

Install Officers At Parish Hall

The officers of four organizations of St. Paul's Episcopal church were installed Wednesday at an all-day session held in the parish hall. The women gathered for communion service at 11:30 o'clock followed by luncheon in the hall. The St. Valentine's Day motif was used to decorate the table and there was a program in keeping with the day.

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach spoke on "The Origin of St. Valentine's Day," and the afternoon was spent in making Valentines for Doernbecher hospital for children in Portland. Mrs. James Wallinder received the prize for the most attractive Valentine.

The woman's auxiliary combined with the Guild in entertaining during the day. Hostesses were Mrs. A. J. Lambert and Mrs. Joe Piland. Officers of the following groups were installed:

Woman's auxiliary: Mrs. A. Bristow Hood, president; Mrs. Roy Lee, first vice president; Mrs. James Wallinder, second vice president; Mrs. Gaylord Upington, secretary; Mrs. Roland E. Wright, treasurer.

Wednesday club: Mrs. Donald McKay, president; Mrs. George Flitteraft, vice president; Mrs. Roy Whytal, secretary-treasurer.

Altar Guild: Mrs. Willis A. Glidden, directress; Mrs. T. J. Edwards, assistant directress; Mrs. Robert Elliott, secretary-treasurer.

Guild: Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, president; Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Robertson, second vice president; Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, secretary; Mrs. LeRoy Tyrrell, treasurer.

Wedding

In a mid-day ceremony read Thursday, January 30, at St. Stephens Methodist church in Oakland, Calif., Virginia Claire Talbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Talbott of San Leandro, became the bride of Richard E. Jessup, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cap Jessup of Chemult.

The bride wore a pale green suit with black and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Attending the couple were Lt. and Mrs. George J. Knopas Jr. Dr. K. Fillmore Gray read the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessup will make their home in Portland where the bridegroom is stationed.

Social Club

Members of the Rebekah Social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday, and there was a good attendance. Valentine's Day decorations were used, a Valentine cake was served and there was a Valentine exchange.

The next meeting will be February 27 and will be a social afternoon. Eva Richardson and Alice Gocler will serve dessert at 1 o'clock. The social club is sponsoring an apron sale to be held following Prosperity Rebekah lodge meeting on April 4, and the president, Berenice McCracken, asks that all aprons be turned in for the sale. On April 18, following lodge, there will be a distribution of fancywork to those holding tickets. The tickets will be on sale before lodge meeting, and for further information call Mrs. McCracken. The proceeds of these two sales will be used for the district convention to be held here in September.

Anniversary

MERRILL—Invitations are in the mail this week for open house, February 24, at their home in Ashland for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Jester, former Klamath Falls residents, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary February 26. Married in Omaha, Nebraska, they came to the west in 1913, living for several years at Twin Falls, Idaho.

In 1925 they came to Klamath Falls and for 10 years operated the Harriman lodge on the west side of Klamath lake. They left to make their home in Ashland 11 years ago.

Six daughters and one son are all expected to attend the festivities. Hours are from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. The children are Mrs. George Rowden, Fish Lake; Mrs. Walter Coulter, Jacksonville; Mrs. Helen Rowell, Ashland; Mrs. A. J. King, Merrill; Mrs. Hope Larsen, Klamath Falls; and Clinton R. Jester, Grants Pass.

VFW Auxiliary

Members of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in regular session in the library clubroom on the evening of Thursday, February 7, with Mrs. Walter Thompson presiding. Nine candidates were initiated at this time, Patricia Baustien, Laura Sergeant, Ida Dooly, Fae Sheldon, Viola Sauer, Charlotte Ashworth, Edith Long, Ellen Barker, and Jane O'Connor. Mrs. Teator of Redmond was a guest.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry La Barge, Mrs. Dell Hoyt and Mrs. Edith Ward. The next meeting is February 21.

Daughters Meet

Catholic Daughters of America held a business meeting Monday, February 11, at 8 p. m. in the parish hall. The business meeting was preceded by a display of Early American glassware, including early American chinaware, French glassware and German, belonging to Mrs. Clarence Humble of the KUHS faculty, and Mrs. Humble explained the processing and moulding of each piece. Her talk was extremely interesting.

