Marine Barracks Scene Of Party

The last social function of Marine Barracks officers was a farewell cocktail party and Valentine dance given the bachelor officers quarters Thursday night.

The doorway was encircled with a huge red heart with smaller hearts suspended from streamers in the center. The couples parted the streamers and stepped through the heart to enter the room. Red hearts decorated the windows and gay streamers hung from the ceiling.

During the evening a buffet supper was served by members of the BOQ staff.

At 11 o'clock, Mrs. Lowell T. Coggeshall presented gifts of jewelry to several guests present.

Honorary civilian members from Klamath Falls were among the 300 guests present. And also there were Mrs. Bernard Dubel, Col. and Mrs. Charles Church of Roseburg and Capt. and Mrs. Lowell Coggeshall, USNR.

Arrangements for the affair were under the direction of the recreation department with Lt. William Newell in charge and Lt. Bruce Howard assisting. Evans' orchestra furnished the music.

The farewell dance was the last of a series of monthly social functions given at the BOQ since the inception of the marine post here.

Episcopal Rites

In a 4 o'clock afternoon service read by the Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday, February 10, Johanne Siemens, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Siemens and Mr. John Siemens of this city, became the bride of James Harvey Ray of Salt Lake City.

Vows were exchanged before the altar decked with daffodils and white carnations. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Lloyd L. Low, was attractive in a grey dressmaker suit with which she wore a small pink hat and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Betty Lea Dailey, wearing a deep brown suit with matching accessories and a bouquet of spring flowers, was Johanne's only attendant. The best man was the bride's brother, John Charles Siemens.

Immediately after the ceremony there was a reception at the Low home at 1975 Del Moro where 50 guests called to greet Mr. and Mrs. Ray. The wedding cake was cut by the young couple and presiding at the coffee urn was Mrs. E. B. Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray are now at home in Salt Lake City. The groom served as an ensign in the United States naval reserve and met his bride while on duty at the Klamath naval air station. She is a member of a pioneer Klamath county family and a popular member of the younger set.
