

Woman's Society Meets January 24

The January meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church was held in the church parlors Thursday, January 24. Miss Miriam Smyth conducted the study group at 10:30 a. m. and there was a sack lunch at noon, followed by a meeting of the executive board at 1 p. m. The prayer circle, under Mrs. John Yadon, was exceptionally well attended.

At 2 p. m. the general meeting opened with the president, Mrs. Earl Redman, in charge. Miss Smyth, secretary of missionary education, gave an interesting talk upon the two magazines, "World Outlook" and "Methodist Women," and announced an award of $5 to the circle obtaining the most subscriptions before the March meeting. Mrs. L. A. Brannan read a letter of thanks from the Harwood school for girls at Albuquerque, N. M., for the box of personal gifts sent at Christmas.

Mrs. Walter Herndon, spiritual life chairman, announced that the cottage prayer meetings would continue. Mrs. Redman announced her membership committee for the year. Mrs. D. A. Kenyon and Mrs. Moss will be co-chairmen, and Mrs. William Withrow, Mrs. L. A. Barker, and Mrs. G. W. Gilchrist will serve as committee members. Members of the publicity committee will be Mrs. Bruce Binkley, Mrs. Wesley McNeer and Mrs. A. G. Proctor.

The theme of the year's work is "Peace Through His Cross," and this was carried out in the devotional service, conducted by Mrs. Walter Herndon. Inspirational material on this subject was given by Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. George Casper and Mrs. John Yadon, and Mrs. Taylor sang "Spirit of Love."

Mrs. Windham, program chairman, announced the program for the afternoon. A playlet on the same theme was presented by Mrs. Windham, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. John Riach, Mrs. Cowman, Mrs. Barnstable, Miss Smyth, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. W. A. Carleton and Mrs. L. K. Phelps and Mrs. Joseph Rickes, soloist, sang appropriate selections during the play.

Tea was served by the Ruth circle; Mrs. Glenn Kent, chairman of the tea, was assisted by Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. Joe Kennedy and Mrs. A. C. Proctor and Mrs. Calvin Hunt,
