

Friendship Court Installs Officers

What was said to be almost a record crowd attended the open meeting and installation of officers of the Order of the Amaranth, Friendship court of Klamath Falls, held in the Masonic temple Saturday evening, January 26. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns, and the formal gowns worn by the officers and flower girls added to the scene.

First, the installing officers were seated. They were William Milne, past patron; installing officer for the evening, recently returned from three years overseas; Isabella Milne, installing marshal; E. H. Jones, marshal's aid, and Patricia Henry, installing secretary. Beatrice Dennison was installing musician, and Charlotte Martin is the past royal matron.

The new royal matron and royal patron were escorted to their chairs by the flower girls, all in white floor length gowns. Flo Ann Eaton, royal matron, was dressed in white with touches of gold, and wore a lavender orchid on her shoulder. Jack Schulze is royal patron, Ann Pearce assistant matron, Ted Reeves assistant patron, Mary Ellen Gaster conductress; Rose Jones, assistant conductress; Blanche Schulze, treasurer; Ruth Stanley, secretary; Charlotte Martin, trustee; Grace Herman, marshal in the East; Ora Greiger, marshal in the West; Florence West, Truth; Nancy Milne, Faith; Gladys Metler, Wisdom; Betty Hunter, Charity; Blanche Marks, standard bearer; Charlotte Osborn, historian; Irma Miller, prelate; Blanche McGilvray, musician; Rose Fouglass, warder; Frank Douglas, sentinel; Patricia Henry, publicity.

Frances Reeves was mistress of ceremonies for the evening and Bernice Finch, coronation matron. After the royal matron, Flo Ann Eaton, was led to the altar and duly installed, the flower girls presented a floor drill and Mrs. Eaton an arm bouquet of red carnations.

Charlotte Clark, grand lecturer from Portland, was a visitor and following her introduction to the order, complimented the lodge and its officers. She was presented with a corsage and a gift. Charlotte Martin, past royal matron, received many gifts. The new royal matron presented gifts to the installing officers and a large bouquet of American Beauty roses was given to Mrs. Eaton and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Purdin.

Jewel Cantrell sang three numbers, accompanied by Beatrice Dennison, and there were talks by Bernice Finch, coronation matron, Frances Reeves, mistress of ceremonies, and by William Milne, past royal patron, who also congratulated the lodge upon its excellent work. The royal patron and royal matron thanked the flower girls and the installing officers for their admirable presentation of the installation.

Supper was served in the banquet room where the "U" shaped table was candle-lighted and bright with flowers. Committee for the supper was composed of Freda Rickson, Margaret Gregg and Maggie Milne.

Catholic ladies who provided cakes for the USO during January were Mrs. Joe Mahoney, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. Joe Mahoney, Mrs. Robert Stephens, Mrs. Don Drulliner, Mrs. Tom Edwards, Mrs. G. H. Clark, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Bert McMahon, Mrs. T. F. O'Sullivan, Mrs. R. B. Grey, Mrs. Ed Granas, Mary Parks, Marian Tolles, Dorothy Derah, and Marie Harrington.

Saturday is the day when the ladies of the parish serve at the USO, and those who acted as hostesses during the past month were Mrs. Marvin Albino, Mrs. A. Boechi, Mrs. Ed Paup, Mrs. Mike Brunner, Mrs. Bogue Dale, Mrs. A. Carnini, Mrs. Dan Colwell, Mrs. W. G. Ely, Mrs. R. B. Grey, Mrs. A. P. Heup, Mrs. R. E. Hooker, Mrs. E. M. Anna Mae, daughter of W. B. Swartz of 4129 Alameda and Elizabeth Swartz of Redrock, Okla., revealed her engagement this week to Leo Albertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Albertson of Lakeview. They will wed Sunday, February 17.

Several interesting games were played, and awards were received by Elizabeth Brandness, Maria Bartruss, Petronella Solie, Lenore Gallagher and Rita Matson. Sides were chosen for an old-fashioned spelling bee, with Lenore Gallagher and Catherine Schomaker leaders of the two sides, and Margaret Lavlin outspelled all the rest.

Church Rites

LANGELL VALLEY — In a ceremony read at high noon, Wednesday, January 23, in St. Augustine's church in Merrill, Gladys Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Walker of Bonanza, became the bride of James Martin of Etna, California.

The bride wore a blue suit dress trimmed with silver soles, a blue hat, and black accessories. She carried a white prayer book with gardenias and satin streamers.

Anne Jacobsen, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and wore winter white with pink accessories and a rose bud corsage. Marvin Jacobsen was best man. The ceremony was read by Father James O'Connor.

A dinner was served after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Walker. A beautifully decorated wedding cake centered the table and was cut by the bride and groom.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jacobsen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walker, Mrs. Ruth McGregor and David, Ernest Walker, and Mae McPherson.

The bridegroom recently returned from Europe where he served with the third and ninth armies.

The young couple left soon after the dinner for an extended trip to the Oregon coast.

Midland Unit

MIDLAND — The Midland home extension unit met with Mrs. Lyle Hickman Tuesday, January 22, with Mrs. Ernest Milani presiding. Mrs. Pearl Burnett and Mrs. Joe Milani demonstrated salads, and the guest award was received by Mrs. Ernest Milani.

The following members were present: Mrs. H. B. Largen, Mrs. Albert Schneck, Mrs. Ernest Milani, Mrs. Francis Flowers, Mrs. Leon Andrieu, Mrs. Louis Schneider, Mrs. George Andrieu, Mrs. Joe Milani, Mrs. August Andrieu, Mrs. Rayson, Mrs. Silas Grizzle, Mrs. Pearl Burnett, Mrs. Lee Sutton and the hostess, Mrs. Hickman.

The February meeting place has been changed, and it will be at the home of Mrs. Albert Schneck. Lucy Case will demonstrate "Keeping Well With Vitamin C."

Daughters Meet

Monday evening, January 28, Catholic Daughters of America held their regular monthly social meeting in the parish hall at 8 p. m. Mildred Smith, chairman of the losing team in the membership drive, introduced Phillis Mahoney, winning chairman, who thanked members of her team for their help.

Several interesting games were played, and awards were received by Elizabeth Brandness, Maria Bartruss, Petronella Solie, Lenore Gallagher and Rita Matson. Sides were chosen for an old-fashioned spelling bee, with Lenore Gallagher and Catherine Schomaker leaders of the two sides, and Margaret Lavlin outspelled all the rest.
