

City Briefs

Speaker—Mrs. Eugenia Coates will be missionary speaker at the Church of the Nazarene, Garden and Martin streets, at 7:30 p. m. this Friday. Mrs. Coates has had 27 years in Guatemala serving as superintendent of Nazarene Bible school at Caban, Guatemala. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Fred Weatherford, president of the Oregon-Pacific district of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. The public is invited to hear this interesting speaker.

Basin Men Discharged—Wilton G. Brisbane, R 3/c; Wilton C. Champlin, Sp. 1/c; Lowell H. Paup, SK 3/c; Harlo J. Perrin, TM 2/c, Klamath Falls; Carl V. Wyss, SC 1/c, Lakeview; Earl B. Thorpe, SC 1/c, Fort Klamath, all received honorable discharges from the navy January 25.

To Meet—Members of Delta Kappa Gamma will meet Saturday, February 2, at the home of Mrs. Irene Foster, 1218 Crescent, at 2 p. m. Rev. Godfrey Matthews will discuss conditions and problems of the schools in England and Rev. F. C. Wissenbach of the schools in Germany and France.

In Portland—Rod Cozad, right-of-way man for the Oregon State highway department, is now in Portland where he plans to enter a hospital for medical treatment. Cozad left here the first of the year for his home in Canyon City when he became ill. Gary Cozad, his uncle, accompanied him north.

Annual Meeting—The Big Lake Employees Federal Credit union will hold its fourth annual meeting at the American Legion hall in the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m., Saturday. A program and refreshments will follow the business meeting.

From Brookings—Sidney Abbott and Pete Lemmeister, both formerly of Klamath Falls where they lived for many years were here Wednesday from Brookings where they operate lily bulb farms.

Advanced Spanish Class—The second in the new series of classes in advanced Spanish for adults will be held in Room 204 of Klamath Union high school tonight at 7 o'clock.

Ill—Mildred Williams, secretary at the Girl Scout office, has been ill at her home, 611 Addison, for the past two days.

Extension Unit News

Lucy Lane, clothing specialist of Oregon State college, will conduct a workshop for Klamath Falls and Fort Klamath in making suits and coats next month.

Dates for Klamath Falls classes are February 4, 5 and 6, and 11 and 12; for Fort Klamath are February 7, 8, 13, 14 and 15. There is still room at the demonstration for one more woman and her helper at Klamath Falls, and for three with their helpers at Fort Klamath. Women wishing to take advantage of the workshop classes should call Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillett at 8151 for detailed information. Classes will be from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. each of the days and those attending should bring sack lunches.

Details for giving home made coats and suits that tailored appearance through cutting, fitting and stiffening, will be thoroughly explained and demonstrated by Miss Lane.

Men Can Keep Rank Upon Re-enlistment

Men can now re-enlist in the army within 90 days of discharge and still retain their rank, it was stated at the Klamath Falls U. S. army recruiting office today.

The January army enlistment quota for Oregon was 331. Between January 15 and 21, 1,068 men were enlisted and by the end of the month 241, which is 69 per cent of the quota.

Fishleigh Named Night Patrolman

TULELAKE—Bob Fishleigh has been appointed night policeman by the city council to replace Wesley Harris, injured some weeks ago when a police car he was driving overturned.

Fishleigh will take over his duties February 1. He was a member of the military guard at Camp Tulelake prior to his discharge.
