52 Attend Red Cross Banquet

The annual banquet of the Klamath County chapter of the American Red Cross was held Wednesday night with 52 members present and L. Orth Sisemore, chapter chairman, presiding.

Red Cross pins, certificates, and ribbon bars with broad or narrow gold or silver stripes indicating hours of voluntary service were awarded to 25 persons.

Sisemore made a general report on activities of the chapter during the past year, stating that 178 voluntary workers contributed 34,040 hours of their time to making surgical dressings in workrooms maintained at headquarters and in Mills, Shasta, Merrill, Malin and Tulelake districts. These workrooms were closed in February when the quota for dressings was completed.

Recognition Special recognition was given Leslie Rogers who is retiring as treasurer of the chapter after serving in this capacity for the past 25 years.

New county officers were elected with Otto Smith as chairman, Vern Owens, vice chairman; Myron Shannon, treasurer; Mrs. Dean Osborn, secretary. Thirty-five new members were also elected to the board of directors.

Of those presented with service awards Mrs. John Drake of Fort Klamath chapter received the most heavily striped ribbon bar and Mrs. John Ronvold ran a close second.

Others receiving certificates, pins and bars included Mrs. Jessie Lyle, Mrs. John Rach, Mrs. Leslie Pope, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Maud Hosley, Mrs.

Leslie Rogers, Leslie Rogers, Otto Smith, Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Grace Cole, Dr. Peter Rozendal, L. Orth Sisemore, George Myers, Mrs. E. H. Pike, Mrs. P. A. Albertson, Mrs. James Blair, Mrs. Hypatia Canning, Mrs. Margaret Mucci, Mrs. Nellie C. LaMothe, Mrs. Dean Osborn, and Fred Fleet.

There are pins for all who have served over 200 voluntary hours, Mrs. Lena P. Dennis, executive secretary, announced, and those who have moved away will receive theirs if they will send their new address.

Special entertainment was given during the dinner by the Mills school a cappella chorus directed by Patricia Hunt.

Extension Unit News

"Conserving You" was the subject used by Mrs. Winnifred K. Gillen at the Klamath Falls home extension unit last Wednesday.

Mrs. Gillen also showed two very informative films on "Step by Step in Everyday Tasks," and "A Simple Way to Iron a Shirt."

The Washington birthday motif was used on the beautifully decorated luncheon table, from which the hostesses, Mrs. I. J. O'Hara and Mrs. B. V. Yaden served potluck lunch. There were 23 old members present, two new members and five visitors.

The next meeting will be on the "Care of Walls, Woodwork and Closets," and will be held in the women's parlors of the Methodist church. The project leaders will be Mrs. C. A. Baker and Mrs. L. D. Metcalf and the hostesses for the day are Mrs. Paul Lee and Mrs. J. E. Eichendorf.

WRA Population Reduced To 4831

TULELAKE, Feb. 21 — The population of the Tulelake WRA center was reduced to 4831 Monday morning as compared to the peak population at the camp of more than 19,000.

Forty persons left the center Saturday, another 30 left Sunday, and some 65 men, women and children were slated to move out Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Most of the residents were California bound where they have either relatives or own property.

Legion Will Operate Club

Plans for the operation of a club in the Willard hotel, formerly occupied by the NCO officers, were outlined at this week's meeting of the American Legion by O. D. Matthews, chairman of the committee.

Reports on the recent "Blockbuster Blowout" were heard and $200 was realized from the affair. It was voted to donate excess chairs owned by the Legion to the Stewart-Lennox church.

James Hunter announced that the drum and bugle corps would perform at the state convention in Medford this summer and probably at the national convention in San Francisco. There will be another meeting of the corps soon.

No Observance
Paul Skeen, chairman of the retail merchants bureau, advised the Legion by letter that the bureau had decided not to observe Armistice Day, 1946, as a closed holiday. The matter was referred to the executive committee for action.

James Ellis, chairman of the rifle committee, announced a meeting followed by practice shooting would be held March 1, at the armory, Chester Stuart of KPJI was named sergeant-at-arms by Commander Paul Otterbein. Walter Wiesendanger, membership chairman, advised that the department quota had been exceeded and a local goal of 600 members had been set. Several new members were introduced during the evening.

Officials said the mines are being tracked down and sunk by gunfire but that many others have been washed ashore. These, officials said, still may be dangerous and should be reported at once.

Drifting Mines Found Off Coasts

SEATTLE, Feb. 21 (AP) — Drifting mines are being found in increasing numbers off the coasts of Washington, Oregon and Alaska, the coast guard reports.

Officials said the mines are being tracked down and sunk by gunfire but that many others have been washed ashore. These, officials said, still may be dangerous and should be reported at once.

One of the earliest ways of measuring time was by burning a candle or a stick.
