Engstrom Wins Jaycee Quiz

Much head-scratching was the order of business last night when the Jaycees, meeting in the Pelican party room, tried their luck with a Time current affairs quiz under the direction of Ray Ward, program chairman. After 50 minutes of concentrated thought, mutterings and dire prophecies, Pat Engstrom emerged the winner of a beautiful world globe for his score of 85. Engstrom also was honored by the members when it was announced he was leaving Klamath Falls, where he has been connected with the soil conservation service, to go into private business in Fargo, S. D.

The Klamath delegation to the district convention, scheduled for February 23 and 24 at Prineville, under the leadership of John Sandmeyer, president, will make a strong bid to arrange for holding of the state convention here in May.

Sam Mushen, chairman of the Americanism committee, announced that he had an excellent program lined up for the next dinner meeting, which will be the climax of Americanism Week. By vote of the group, a request for assistance from Mayor Ostendorf concerning certain legislation scheduled for the local ballot, was referred to the civic affairs committee. Ray Garrison, chairman. This committee will meet with the mayor for further study of the plans and report its recommendations to the next meeting for action.

At the conclusion of the meeting, all were urged to attend the social hygiene luncheon to be held in the Willard hotel, Monday noon, February 11. John Sandmeyer will be toastmaster.

Robertson Named To School Post

Garry Robertson, principal of Roosevelt school, was named general supervisor of districts 1 and 2 at a meeting of both boards last night in the KUHS building. Robertson will be replaced at Roosevelt by Edmund Attebury, just returned from military service.

Robertson's duties will be in the field of curriculum construction, testing, in service training of teachers and pupil accounting (the report card system). He takes over his new duties next Monday and his offices will be in the KUHS building. He will also teach classes in World history and one in American history, to high school students.

The new supervisor came here from Lewiston, Mont., as principal of Riverside in 1944. He went to Roosevelt in the fall of 1945. He holds an MA degree from the University of Montana and the board considers him especially well-fitted for the newly created assignment.

Mrs. Marguerite Grove was named to fourth grade assignment at Conger school. Mrs. Elda Fletcher, who was formerly in the fourth grade at Conger, has been named to remedial reading assignment at Mills.

Staff changes at Klamath Union high school included two members of the faculty. Wayne Scott, who has been in army service for the past two years, has returned and will assume teaching assignment in the commercial field and physical education. Jack O'Connor, on half-time assignment in music in the elementary and high school, prior to entering the navy, is back and will assume teaching duties next week. He takes over some of the work done in the past by Lillie Darby who is now on sick leave in La Grande.

Nylons To Be Auctioned Off

It's now six pair of Nylon hose that will be auctioned off during the American Legion's gala "Blockbuster Blowout" to be held Saturday night, at 8 o'clock in the Legion's hall, 4th and Klamath, according to R. D. McGhee, general chairman. It was also announced that 10 pounds of real butter will be taken home by 10 lucky people and hundreds of surprise features have been planned by the "demolition" committee.

The affair will be open only to Legionnaires and their families, and an invitation has been extended to members of the posts in Merrill, Malin and Tulelake. The "Blockbuster Blowout" will start promptly at 8 p. m. and entertainment is the order of the day, with dancing, cards, games, contests and all types of refreshments.

Legion Will Initiate 60 New Members

Promptly at 8 o'clock tonight an initiation team from the 40 of 8 of Klamath Falls post No. 8 of the American Legion will induct about 60 new members who have signed up since the first of the year. This will highlight the first regular business session of February. Members will hear a report on the district convention held in Grants Pass over the weekend, and several other important matters will be discussed.

Don Everitt will report on the Victory clothing drive and further announcements will be made concerning detailed plans for the "Blockbuster Blowout." All regular and new members, as well as any honorably discharged veteran of World War II, are cordially invited to attend tonight's initiation and business meeting.

Recruiter Visited By Former Shipmate

L. J. Callier, Ch. MoMM, recently of the USN submarine Ronador, now in the local navy recruiting office, was pleasantly surprised by a visit from a former shipmate Friday.

Jack Halferty, fire controlman 1/c, Portland, used one of his five-days' leave to visit his friend. He had sacrificed a 60-days' leave in order to volunteer for duty on a ship that is going out on the atomic bomb test.

After an early dinner at Callier's home, Halferty caught the 7:20 bus for Portland.

United States Mails Full Of Butter

PORTLAND, Feb. 5 (AP)—The U. S. mails are full of butter these days.

Postal officials here reported handling five times as much butter as normally—the largest volume since depression days. Mailed in one to four pound parcels, the butter comes to hungry city residents from farm districts in eastern Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

An act of Continental Congress in 1775 established the American Postal Service, with Benjamin Franklin as postmaster general.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to take this means of thanking our many friends, the Eagles lodge, Moose lodge and the auxiliary to the B. of R.T., for their gifts and thoughtfulness after the loss of our home by fire.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barhan.

Large Class Hears Dean

One of the largest extension classes gathered in Room 312 of KUHS last night to hear Dean Ralph W. Leighton, head of the school of physical education, University of Oregon, open the course in the first of a series of lectures.

Dean Leighton's audience, 65 teachers and laymen, heard him discuss "Practices and Principles of Physical Education." He will repeat the subject tonight.

Next Monday and Tuesday, February 11 and 12, Dortha Moore, director of physical education and health instruction for girls, state department of education, will speak on "Practices and Procedures," with demonstrations.

Dean Leighton said the class was exceptionally gratifying. It is being given for college credit but those who wish to attend without this aim may do so.

The last sailing ship built in Great Britain was the Archibald Russell, which was built in Glasgow in 1905.
