

Dannie Hall Is February Bride

In a 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony read in the First Presbyterian church, Friday, February 1, Dannie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Mast of 915 California, became the bride of Quillon Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gibson of Winsboro, Tex. The church was decorated with daffodils and acacia.

Chaplain Graham Gilmer of the Marine Barracks read the ceremony. Attending the couple were Marjorie Ongman and William Morrow.

Choosing for her wedding a sky-blue dressmaker suit with brown accessories, Dannie wore a purple orchid and carried a white Testament. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Her maid of honor wore a dove gray dressmaker suit with black accessories and a rosebud corsage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. A. H. Denison. The soloist, Mrs. Sam Ackerman, sang "Because" and "At Dawn-ing."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple cut their wedding cake which was served by Betty Largent and Frances Gilerist.

The bridegroom was recently discharged from the navy at San Diego. Prior to his discharge he was stationed at the naval air station in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson plan to make their home in Klamath Falls.

Delta Gamma chapter of Del-phian will meet Tuesday at 9:45 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Don Zumwalt, 435 N. 2nd. The topic will be, "Thomas Henry Huxley: Agnostic."

Inclement weather made it necessary to postpone a meeting of Wednesday club of St. Paul's this past week, and February 20, Wednesday evening, has been set for the next gathering of the group in the parish house.

Teacher Party

Overalls and handlebar mustaches or aprons and braids were the proper attire for teachers of the city schools who attended a "Sis and Mirandy" dinner at Klamath Union high school, Thursday evening, January 31.

The table centerpiece carried out a "down on the farm" theme with cows, milkmaids, and farmer lads. Following a country-style dinner, Andrew Loney led the group in an old fashioned singing bee.

Charles McLin, master of ceremonies, introduced the numbers on the program which included a reading by Marguerite Grove, a barber shop quartet with Wendell Smith, John Best, Fred Goodwin, Paul Deller, and Charles Woodhouse as accompanist, a humorous PTA meeting by the Roosevelt school faculty, and a blackface tap dance and piano duet by Ola Mae Carter and Patricia Hunt.

A colorful entrance was made by a milk maid, Florence Ollmann, leading her two cows. She was looking for her hired hand, "Arnie" Gralapp.

Appreciation was expressed by those teachers present to Garry Robertson, president of the City Teachers' association, and to his committee for the evening's entertainment.

Delta Gamma chapter of Del-phian will meet Tuesday at 9:45 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Don Zumwalt, 435 N. 2nd. The topic will be, "Thomas Henry Huxley: Agnostic."

Return To Meat Rationing To Be Called If Necessary

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—President Truman said today he would call for a return to meat rationing if it becomes necessary to prevent 10 to 15 million people from starving to death.

The president told his news conference that he thought it would not be necessary to ration meat, that he hoped not.

If, however, it becomes necessary to keep from 10 to 15 million people from starving to death, he said, he would call for a return to meat rationing.

IT'S POSSIBLE!

... but we have BEEF, PORK and LOCKERS!

Right now we have beef, pork and a few frozen food lockers are still available. Buy a half or a whole beef or hog and store it right here. If that is too much meat, go in with your neighbor, but DO IT NOW!

Market Suggests Spreads For Bread

AT least you can have spread for your bread . . . if not butter . . . for, while shopping at the PINE STREET MARKET . . . Martha noticed that a good-sized shipment of Kerr's jams and jellies has arrived.

The variety includes most of the long-time favorites . . . such as apple butter, peach and pineapple jam, grape, loganberry and junberry jellies. Guess the strawberry was all snatched up.

Another recent item on the shelves . . . Flillet of Mackerel, packed in oil . . . is something delicious you're missing if you haven't tried it. I've found it more flavorful than tuna . . . for salads, sandwiches or creaming.
