Snell has said that he intended to reappoint Conn.

Ken McLeod is the new president of the Klamath-Modoc chapter. Hal Ogle was chosen vice president; Fred Southwell, treasurer; Al Hatton, secretary; Clarence Miller, Lloyd Low and Dayton E. Van Vactor, directors.

The by-laws were amended to include the past president and one additional director on the governing board, making 11 in all.

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 29 (AP)—Oregon State college moved into a first place tie with Washington in northern division basketball standings last night as they defeated Washington State 50 to 48.

Despite repeated attacks by the great Gale Bishop, the Beavers nudged out a last-five-second victory by Bob Bayless, a second string WSC forward intercepted an Oregon State pass, dribbled the length of the floor, then missed an easy setup with no one near him just as the gun ended the game.

The victorious Beavers ganged up on the mighty Bishop, swarming all over him every time he got the ball, and cut his scoring top down to eight points.

The game got off to a good Cougar start, with the Washington State men grabbing an early 21-9 lead. The Beavers chewed this down to a halftime difference of 27-22 with WSC still in front, again the Beavers chopped their way forward, holding the marker to a 30-30 tie. When there was a scant ten minutes of game left, the score was again tied 40-40.

The OSC gang took the scoring lead from then on, never going behind again.

Three Gridiron Giants Play In LA Coliseum

Rams, Southern Cal And USC Are In And A Fourth Entry Seeking Dates

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29 (AP)—Three football teams — the National Pro League Champion Rams, USC and UCLA — were set for three years in Memorial Coliseum and a fourth, the local All-American Conference club, feuded on the fence today as the coliseum commission met to allocate dates for next fall.

Only the customary signatures were needed to legalize contracts for the three successful applicants, and Edward (Slip) Madigan, general manager of the All-American Pros, was prepared to use full Irish eloquence to get his club's bid out of limbo.

Madigan disclosed yesterday that the All-Americans has requested eight Sunday playing dates and submitted a $10,000 check with their application.

The Rams—first pros to crash the coliseum's sacred portals—and the two universities each will have at least six playing dates next fall. That means a minimum of 18 football games in the 103,000-capacity stadium.

None of the dates requested by Madigan's club conflicts with those already allotted. The question facing the commission, its president, Leonard J. Roach observed, was whether eight more games can be put in the coliseum without reaching the saturation point in attendance.

USC and UCLA for the first time have stricken the pro-exclusion clause from their contracts, but are not believed eager to let two play-for-pay locals in on the Gravy Bowl so soon.

As in the Rams' case, the schoolmen and the commission may want to have a lengthy huddle before deciding on the

"Mitt Master" Bill Dickey Out For Another Season With Yanks

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—The expected six-way battle for the regular catching berth of the New York Yankees, billed as one of the highlights of the Larry MacPhail sponsored Florida-Panama spring junket, appears to have fizzled out today before it could even get started.

All because the "mitt master," better known as Bill Dickey of Little Rock, Ark., has decided to do the man's and pad again. Discharged from the navy on January 15, and dressed in civilian clothes, Bill appeared at the Yankee office yesterday and said modestly he "hoped to regain his catching job."

The highly elated MacPhail said "Dickey is my No. 1 catcher."

The 38-year-old star has been the regular receiver for the Yankees for 15 years and during that time played a prominent role in bringing nine pennants and eight world championships to the Bronx Bombers.

Holder of numerous records, the tall ex-lieutenant-commander caught 100 or more games 13 consecutive years, was selected on the American league all-star team annually from 1933 to 1945 except 1935, and appeared in 83 world series games. This last, however, is not a record.

Dickey's desire for action after two years in the navy where he played very little baseball, came as a surprise. It was rumored he was in line for a managerial berth in the Yankee minor league chain, possibly with Newark in the International league.

Dickey is expected to sign at the salary of $20,000 he received in 1945, the year he batted .351 in 85 games.

Dickey plans to leave for the Yankee training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla., February 23. Pointing to his neatly pressed brown suit, he explained "This is the same suit I wore just before going into the service and it still fits perfectly. I'm already at my playing weight of 185 and I expect to have about two full months of training before the season starts."

He added, however, he was not going to join the "GI special" making a February 9-March 3 junket to Panama.

Oh, yes, those six Yankee aspirants for the regular catching berth are (or should it be were) Ken Sears, Mike Garbarok, Rollie Hemsley, Aaron Robinson, Bill Drescher and Ken Silvestri.

'46 Fish Rulings Definite

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 29 (AP)—Oregon's 1946 fishing regulations, little changed from the tentative plan drawn up two weeks ago, were announced today by the state game commission.

The general trout season will run from April 20-Oct. 31, with the same bag limit as last year: 13 fish or 15 pounds and 1 fish daily; possession limit, 30 pounds and 1 fish. In Lake county the open season will be May 20-Oct. 31; in Harney county, May 4-Oct. 31.

Winter fishing of trout 10 inches and over in the coastal waters will be halted about Feb. 8, the commission said.

Salmon, steelhead, Jack salmon, striped bass, shad and sturgeon may be caught the year around except in waters which are closed or open only at specific seasons. Spiny-rayed fish—except for black bass in Klamath county, prohibited during May and June—will have a continuous open season.

