

Students Play At Library Meet

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club enjoyed to the fullest the program presented Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the main auditorium when Harlan P. Bosworth, recently returned from overseas, and students of Harry Borel combined to make the day most interesting.

Mr. Bosworth followed the entrance of the United States army and his branch of the service, engineers, into The Netherlands, described the interesting work done there and also told of the schools in Holland and compared them with the schools of this country.

The music for the afternoon was provided by students of Harry Borel, and taking part were Marilee Crawford and Ethelmae Skinner, first violins; Donald Quick, viola; Louise Barnhart, accompanist; Neil Olson, cello; Ralph Hayes, Frances Stearns and Wayne Angel, second violins.

These seven children are grade school students and their average playing time is approximately two years, Mr. Borel said. Their timing was particularly fine and of the many numbers which they played, the two most enjoyed were probably the two movements from Mozart's Serenade, Allegro and Minuete. It is hoped that this group will play again.

Hostesses for Monday afternoon were John Ashley and Mrs. Carl Steinseifer.

The next meeting of Library club will be held Monday, March 11, at the Little Theatre off Mon Claire when the drama group of AAUW will present the annual play given for the organization.

Four Years Old

A Valentine birthday party Sunday delighted four-year-old Kathleen Dougherty, who was honored by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, 5038 Cottage.

Four little friends enjoyed the games and refreshments with Kathleen. There was a big white cake decorated with red hearts and four red candles. The table was scattered with red hearts and candy baskets marked each place.

Little guests were Roslyn Warren, Jimmy Anderson, Ginger Ann Young and Helyn Penney.

Visit In South

In a letter received recently from Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Poole of this city, now at Key West, Fla., she tells of their trip across the continent with the Poole's house-trailer. They left here in September and spent two months in Ohio, Mr. Poole's native state, and from there went to Tampa, Fla. She writes of visiting the famous Bok Tower at Lake Wales while in Tampa, and of the chimes recital which lasted an hour, and is given each day at noon.

The first of January Mr. and Mrs. Poole went to Key West, site of a large navy airbase and also a submarine base. They plan to be in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras the latter part of this month. It has been a wonderful vacation, she writes, but Oregon is still their preference for a home.
