CASCADE SUMMIT—The bodies of the man and children who drowned in Salt creek during the high water when the pavement gave way while their car was passing over, have as yet not been found. The body of the woman was found shortly after the accident occurred.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Williams and family, who lived here two years ago, are now residing at Selah, Wash. Williams is water superintendent for the city and also building inspector. A new tuberculosis hospital will be built here this summer.

Three Mexican section laborers are leaving Cascade Summit for Mexico. Three men from each section are being returned to Mexico in this assignment. It is expected that in six weeks all will have been returned. No new contracts are being issued and the old contracts have expired.

R. L. Porter spent a day in Portland recently having dental work done.

A. C. Nagel reports that due to the heavy snow his trapping is not up to par this year. The varmints seem to have fled the hard winter.

Dorothy Hukell, telegrapher here, cut her finger and was obliged to go to Eugene to have it treated. A tendon was cut and she will have to make repeated visits to the doctor to have it taken care of.

J. Spurgeon, who was agent here until last spring when he suffered a stroke and was compelled to take his pension, is reported so much improved that he is able to walk as far as 20 blocks. The Spurgeons reside near Laurelhurst park in Portland and he makes daily visits there.

The meat shortage, due to the strike, has not as yet affected Cascade Summit. R. L. Porter, who operates the local meat market was fortunate in receiving an extra large order, including 12 hams, from Swift and company the day before the strike. As the population here is only about 25, including the Mexican track laborers, this is ample to run the populace here for several weeks.

J. H. Hunter will continue as temporary chairman of the American Legion drum and bugle corps of Klamath Falls post, No. 8, and Dick Gallagher, former state champion drum major, will act in that capacity for the re-activated corps. It was decided at a meeting Tuesday night in the War Memorial building. Attending the meeting were Jack Otterbien, Jimmie Hunter, E. E. Benner, T. B. Young, Clyde Thompson, M. E. Cooper, Marion Green, Dick Gallagher and J. H. Hunter.

Attendance was not what we expected," said Hunter, "but I'm sure the boys will want to see a real champion corps again, and we're planning on practise sessions as soon as we get the minimum number of men signed up. I hope anyone that's interested will call me at 5907, in the evenings, or call Tom Young at the Klamath heating company during the day."

Hunter pointed out that hundreds of dollars worth of equipment and uniforms are in good repair and ready to go. Tentative plans call for an appearance on Memorial Day.

Keno

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cole are here from Ohio. They are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Moore. Moore is Cole's uncle.

Mrs. Tom Calmes left Wednesday for San Francisco where she will visit for a couple of weeks with her father and other relatives.

Mrs. Roy Farrell's mother and brother visited at the Farrell home this past week. They are from around Redding, Calif. Mrs. C. H. McKeen, daughter Mary, and three youngest sons, Frank, Gregory and Freddie, have moved back to Talent. Walter and Sam, both of whom have recently received their discharges from army and navy service, are remaining here for the time.
