

Cascade

The people of Cascade Summit are beginning to wonder if spring is not right around the corner. Several days of bright sunshine has been experienced here. The snow has diminished until only 96 inches remain. A hundred and 24 inches were on the ground at one time this winter.

The last Mexicans employed on the section here as laborers during the war manpower shortage will leave Saturday for Portland where they will be returned to their homeland as their contract with the Southern Pacific company has expired. They must be back in Mexico by March 1.

It is not known just what will be done in regard to obtaining section laborers here as well as elsewhere on the division. One official of the Southern Pacific reported that a shortage of manpower still prevails. He said 10 men were wanted in his own department and only one had asked for work there in the past two weeks. After accepting employment and on the way to the doctor's office for his physical examination the man found a better paying job and accepted it.

John R. Meissner, assistant signal maintainer, is spending a couple days in Portland on business.

Al Slowitsky, cook at the diner here, was a business visitor in Oakridge Tuesday.

E. H. Runkle and Glen Kearney, both of Portland, spent the weekend at their summer homes on the west end of Odell lake. Runkle is the new owner of the summer home formerly belonging to the late Tracy Tyler of Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Purkeypille and Howard Pratt of Corvallis arrived Saturday and visited the A. C. Nagels. While here Purkeypille became ill and was unable to return to Corvallis. Mrs. Purkeypille left Monday to look after their place of business there. The Purkeypilles own the summer home formerly owned by Dr. Kimmey.

Word has been received by his parents that Sgt. Roland L. Porter will return to the United States early in May. He is in Germany where a radio tower has been erected. He was in charge of the wiring of the station.

Poe Valley

Earl Webber and daughter Dorothy Holzhauser were callers at the Clarence Webber home Monday.

Word was received here recently that Merle Webber is now stationed in Belgium. He is a corporal in the quartermaster corps and has been in the service three years. He doesn't know yet when he will be home.

Freda Hope was a caller in Klamath Falls Wednesday where she consulted an eye doctor.

Earl and Clarence Webber attended a meeting of the Elks lodge in Klamath Falls Monday evening.

Chet Barton was a caller in Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Max Benedict went to Ashland this week.

Pauline Roberts is on the sick list. Friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Nork visited with the Hainer family Sunday.

The Benedict family have some grandchildren staying with them for a while.

The High family bought some baby chicks this week.

Eddie Roberts and Hallie Hainer are doing some carpenter work near Crystal Springs this winter.

The Shell oil man was a caller here Thursday on business.

Harry Gilbert was a shopper in Klamath Falls from here one day this week.

A shower party was held at the community hall Friday evening.

The Archie Roberts family are visiting in Stockton, Calif., at the home of their son, Harold Davis, and daughter and son-in-law, the Sydney Johnsons and family.

The Breithaupt boys sold some of their baled hay this week.

Effie Benedict was a caller at the home of her sister and brother-in-law the Warren Moores Saturday.

Warren Roberts is overhauling his car this week.

Arbie Roberts is doing chores for Archie Roberts this week.

Fort Klamath

House guests of William Lambert and his sister, Mrs. Sarah Stocum, at the Lambert home during the past three weeks were Mr. and Mrs. Preston L. Stocum of Anchorage, Alaska. Prior to coming to Fort Klamath to visit his mother and uncle, the former Lieutenant Stocum was given his discharge from the U. S. army at Fort Lewis, Wash. He and his wife returned last week to Alaska, where Stocum has accepted a government position in radio communications.

Visiting here also last week at the Lambert ranch were Mr. and Mrs. H. Markley Clark of Fairfax, Calif., the latter being Mrs. Stocum's daughter. The group of young people enjoyed skiing in this vicinity while here.

James Orth returned Friday to Livermore, Calif., after enjoying a short leave of absence from the veterans hospital there with his parents in Fort Klamath. While here, Orth, accompanied by his mother and by Mrs. Roy Wimer, made a trip to Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Wimer visiting her daughter Mrs. Jack Ruegg and family in Portland until the Orths returned from Tacoma when the group returned to Fort Klamath. Orth will remain at the veterans hospital at Livermore for the ensuing six months for medical care.

Mrs. Johnny Franks sustained severe cuts in both her knees on Thursday near Modoc Point when the car which she was driving left the highway and crashed into a bank while Mrs. Franks was endeavoring to avoid collision with another car. Other passengers in the Franks automobile were the two small Franks children, who escaped with minor scratches and bruises, and Mrs. Wesley Vohs, who was badly shaken and received bruises. Mrs. Franks was immediately taken to Klamath Falls by passing motorists for medical care, and is now able to be about on crutches following her injuries. Her husband is an employe of Big Lakes Box company here.

Charles Williams is in Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Guss Page is enjoying a visit with her sister and family at San Anselmo, Calif.

Sunday callers at the Lambert ranch here were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Benson, and Mrs. Spafford, all of Klamath Falls.

Donald Wimer returned home Monday from the Hillside hospital where he had been a patient following an emergency appendectomy. He is getting along fine and expects to resume his classes at Chiloquin high school in about 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Rhoten and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall and two children were Klamath Falls shoppers and visitors last week.