It was reported that 50 laprobes have been completed and turned in to the Red Cross headquarters during the last year. This was one of the CDA projects for 1945.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by a committee consisting of Clara Beard, chairman, assisted by Phyllis Smith, Helen Paup and Mildred Seavey.

Sixth Birthday

Barbara, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Rose, 1530 Austin, celebrated her birthday anniversary Thursday afternoon, February 14, with a Valentine party. Decorations followed the red and white heart theme of Valentine Day.

Present were Rosalie and Sheryl Wails, Janice Sessler, Helyn Penny, Barbara Blanchard, and Barbara, the hostess.

Merrill Rites

MERRILL—In an informal, candlelight service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wu, north of Merrill, their son James Gay Wu took as his bride, Beatrice Kam Ngan Lum in an 8 o'clock double ring ceremony, Tuesday evening. The service was read by Rev. David J. Ferguson, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian church, in the presence of relatives of the groom and a number of intimate friends. The young couple stood before two large baskets of calla lilies and white carnations complemented by the lighted tapers in candelabra.

The bride arrived a week ago from her home in Honolulu, T.H. and Mr. Wu has just been discharged from the merchant marine. For her wedding Miss Lum chose a dressmaker suit of aqua and her flowers were gardenias and carnations.

Her bridesmaid, June Wu, sister of the groom wore a darker shade of green and she carried gardenias and carnations.

George Chin, Merrill, was best man. The young couple received immediately following the ceremony, cutting their lovely white tiered wedding cake.

Engagement

MERRILL—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Streetman have announced the engagement of their daughter, Maudell, to French E. Johnson Jr., Tulelake. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. French Johnson who are spending the winter in LaMesa, Calif.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Shasta high school in Redding, is employed in the Bank of America at Tulelake. Mr. Johnson received his discharge from the army air corps after flying for several months in the European theater of war.

The wedding will be an event of early summer.

Tau Chapter

Members and guests of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were entertained at the home of Mrs. George D. Wardell, 1745 Menlo-way, Thursday, February 14.

Games were in charge of Lois Rumer, with the award going to Mrs. Jules Napier. A box of candy was presented to the chapter, announcing the forthcoming marriage of Doris Yantis.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in a Valentine motif. Lois Rumer served, and Mrs. Warren Poole poured.

The committee in charge of the party included Mrs. George Wardell, Mrs. Pat Fairchild, Mrs. S. F. Sabo Jr., Mrs. Warren Poole, Mrs. John Feeback, and Mrs. John Harding. In addition to the committee, those present were Mrs. L. L. Smith, Mrs. Jules Napier, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. Loyal Heath, Frances Balin, Evelyn Ickes, Wilma Hemperley, Margie Rumer, Lois Rumer, and Mrs. Clarence Ough.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday, February 21, at 8 o'clock.

Degree Of Honor

The Degree of Honor, Klamath Falls 108, initiated a class of candidates Monday, February 11, in the regular hall. All officers, ushers and the escort staff were in formal dress. After presenting the colors and the officers march, the first class of the year, a class of four, was initiated.

After the initiation Cressa Grubb, junior past state president, gave the flower charge. A letter was read from the national president, Frances Buell Olson, congratulating the association on its year book as the most outstanding book she had received from anywhere in the United States.

There was a good attendance both of officers and members. Those initiated were Anne Pierce, Barbara and Evelyn Gordon and Margaret Grubb, daughter of the junior past state president, Cressa Grubb.

After the meeting games, a Valentine box, refreshments, and a delightful social evening were enjoyed in the banquet room. The hostesses were Wayne Hunsaker and Alice Hershberger.

Mrs. Haydn O. Duke of San Antonio, Texas, is spending an indefinite time in Klamath Falls, guest of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Lyle of 72 Pine. Mrs. Lyle spent a few months recently in San Francisco and Mrs. Duke joined her there.

Tom and Jerry, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, who left here some time ago to make their home in St. Helens, Oregon, will report for duty in the V-5 program of the U. S. navy, friends here have learned. Both boys were prominent in athletics at St. Helens.

IN SAN FRANCISCO, Tuesday, January 12, Beulah A. Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Cooper of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Harold C. Greer, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Owens of Omaha, Neb.
