WHEAT

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP)—The first rallying tendency displayed by May rye in a week at Winnipeg brought out a little bolder support for the grain here today and prices were bid substantially highest of the time.

After another 5-cent limit decline at the opening of trading on the Canadian market, the grain encountered sufficient buying orders to recover all the loss at one time. Brokers here then began bidding the higher prices, extending fractional initial gains to 2 cents or more at times.

The 5-cent dip at Winnipeg since the recession for the grain there last Thursday to 40 cents a bushel, it was ascribed to the new exchange ruling raising the margin on May and July deliveries from 50 cents to $1.00 a bushel.

Trade in oats virtually has dried up since it joined other grains as a scarce commodity, brokers said.

Wheat, corn and barley again closed unchanged from yesterday's finish at ceilings of $1.80 1/2, $1.18 1/2, and $1.22 1/2; oats 1/2 cent higher to $1.00. May rice selling; rye unchanged to 3 1/2c up, May $2.17 1/2-1/4.
