or how AEROMIST makes glass as clear as air!

Mr. Regg was in a fog, bumping into things, until his wife suggested Aeromist for his eye glasses. This magic glass-cleanser helped him see almost as sharply as on an X-Ray machine. It's super, too, for windows, mirrors, wind shields, picture glass, etc. Just a whiff and glass is air-clear. Yet a beautiful bottle is only ten cents!

During the half time the Pep Peppers put on a drill in which they "shone." The Peppers used illuminous paint for the sake of novelty. They glowed from head to toe, for their shoes were painted, as were large cardboard peppers, which were worn on their backs, and cards which were held at various angles during the drill. The drill consisted of the forming of a "K," and an "A" and several drill formations all done in the dark.
