Klamath Folks Leave For South

While scores gather up their winter ski equipment and hie themselves to the snow covered slopes of Sun Mountain on The Dalles-California highway each Saturday and Sunday, it seems that almost as many are packing up to spend the next couple of weeks in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and young son Jon left Friday at noon by motor for San Francisco, Los Angeles and Furnace Creek Inn at Death Valley where they will spend the next several weeks. They plan to see a number of Klamath folks who are south, including Mr. and Mrs. Wilford E. Lamm of Modoc Point now wintering in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoagland are other Klamathites who have signed the Furnace Creek Inn register recently. They plan to spend the month of February in the south.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt left Friday afternoon for San Francisco, accompanying their son, Lt. Calvin Hunt, to the Bay city. He takes the Steamliner for Battle Creek, Mich., reporting back to Percy Jones, General hospital, where he is stationed with the United States army medical corps. Cal has been home on a 60-day leave from that hospital. Dr. and Mrs. Hunt will spend several days in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serruys were also on the list of those who have left this snow and wind. They drove south Tuesday and will stay in Los Angeles and Laguna Beach and may continue on from there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl and Gerry and Mrs. Richard Igl are in Berkeley this week and are expected home the first of next. They drove south.

Going away, but not where it's warm, are Dr. and Mrs. James Hilton and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks, who left by train last night en route to Chicago where the men are going on business. Mrs. Hilton plans to stop in Minneapolis for a visit with her sister's family, Mrs. Allen Fox, and Dr. Hilton will join her there. The Hicks may return by the southern route and stop off in Los Angeles to have a visit with their son, Jerry, stationed at San Diego with the U. S. navy.

Klamath Falls, covered with snow and brittle cold, loo'd like paradise to the Al Roenicks when they finally got home Thursday after having been turned back at Onkridge due to a slide on the Willamette Pass. The day they left Portland there was a terrific wind-storm and natives in the valley say they anticipate a flood which will be "a better one" than that of late December.

It's a little girl for Denis and Rose Babson, born February 6 in New Orleans. The little one is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Perkins Babson of Los Angeles. Mrs. Macartney is in New Orleans with the new arrival who weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces her first day.

While Stan and Jolene Stai-gar were in New York they had dinner with Dr. and Mrs. William Sweetman of Ossining, New York. Mrs. Sweetman will be remembered here as Maxine Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson of Summers lane. She is now public health nurse at Ossining and Dr. Sweetman is a resident doctor in a nearby hospital. They plan a visit home in June, the Stai-gars reported. While in New York the Stai-gars enjoyed a number of shows including "Bloomer Girl." Major Stai-gar was given his terminal leave
