4-H Club Members Hold Meet

The West Malln Champions, 4-H beef club, met Sunday, February 3, 1946 at Stuart Henzel's home for its February club meeting. The president, Ilyas Smalley called the meeting to order at 2:45 p. m. The opening songs and yells were led by Gerold Dixon, vice president and yell leader. Nancy Jenkins, secretary, called the roll and as each member answered a report on different breeds of cattle was given. Kathleen Wilson reported on Aberdeen-Angus; Gerald Dixon, Galloway breed; Nancy Jenkins, Red Polled; Ilyas Smalley, Brahman breed; Jerry Smalley, Hereford breed; Stuart Henzel and Orville Dixon will give their report at the next meeting. The club had two visitors,

F. A. Skinner, 4-H club agent and Henzel. Skinner told the club what he planned in 4-H work and how the other clubs were getting along. Henzel spoke to us on some of the activities of the Rotary club. He said plans are underway for the 1946 4-H fair in Klamath Falls.

It was decided by the club that another beef club be invited to the next club meeting. Club members enjoyed a nice lunch prepared by Mrs. Henzel and after the meeting, Clifford Jenkins, local leader, talked about lice on cattle. He demonstrated the treatment on a club calf and each member was given the opportunity to apply the treatment.

The Needle and Thread 4-H club met January 29, at the Henzel school. The meeting was called to order by the president, Gerry Masten.

Club members gave the COLDS VICKS VapoRip. Relieve misery, as most mothers do. Rub the throat, chest and back with pledge, sang two songs and gave two yells. Some of the girls brought their sewing to show to the other girls and to discuss how the articles were to be made. A few games were played and then the meeting was adjourned. The leader of the club, Mrs. C. H. Kelly, was unable to be present at this meeting.

Bomber tester drops a hint on winter driving
... "get Chevron Supreme"

CHEVRON
GASOLINE

"It gets plenty wintery up in the sub-stratosphere where we test the B-29s," says Boeing test-pilot Elliott Merrill. "But, high or low, Chevron Aviation Gasoline makes their engines sing. That's why I use Chevron Supreme Gasoline in my car—it surely starts fast on chilly mornings."

Sure thing, Mr. Merrill, Chevron Supreme Gasoline does smooth out rough-weather driving. On the nippiest days its high-volatility ingredients—carefully controlled to prevent vapor-lock—nudge your engine into action instantly.

Chevron Supreme Gasoline warms-up your car in a jiffy and gets you under way with never a cough or sputter. So, get rid of coffee-grinder starts this winter, and enjoy driving with Chevron Supreme. It's "tailored" to bring out the best in your car.
