"We ought to take a fair stand and then be firm about it," Fullbright declared. "We cannot assume that we represent all of the moral leadership in the world, but we must speak out for the principles for which we stand."

Senator Ball (R-Minn.) said he agreed 100 per cent with Vandenberg's position on Russia. Both he and Hatch said they had been "pepped up" by the senator's report that accomplishments at London far outweighed the meeting's failures.

Dr. Pollard Speaks Here

Dr. Lancaster Pollard, superintendent of the Oregon Historical society, spoke at a meeting of the local Historical society this week.

Relationship between the two groups, the county museum commission and schools was explained by Dr. Pollard who is also a member of the faculty of University of Oregon.

He gave practical and constructive suggestions in organizational work and urged the Klamath Falls group to incorporate so that gifts could be received in trust and emphasized building up membership to further the goal of the society and facilitate realization of its aims.

New Orchestra To Play Here

Featuring several players well-known to the dancing public, a new dance orchestra will make its first appearance at Danceland, 515 Klamath, on Saturday night, March 2. Composed of George Jennings, drums; Leo Matney, base fiddle; Katherine Cole, pianist, all former recent members of the Oregon Hillbillies; Don Phelps and Pat Patterson, saxophones and "Russ" on the Spanish guitar, the orchestra will feature two vocalists and a well-balanced variety of dances including schottisches, waltzes and polkas.

These dances are sponsored every Saturday night by the local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars which extends a cordial invitation to the public to enjoy an evening of dancing every Saturday night from 9 to 1.

Pact Sought With Millmen

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28 (AP) Representatives of AFL Millmen and the Woodworkers Employers association are meeting here today to avert a strike set for Friday in the union's demands for a 20-cent hourly wage boost for 700 workers in 31 Oregon plants.

J. M. Scudder, Employer association attorney, said last night the operators have offered a 10-cent an hour boost immediately with an additional 10 cents if higher prices can be approved for their product.

Scudder said an estimated 500 other workers in non-organized plants of the association presumably would be affected by any decision reached in the sessions with U. S. Conciliator George Brewer.

Travel Issues Will Be Aired