The commission added three more streams to the closed list: Ennis, Martin and Goose creeks, all McKenzie river tributaries. The bag limit for East Lake, Deschutes county, was left at 10 fish instead of being cut, as planned two weeks ago, to five.

Biologists will be assigned to study East, Paulina, and Diamond lakes, and Owyhee reservoir.

Keno Splits Pair With Dorris High

KENO—A good sized crowd saw Keno boys play two games with boys of Dorris high school in the Keno gym on last Wednesday evening, January 23. Keno's junior high team won over Dorris high's "B" team by 17 to 6.

The team is made up of the following boys: Odie Elder, Bob Dennison, Delmer Lopley, Louis Magallanes, Richard Osborne, with Eddie Zarosinski, Clarence Welch and Arlen Moore substituting.

The "Wasps," Keno's town team, lost a game with Dorris high "A" team. Members of the Wasps are two Wilkins boys, Bob Glasspole, Don Ringler, Ralph Osborne and Darrell St. Louis.

On Friday night the junior high team lost their game with Sacred Heart academy.

Seattle Man Taking Over Public Track

SEATTLE, Jan. 29 (AP)—Al Hardy, wartime dollar a year man for the government, and $75 a day man for Seattle's Longsight race track, leaves this week for Vancouver, B. C., where he takes over supervision of what is probably the only race track in America where the public is the majority stockholder.

Al will be (A) general manager, (B) director of racing and (C) presiding steward at the newly organized, British Columbia turf and country club.

The club boasts such promoters as Charley Howard, who made Seabiscuit famous and vice versa; groaner Bing Crosby, who did all right for himself without any help from his horses, and G. L. "Pat" Fraser, well-to-do Vancouver attorney.

They, along with a varied assortment of some 30 Hollywoodians, own $200,000 of the stock in the track, which is capitalized at a cool million. Another one hundred grand is socked away in the club treasury.

But $700,000 was subscribed by the public, along with the usual voting privileges, so Joe the cab driver and Minnie the housekeeper can swing their weight around at board meetings just as much as Howard, Crosby, Fraser and the retinue of Hollywoodians.

As a matter of fact, the public had oversubscribed the issue by half, or $1,400,000, even before the date the stock went on sale, so all bidders had to take half as much as they'd sought in order to make the stock go around.

The top-notch ten-pin tossers of the Lady Bug league were back on the home alleys Thursday night after spending last weekend in Portland. Some high, some low scores were made in the city, the Class A keggers placed fourth in the team event, Class C placed third in team event. In the individual contests, Flo Ann Eaton and her partner from Medford placed second in doubles, although Flo hasn't seen any prize money yet.

A meeting of the State league was held, with all leagues in the state represented. Astoria was decided upon as the locale for the 1946 state tournament for ladies. Date to be set later.

On the Klamath Recreation alleys Thursday night Hazel's Beauty shop five defeated Fluhner's in two hard-won games and Daggett's Insurance took two from the Crater hotel.

Safeway held third place spot again this week, but it was close as Coca Cola dropped them for two games and kept moving up after a long climb from the bottom. Houston's gained on the leaders by taking the measure of Black and White.

Wickhorst Sees Bears On Top Rung

BERKELEY, Calif., Jan. 29 (AP)—Frank H. Wickhorst stepped into the head football coach job at the University of California today and said he had his eyes on the top rung of the national ladder for the Golden Bears.

The new coach will use the T-formation and a few other schemes instead of relying solely on the pre-war single wing, he announced.

Wickhorst, who bossed the California line from 1931 to 1942, when he entered active service with the navy, has been signed under a three-year contract, the university's associated students executive committee announced last night. Salary was not disclosed.

He is now a navy commander on terminal leave, but is taking over immediately, succeeding Buck Shaw, former Santa Clara university coach who took the California job for one year only before going over to the San Francisco club of the All-American Professional Football league.

Clint Evans, university general manager, said Wickhorst's choice was unanimous in both the student executive committee and the athletic advisory board.

Forty-Six Schools Invited To Tourney

Forty-six invitations have been sent to high schools in 11 southern Oregon counties to take part in the annual basketball tourney held at Ashland.

March 6, 7, 8 and 9 have been definitely set as the dates for the invitational meet.

Hogan Pockets $1500 Phoenix Prize Money

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 29 (AP)—William Benjamin Hogan was en route to Tucson, Ariz., today with the Phoenix Open golf crown on his head and the $1500 first prize money in his pocket.

The little shotmaker from Hershey, Pa., made his putter behave yesterday and that, combined with his driving ability, proved too much for Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, who had to be content with the $1000 second prize. Both are entered in the $7500 Tucson Open which starts Friday.

In an 18-hole playoff for the Phoenix title, the first of the Professional Golfers association 1946 winter tour, the 37-year-old Hogan went around the Phoenix Country club in 35-33 to fashion a three-under-par 68. The best the 30-year-old Keiser could produce was a 34-36—70.

Bonanza Wins, Loses League Encounters

Although Hayes of Henley dominated both the offensive and defensive playing on the floor, the Bonanza Merchants beat Henley 29-24 in a Basin league game at Bonanza last week.

Hayes carried away scoring honors by garnering six field goals, 12 points. Keller and Horsley had seven each for Bonanza. Friday night at Bonanza the Merchants fell before Rickys Jewelers 29-22 in a Basin loop encounter.