Mrs. Sarah Stocum and brother William Lambert had as their dinner guests on Tuesday the following group of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hurd of Genesee, Penn., Mrs. Orissa Wagner of Rochester, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey of Malin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strahan were called to Roseburg this week by the critical illness of his father, whose death occurred shortly after their arrival. The latter is employed in Fort Klamath as school teacher and during her absence Mrs. Marvin Roeder is the substitute teacher. Mrs. Roeder recently taught for several days at the Chiloquin grade school in the absence of Mrs. Warren of the school staff, who was also called away due to illness in her family.

Gene Page has returned from Portland where he successfully passed his physical examination for induction into the service. He is a junior at Chiloquin high school and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guss Page.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mullin of Klamath Falls were in Fort Klamath and vicinity on Wednesday, while Mullin was on business for the California Oregon Power company. Mrs. Mullin called on friends here during the day. She is the former Vera Edwards, daughter of Frank Edwards of Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. Loulyn Lambert, accompanied by their daughters Barbara and Elizabeth, spent Sunday here from their home in Klamath Falls visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mrs. Sarah Stocum and her brother, William Lambert, at the Lambert ranch.

Court-martialed

A Cleveland, O., attorney is preparing a brief which he hopes will gain a review for PFC Alex Ondi (above) who was court-martialed and sentenced to 50 years for failure to go on a patrol in the European theater. He claims he misunderstood the order.

—AP wirephoto.

Mt. Laki

Seventy-five people attended and enjoyed the farewell dinner Sunday at the grange hall for Chaplain and Mrs. Graham Gilmer and family. The dinner was under the supervision of Mrs. T. D. Jackson.

Mrs. Harry Orem who has been attending school at Southern Oregon college, Ashland, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dickson. Mrs. Orem expects to leave next week by plane for Virginia to join her husband, Harry L. Orem, who is stationed at a navy base there.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Manning who were recently married. Mrs. Manning is the former Pauline Ziemiensky.

Ernest Breithaupt is receiving treatment for pneumonia at a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffith of Ashland visited with relatives and friends here last week.

Eleanor Ann Jackson is confined to her home with the mumps.

Word has been received here of the birth of a nine-pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Baumgartner of Medford. Mrs. Baumgartner will be remembered as Eunice Gray.

DOUBLE DUCKING
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28 (AP) Mrs. Allen J. Carey's brindle bulldog Check really got her in cold water.

Check lost his footing while scampering along a Delaware river pier and fell in so the 31-year-old Mrs. Carey doffed her coat in 32-degree weather and plunged to the rescue.

Her husband grabbed a rope and hauled the dripping pair to safety.

A GENERAL'S HORSES

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28 (AP) A couple of army cavalrymen cornered General Joseph W. Stillwell at the USO here and got to talking about horses. "Say, general," one asked,

"did you have any horses over in the China-Burma-India theater?"

"Yes," replied the general with a sly smile, "and plenty tasty they were."

Woolfoam DONT GAMBLE
WASH ALL FINE WOOLENS IN Woolfoam
25c
AT LEADING DEPARTMENT, GROCERY AND DRUG STORES.
WOOLFOAM CORP., NEW YORK 10, N. Y.

NOTICE!
---AEROSOL---
For direct application of fine penicillin mist to infections of nose, throat and lungs. (Asthma, Bronchitis, Colds, Sinusitis, Hay Fever, Etc.)
McATEE CLINIC
122 So. 7th Phone 5535

Best buy now!

Juicy small oranges

Your dealer says: Juicy, small navel oranges are today's best buy. Vitamin rich, flavor rich, no seeds... tops for juice and out-of-hand eating.

CALIFORNIA Sunkist Navel ORANGES
BEST FOR JUICE and Every use!

BUY A BIG BAG FULL!

SO FRESH SO FLAVORFUL SO FINE FOR SNACKS

● To make them delightfully appetizing, wholesome and tasty!

SO... MORNING FRESH

BREAD IS AT ITS BEST WHEN ITS MORNING FRESH

Faster, Brighter, Safer cleaning

THAN ANY SUDS BEFORE IN HISTORY!

dreft

Stockings Wear Longer!

LOOK LOVELIER THAN WITH ANY SOAP!

Brighter Lingerie!

No "Washed-In" Coarseness!

NEW WOOLENS WASH SOFTER, FLUFFIER!

WORKS WONDERS NO SOAP IN THE WORLD CAN MATCH

- No Soap-Fading! For the first time in history Dreft made it possible to wash stockings, lingerie, woollens—knowing that with Dreft there's no soap-fading—no dulling film to dim colors!
- Instant Suds—More Suds in Any Water! In any water, in hardest water—even in cold or salt ocean water—Dreft suds come billowing up instantly. And notice, too, Dreft suds last so long!
- Clear, Clean-Rinsing Suds! The first suds ever to leave no streaks or cloudiness on dishes—no dulling film on your pretty silks, nylons, woollens.

Dishes Shine Without Wiping!

IT'S TRUE!.. No soap ever made can perform the dishwashing miracles that Dreft can! It makes dishes positively gleam without wiping. For Dreft leaves no streaks or cloudiness the way all soaps do. Even glasses sparkle—without touching a towel to them!

● The demand for Dreft is tremendous. If your dealer is out of Dreft, please be patient—there will be more Dreft soon.

Procter & Gamble's patented suds discovery